

Here's to Father, an original poem

Here's To Father
Some Fathers are old and gray,
With experience wise and deep,
Their hearts are understanding
Forgiving, loving and secrets deep.
But here's to all the Fathers,
Their love is beyond compare.
They know the hours of concern,
And faith, in all despair.
Their tender words to the young,
Their attitude and gentle care,
Makes the one that call them
Dad,
Nestle close and know he's there.
When his gentle arms,
Fold around you tight,
It seems there isn't a care,
That Dad couldn't really fight.
He understands, completely
Each little hurt and pain.
He plays the silly little games
Some time, it's a strain.
But most of all I think,
I want my Dad to know,
Wherever he may be,
My love will always grow.
