Phipps said the Committee might also have to elect a precinct committee and officers for Patterson Precinct, which failed to hold its scheduled meeting for this purpose on April 25.

At the convention itself the authorized 25 delegates and 25 alternates to the May 20 State Democratic Convention in Raleigh will be elected. They were nominated, one each from each precinct at the precinct meetings. Any resolutions coming up through the precincts will be presented through the Resolutions Committee, of which Alex McMahon is Chairman.

Keynote speaker for the convention will be Sixth District Congressman Horace Kernegay. Chairman Phipps said Democratic candidates for office would also be recognized.

Immediately following the convention the Young Democrats Club has scheduled a parade of candidates to the Orange Speedway, where the YDC and Demo-
