

UNC resignations, retirements, leaves noted

A number of resignations, leaves-of-absence, and retirements of faculty members were announced at the University in Chapel Hill this week.

Paul W. Wager, professor of political science, will be retiring Sept. 1, it was announced by Chancellor William B. Aycock. Ernest Lloyd Mackie, professor of mathematics, is also retiring effective Sept. 1 but he will continue teaching mathematics.

Resigning in order to accept opportunities elsewhere are Acting Dean of the Library Science School Carlyle J. Frarey, who will accept a post at Columbia University; Prof. George Simpson, now on leave from the Department of Sociology and Assistant Deputy Administrator of the National Aeronautical and Space Administration, who continues in his position with the NASA;

Associate Prof. John M. Ehle, on leave from the Department of Radio, Television and Motion Pictures, and recently resigned as Special Assistant to the Governor of North Carolina, who will give his time to writing in New York; Associate Prof. Herbert William Fred, Department of Music, who will join the faculty of the University in Greensboro; Associate Professor of Classics and former Dean of Student Affairs Charles Henderson Jr., who will accept a post at Smith College; and Assistant Prof. Robert Ross Holloway, Classics Department, who will take a faculty position at Brown University.

11 get leaves . . .

Eleven faculty members of the Division of Academic Affairs have been awarded leaves;

Clifford Pierson Lyons, Kenan

Professor of English, has been awarded a leave during the fall and part of the spring semester of 1964-65 to attend the Shakespeare Festival in England; William M. Whyburn, Kenan Professor of Mathematics will be on leave from Sept. 1 to April during which time he will hold a National Science Foundation Fellowship and will be at the University of London.

Donald R. Matthews, professor of political science, will be on leave at the Center for the Advanced Study of Behavioral Sciences at Palo Alto, Calif.; Raymond Dawson, associate professor of political science, has been awarded a Fulbright grant to Kings College, University of London, and will be on leave from UNC for one year beginning Sept. 1.

William Hamburger, associate professor, School of Business Administration, will participate in the research program of the Institute of Defense Analyses of the Department of Defense and has been awarded a leave for one year beginning Sept. 1 for this program; James B. Meriwether, associate professor of English, has been awarded a leave from Sept. 1 to March 1, 1965, in order to accept a Guggenheim Fellowship with which he is working on a bibliography of the writings of William Faulkner.

Richard L. Simpson, associate professor of the Department of Sociology-Anthropology has been awarded a leave during the spring semester of 1965 in order to complete several publications; Siegfried Wenel, assistant professor of English, has been awarded a one-year leave enabling him to accept a grant from the American Council of Learned Societies which will take him to England to complete a book on medieval literature.

William Leon Wiley, Kenan Professor in the Department of Romance Languages, has been awarded a leave from July 1 through the fall semester to accept a visiting professorship at Brown University; Stephen Baxter, associate professor of history, has been awarded a leave for the 1965 spring semester to complete a manuscript for publication.

E. P. Douglass, associate professor of history, has been awarded a leave for the fall semester to complete a manuscript for publication.

In the School of Dentistry Dr.

Gerald M. Cathey, assistant professor of operative dentistry, has been granted a leave of absence from Aug. 31, 1964 to July 1, 1966, to pursue graduate work at the University of Washington.

Promotions noted . . .

Fourteen faculty members of the Division of Academic Affairs have been promoted professors effective July 1;

Twelve faculty members have been promoted to the rank of associate professor and 10 to assistant professor, all effective July 1.

Those receiving the promotions from associate professor to professor are: John B. Adams, School of Journalism; Ernest M. Allen, Dept. of Physical Education; R.

Darrell Bock, Dept. of Psychology; E. P. Douglass, Dept. of History; James R. Gaskin, Dept. of English; John Gulick, Dept. of Sociology-Anthropology; William E. Jenner, Dept. of Mathematics; Peter G. Phialas, Dept. of English; J. Dickson Phillips, School of Law; Isaac Newton Reynolds, School of Business Administration; Robert A. Rupen, Dept. of Political Science; John W. Scott, School of Law; George B. Tindall, Dept. of History; Robert Brown Voitle, Dept. of English.

Promoted from assistant professor to associate professor are: David G. Brown, School of Business Administration; James D. Buckholtz, Dept. of Mathematics;

See UNC, Page 10

FRIGIDAIRE WEEK SPECIAL!

This is our "Best Buy" for National Frigidaire Week. Hurry!

Model D-12-64
11.00 cu. ft., 4 colors or white

Space-saver FRIGIDAIRE Refrigerator!

- 63-lb. freezer chest.
- Sliding chill drawer for fresh meats.
- Giant vegetable Hydrator.

$188 With Operating Trade

Bennett & Blocksidge

105 E. Franklin

Tel. 942-5141

SPECIAL OFFER!

NEW 'PACER' PICNIC JUG!

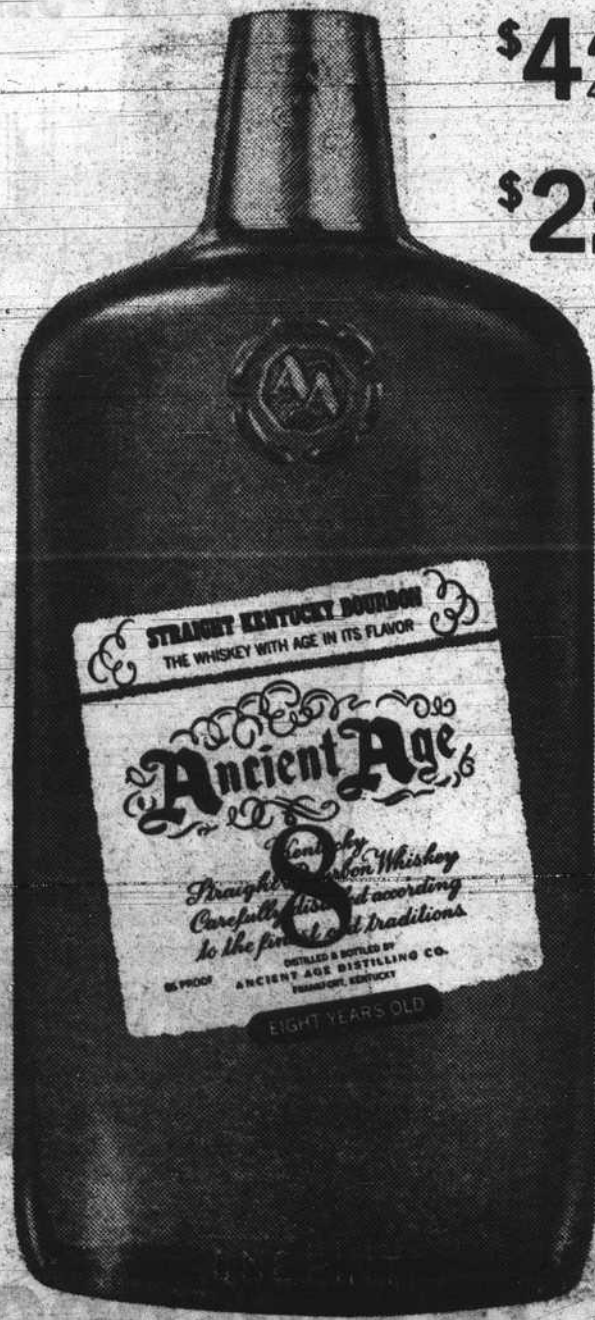

- Insulated—keeps soups, drinks hot or cold for hours!
- Only 9 1/2" high yet holds full 1/2 gallon!
- Sturdy, lightweight—choice of two-tone colors.

7 DAYS ONLY!

only 99c

Ancient Age STRAIGHT KENTUCKY BOURBON

$4.45
4/5 QT.

$2.80
PINT