Orange Grove--finest place to live!..

EIGHT HILLSBOROUGH JAYCEES are tickled-pink drivers of brand new 1965 Fords this week as result of the current Ford Motor Company promotion, in cooperation with local dealer Calvin Ray. The cars were awarded by J. D. Flowers, Ford Division executive, Tuesday following his address to the Jaycees, reported elsewhere in this edition, Page 10, Sect. II. Acting for all the world as boys with new toys as they claimed their prizes in front of the Inn at the conclusion of the meeting were: Bob Strayhorn, Allen Walker Jr., Henry Ashley, Jim Ray, Jack Miller, Burch Compton, Bob Jernigan and Russ Conner.

WITH THE APPROACH OF the holiday season, a number of rural residents have asked the News to write something about the thoughtless city dwellers who annually raid the nearby farms for holly, cedar and pine, without bothering to ask the property owners for permission to cut them. Often, they say, the owners might permit such cutting if approached. More often they have plans themselves for the nearby bounty, but would be glad to suggest certain trees for cutting. In any event, it's only right to ask for permission before cutting others' property and such vandalism is highly resented.

THE CHAPEL HILL MAYOR reported yesterday that he had talked to various people recently about the possibility of their serving on the local Housing Authority. He said he was yet optimistic on filling the vacancies created on the five-member body by the resignations last summer of Bill Cherry and Bill Hobbs.

CHAPEL HILL OFFICIALS had no immediate success last Thursday in their plea before the State Library Commission to appropriate federal aid funds for the local public library. They were encouraged to talk to re-
