Let the diseased but give them a fair trial, and they will not regret it.

CHRISTIAN REGISTER & ALMANAC FOR 1852.

THIS work being now published and for sale, we would again call the attention of our friends to the plan we previously proposed for giving it an extended circulation, viz: that the minister—some active member, or some of the larger scholars of the Sabbath School should call upon every member of the church and congregation and solicit them to subscribe and advance the 6-14 cents for a copy of the Register. When you have received the name and money of one, pass on to the next, and so on through the whole congregation. Then these little items (6-14 cents each) are all collected together they have changed into a note or notes which School should call upon every member of the church and congregation and solicit them to subscribe and advance the 6-14 cents for a copy of the Register.
