Gen. Price, the hero of the late battle of Lexington, Mo., enjoys a large share of changes the following interesting particuars of his victory :

General Price is by birth a Virginian -a native of Prince Edward county-and by occupation a tobacco planter, in Charlton county, Mo. He is about fifty years age, over six feet in height, of large ild, strikingly temperate, and exemplary in all the relations of li'e. His most distinguishing characteristics are sound. contious judgment, and energy in action. Though neither a trimmer nor an intriguer. he has never been a candidate for political station without obtaining it. In Mexico. as more recently in Missouri, be never sommanded a battle that he did not wip.

In 1846 Sterling Price resigned his sent as a representative from Missouri in the United States Congress to take command of a regiment of volunteers from that State in the Mexican war. He greatly distingaished himself in the battle in New Mexico and Chibanhua. When, in 1857, Congress determined to increase the regular army, with two new Brigsdier-Gencrais, one of those appointments was offered to Jefferson Davis, and on his declension, as tendered to and accepted by Col Price, who served during the remainder o the war as General of the regular army,-Had he retained the position he would now be senior in rauk to all the officers on the Retifing to private life at the close of the Mexican war, he took no prominent part in politics until 1852. In that year the Binton and anti-Benton wings of the Missouri Democracy united on him as their candidate for Governor, and he was elected by a triumphapt majority. In his four years gubernatorial t rm he distin-gui-bed himself for his administrative ability, obtaining, by almost universal consent, the reputation of having been the best exeoutive Missoufi has ever had. At the close of his gubernatorial term, in 1856 he was a favour to of a large portion of the Democracy for a place in the United States Senate, but to prevent dissension in his party, he magnanimously yielded his claims in f vor of James S. Green, who was. consequently, elected.

At the election prematurely ordered by the M ssouri Logislature for a State Couvention in February last, and held under the almost annihilating influence of the Virginia and Teone-see elections which had preceded it, Governor Price was chosen, without opposition, to represent hes district in that body, and, by like unanimity, was selected to preside over it His position, as shown by the votes in the Convention in March last, was that a bouorable, peac ful efforts shou'd be used to bring the Gulf States that into the late Union, but, that on the falure of these efforts, the interests, sympathies, and chould join her Southern sisters. ed that the

THE MAN FOR THE TIMES.

General Price's report gives the particulars of his great achievement, and shows what brave and determined men can acpublic attention. We gather from our ez- complish. He did not square his actions by mathematics, and, considering the nature of his troops, he acted wisely in so do-ing. In fact, he looks like "the coming man." He is the only one of our Generals who appears to have fully appreciated the character of our volunteer force, and to have given to that file room for the dis play of is dash and daring. The world has never seen such materials as enter into the composition of our southern armies. Almost without an exception, the mon are good horsemen and skilled in the use of arms. These essencial qualities for good soldiers they acquired in boyhood. They have to be acquired by Yankees and regu lars after they enlist, and they are always of difficult acpuisition by men than by boys. The courage of cur volunteers will conpare favorably with that of any people They have rushed to arms to vindicate their rights and to maintain the great cause of freedow. Their highest ambition yet, we belive, more barm will be done to is to meet the enemy. Action-action -action is that for which they pant-and is that alone which can satisfy the oravings of their impetuous hearts. The sluggishtheir health. They droop and pine under its baneful influence. All the accounts from all our upon the simple command of a Judge. camps tell the same tale of the depression and despondency which inaction has engendered among the unlunteers, If that inaction has proceeded from an idea that Southern men have to undergo the same udimentary process to which old Scott had to subjugate his vulgar Yankees -learn them to load a gun and ride a porse-it was holy unnecessary. If it were dictated by considerations of strategy and en idea that our cause was best subserved by a defensive policy, we confess our inability to appreciate it. It has long counterfeit notes on the back of Camden, been our conviction that in aggres in was our only safety, With the enemy matters at sea, we cannot possibly obtain an honorable and lasting peace, without dictaung it in Philadelphia or New York. If this be beyond our power, we must resign ourselves to the gloomy alternitive of an en 'less and inglorious war. General Price by a just appreciation of our volunteers, and by showing them the game, has prov ed what they can do, and has set an exam

.... A SIGNIFICANT ADMISSION.

The Herald makes the following irre pressible admission in regard to the poverty of the recruiting business, but lays the account at the door of the Abolitionista .-It savs :

It is painful to perceive to what extent in the villages and interior towns in New York, New England, and the West, the recruiting offices of the Federal army have become forsak in, in consequence of the inpathisers and Aboli ion malcontents. In larger cities like his metropolis, Boston and Philadelphia their off orts are noutralized ; but, in portions of the North, where

THE STAY LAW.

We learn from the Greensborough Patrit, that at the session of the Superior Court for Davidson county, Judge Bailey. presiding, the Judge on Tuesday morning appounced that he should take up the civil docket as usual, without any regard to the stay law, and that unless defendants had some good cause of continuance, they would be required to try their cases, the stay law notwithstanding. Defendants on this circuit will therefore do well to take notice of this, and be ready for trial.

We learn that Judge Howard also holds the same views in regard to the Stay Law, and perhaps Judge Oshorne. Judge Saunders, and other of the Judges, in deference to the stay law have not taken up the civil docket.

The question as to the constitutionality of the law will, of course, come up at the first term of the Supreme Court; but we doubt very much the propriety of Judges taking the liberty of setting aside any ave of a lawful Logislative body. THE FARMEL FATORITE BORUM & MICLEANS CORN THE PROCESS OF PLANTING CORT

THE PROCESS OF PLANTING CORT with this s scanne, is very simple and effective as well as certain. The corr passes from the hopper to the ground through the time or boos, and is drop ped through an opening behind, about one fuce from the bottom of the time. By this improvement the time cannot be choked with dirt, or anything also, a free passing from the hopper to the bottom of the furrow being always outsimed. It can be regulate to plant any depth from one to five inches, by raisin or lowering the front wheel. The hind wheel close the furrow, and covers the earn by compressing th earth upon it, and it is thought by many that t crop thus planted is not subjected to depted ation b -the crows-which is a great sunnoyance to cop growers generally.

-the crows-which is a great sinnoyance to cop growers generally. The universal commendation bestowed upon this Mach ne by Loose who have used it, warrants us in saying that it is the best one for the purpose ex-unt. It is made very strong and substantial, and can be used among roots and stomps; the time is also unick and heavy, and not sailly broken. It is of very fight drait-the front and hind wheels roll upon the ground, and no resistance is offlared, save the dragging of the narrow line in the ground, which occurs therew.

the State authorities of Missouri and the Lincolni'es. Governor Price immediately repaired to the Capital of the State, and on the 12th accepted from Governor Jackson the command-in-chief of the Mi-souri forces. The organization of the Missour militia not having provided for any rank higher than that of Brigadier, the L g slature passed an act creating one office of Major-General to command the whole militia in time of war, and is was at once conferred upon Governor Price With his military cureer since that period the public is familiar.

SOMETHING IS WRONG.

Last wesk a party of some sixty persons were arrested in the lower part of this and Beanfort counties, charged with treasonable acts, or language derogatory to the public weal and brought to Col. Singelta. ry's head quarters, whereupon he instituted an examination resulting in the confinement of eight for a future hearing Afteen or twenty were compromised with by collisting and entering the service and the balance were released. Where the eight are we have not been informed, but hope the Col. took precaution to put them to work on fortifications or some other publie work.

Yesterday morning, news reached here by the train from Beaufort that a party of fifteen fishermen had been arrested on the Banks near Bogue Sound by Col. McLean and others of Swansboro under very suspicions circumstances. It seems that the Lincoln blockaders, about fifty in number landed on Sunday last at Bogue Inlat and had an interview with the fishermen on the banks. This fact coming to the knowledge of Col. McLean and others they went over to look into the matter, when they found the fishermen armed with dangerous weapons and having in their possession some ten or a dozen handcuffs, whereupon they immediately put them under acrest and carried them to Fort Macon to have an investigation. The fishermen, of course, pleaded not guilty, alleging that they were isited by the Yankees without solicitation on their part, and that when the Yankee boat was near the shore it capsized and these weapons and hand cuffs were lost overboard, also that three or four of the crew were drowned, and that after they where gone they fished the implements out of the water - Newbern Progress.

the poison can be sown with less observatica an incalculable amount of barm is b ing done to which it beh oves the Goyernment to pay immediate att n ion. The leaders of the political in r gue, carried on in the name of the old Democratic party, do not besitate to avow their intention of so coting, that they may be able to lay claim to Southern gratitude whenever the war is ended. The news).per associate of the Tribune, on the contrary, hope to turn the nostil ties that have commenced into a war for n gro emancipation, and, on the broad ground of nigger-worshipping sholition, to overthrow and supplant Mr. Lincoln and his Auministration. Meanwhile, they strive to render him obnoxious, and to frustrate the completion of his well-laid, patriotic schames republic.

"ON TO RICHMOND.

The Richmond correspondent of the Charleston Courier in his letter of the 3rd, gives us the following as the probably plan of the Federalists to reach Richmond: It is the opinion among some of the officers belonging to Wise's suite, that the enemy design a grand demonstration against Richmond by the way of North Carolina. McClellan is busily engaged in fortifying Washington for the winter, and does not propose to co ne out of his entrenchments at present. In the meantime, Soott, or some other experienced General is to land on the coast of North Caro ina with 100,000 men, and march on Petersburg This will force Johnson, Smith and Beauregard to adandon the Potomac for the defence of Richmond, and thus Washington will be relieved. If McClellan is disposed he can then march out and attack Richmond on the North, and also occupy the valley of the Shenandoah. If Rosencrantz succeeds in de'eating Lee and occupying the Virginia and Tennessee Rail Road. Richmond and our srmies being cut off from the rest of the South on all sides, of course they must fall into the hands of the Linconites. This-argue the officers in question-is evidently the plan of the Fedral Generals, and it explains what the Northern papers mean when they say Richmoud s to be reached by another route. It explains the scoret preparations going on at the North since the battle of Manassas, and it explains the apparent unwillingness of McClel'an to risk another engagement just now on the banks of the Potomac .-

There may possibly be some value in thesa conjectures. I give them to you for what they are worth.

ERN SHORE.

We harn that an unsuccessful attempt was made last Friday w ek, by a party of Federals to land a force at Chingoteague. on the Eastern Shore, for the purpose of destroyin_ a vessel on stocks that was nearly completed. They came u in a steamboat, and a postion, of them effected a lauding, but they found to their cost that a force had gathered there to give them a welcome. Capt. Fletcher, a militia offi er in that vicinity, had gathered some of his boys with their duck guns and fowling pieces, and with these means they attacked the wandals, who sought shelter in the ship yard behind the frame of the vessel. Not rich tanding, they were FO for the restoration of the integrity of the roughly handled by the Eastern Shoremen that fifteen of them came in for their allotment of land in Virginia, besides a c neil-erable number carried off from the se ne of setion wo ni d. Only one of our men slightly wonided. They were finally driven off and effected their escape to the scamer amidst a shower from Cant. FI-tcher's men who then determined to burn the vessel themselves and dillso acco dingly.
