

Devoted to the interests of religion and morality, general and local news, and to the advocacy of the principles of the Christian Church. PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY.

REV. W. B. WELLS, Editor and Proprietor. OFFICE ON KILBY STREET.

Money sent in unregistered letters, must be at risk of the sender. The safest way to send money is by a Post Office money order; a registered letter, or a draft on some Bank, business house in Norfolk or Norfolk.

RELIGION WITHOUT BICOTRY. THE CHRISTIAN SUN. LIBERTY WITHOUT LICENTIOUSNESS. VOL. XXVI. SUFFOLK, VA., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1873. No. 48.

ADVERTISEMENTS. A DVERTISEMENTS not inconsistent with the character of the paper, will be inserted at the following rates: One square of ten lines first insertion, $1.00. For each subsequent insertion, .75. One square six months, $4.50. One square twelve months, $8.00. Advertisers changing weekly must make a special agreement. Yearly advertisements will be paid for in advance. Transient advertisements to be paid for on insertion.

JOB WORK. Book and Job Printing of every kind done at our Job Office in the best style and on moderate terms.

TRAINING HORSES TO BE SAFE. It is easy to train a horse not to be dangerous. It is easy, but it requires patience and good sense in the training, and good sense in the colt, too.

POETRY. WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO?

What are you going to do, brother? Say, what are you going to do? You have thought of some useful labor, But what is the end in view?

SELECTIONS. ORGANIC UNITY.

"We feel the importance of unity. We do not see how this is to be affected without some approach to organic union. But whether one can see how or not, the union will one day take place."

The Church organisms of the world under some central executive or legislative power? Some such idea seems to be floating before the minds of certain Christian writers and workers of the present time. To their minds a General Council would be the panacea, the cure all of the difficulties and diversities of Christendom.

others. "Do you think," was the inquiry of a Lutheran Clergyman, to an Episcopalian, "do you think they will all be Episcopalians in the Millennium?" "I have hardly settled that point to my complete satisfaction," was the reply.

evening he returned from the weekly prayer-meeting more than usually depressed. He had met there the faithful few whom he was always sure to see: the white-haired deacons, some of the wives and mothers, and two or three young persons.

JUVENILE. BE THANKFUL. "I don't want any supper," said Kate. "Nothing but bread and milk, cake and berries. Just the same every night."

FARM AND GARDEN. FATTENING HOGS. This is a work, we presume, engaging the attention of all farmers at the present time, and to make the largest yield of pork and manure from pens with the least expenditure of food and labor in attention to feeding and supplying the hogs with material for manure, is the question.

ASHES.—All farmers who have their interest to have the corn, rye, and gum, that is down and turned into ashes. This season of the year to burn wood, especially where the fire has been out down. You can do more and at the same time save ashes than in the winter.