

The Business Guide.

ISSUED WEEKLY BY STEWART BROTHERS, 111 WEST 4TH STREET, WINSTON.

The Industrial Interests of our People are Paramount to Every Other Consideration.

It is earnestly hoped that all readers of this Paper will yield gently to its doctrines and aid in its circulation.

If you have any grievances consult a physician. If you have no business of your own, get married or go to work.

If you are pleased with the Paper, aid it; if you do not like it, hand it to a sensible neighbor.

Be serious, and help in advancing the interests of your community.

Vol. 26.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., FRIDAY, MARCH 30, 1906

No. 12

Gilbert Newton Stewart Dead.

On last Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock death came and bore away to that upper and better realm the spirit of little Gilbert Newton, aged 3 years, 4 months and 27 days, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Stewart. The little fellow died of pneumonia which followed measles, and the remains were laid to rest on the family plot in the Cemetery, Wednesday afternoon, after a short, but unusually nice service conducted by Pastor H. A. Brown, which was attended by a large gathering of sympathizing friends and relatives. "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord."

Two brothers, sons of Mr. S. F. Doub, were cutting wood Monday near their home, two miles west of Bethania, when the axe in the hands of the older son, whose age is seventeen years, flew off the handle, striking the younger son, 10 years old, in the neck, completely severing one of the jugular veins. Dr. Strickland was summoned and connected the vein. He thinks the young man will recover.

Col. Jeems Wiley was married to Miss Ella McMurray, at Clinton, S. C., recently, says an exchange.

Cousin Howard Pegram Dead.

In this city on March 24th, about six in the morning, Rev. T. H. Pegram passed into his eternal rest, at the age of 81 years. He had been in the ministry more than fifty years, during which time he had built 37 church houses. He always held services on the day and at the time appointed, rain or shine. His native intellect and intellectual qualities were far above the average. He leaves two sons and a wife, besides an unusual number of relatives.

Mrs. D. M. Sapp, mother of Dr. C. C. Sapp of this City, died in Kernersville on the 23d, aged about 75.

On the 20th Leaksville, N. C., had $3,000 blaze, and on Sunday morning Rural Hall, N. C., was burned to the amount of $12,000.

Col. Oliver H. Dockery, a former Congressman, and a Consul-General to Rio, died under an operation in a Baltimore Hospital on the 27th, aged 78.

While skating Monday night on roller skates Mrs. C. C. Walton of Cleburne, fell and fractured one of the bones of her arm at the wrist.—Texas paper.

Burned to Death.

Hattie, the 10-year-old daughter of Monroe Harrell, who lives about two miles south of White Plains, was burned to death yesterday afternoon. The child was playing too near the fire and her clothing ignited, and as no one else was at home at the time except some smaller children she was fatally burned. When neighbors came to the house, it was too late, for her body was burned to a crisp. She only lived one hour after the accident.—Mt. Airy Leader.

Following is a sample of many letters which reach our office: "I have seen the Business Guide which you all print, I think it is a fine little paper. Will you please send me the paper 12 months."

On last Saturday the heaviest sleet of the season visited this section. It seems that Winter is "lingering in the lap of Spring."

Lockjaw has claimed its third victim in Fort Worth in the death of little Lee Ratliffe, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Ratliffe Monday. The little fellow was shot in the hand about a week before with a blank cartridge pistol.—Denton Texas Monitor.