CONCORD, N. C. August 12 1904

NO SECOND TERM FOR PARKER

In his speech of acceptance Judge Parker said:

"I accept, gentlemen of the committee, the nomination, and if the action of the convention shall be indorsed by an election by the people, I will, God helping me, give to the discharge of the duties of that exalted office the best service of which I am capable, and at the end of the term retire to private life. I shall not be a candidate for, nor shall I accept a renomination. Several reasons might be advanced for this position, but the controlling one with me is that I am fully persuaded that no incumbent of that office should ever be placed in a situation of possible temptation to consider what the effect of action taken by him in an administrative matter of great importance might have upon his political fortunes. Questions of momentous consequence to all of the people have been in the past and will be in the future presented to the President for determination, and in approaching their consideration, as well as in weighing the facts and the arguments bearing upon them, he should be unembarrassed by any possible thought of the influence his decision may have upon anything whatever that may affect him personally. I make this statement, not in criticism of any of our presidents from Washington down, who have either held the office for two terms or sought to succeed themselves; for strong arguments can be advanced in support of the re-election of a President. It is simply my judgment that the interests of this country are now so vast and the questions presented are frequently of such overpowering magnitude to the people that it is indispensable to the maintenance of a befitting attitude before the people, not only that the Chief Magistrate should be independent, but that that independence should be known of all men."

No one will doubt the intense earnestness of that bold declaration, whether they agree with the Democratic candidate or not. Nor can we doubt the position being a strong one. We have a pretty good object lesson before us right now in the case of Mr. Roosevelt. The President is considered a pretty bold man, both strenuous and fearless, but he has done many things of late that to every right thinking man must appear as coming from a candidate and not from a true statesman. His "rush order" in the pension department alone is enough to damn him if we were to hold him to strict account in the light of Judge Parker's position. It does not seem to be possible that there should be serious objection to a second term, but Mr. Roosevelt has certainly used his position to entrench himself and to dictate to his party. But having never been elected and as a matter of right, wanting an endorsement of his service as President we may make a slight allowance for the President, especially in the light of his great strenuousness.

Here's hoping that Mrs. Maybrick will soon settle down and give the country an opportunity to forget her for a spell.

CONCERNING THE WATTS LAW.

One paragraph in the Greensboro platform adopted by the state Democracy reads as follows:

"We approve the general principles of the Watts law regulating the sale of liquors and limiting the same to localities in which there may be adequate police protection. The principle that no saloon or still operate except under police protection is as sound as the principle that whiskey shall not be sold to minors, to drunkards, or on Sundays or near schools and churches. The General Assembly has the power and when controlled by the Democratic party can be trusted to make all amendments that experience and conditions may demonstrate to be wise and proper."

No need to apologize for that, or for the law. The thing is sound in principle and will stand if made an issue. The Watts law may not be perfect but it hits in the right direction and is endorsed by the people of the state at every opportunity. The party endorses "the general principles" of the law after it has been in operation and stands pledged to uphold it, and should it appear that it needs amendment, then the Democratic party says that it will do the proper revising. There is heard rumors of opposition to the law, but it is hard to find open opposition and the desire to make it an issue. If it is wrong and anyone desires to make a fight on the law it should be made an open issue and the fight made on the law without apology or beating around the bush. Aside from any politics THE TRIBUNE goes on record as being in favor of the Watts law and is willing to defend it. It is not likely that Democrats can be found who will dodge here, the party does not, and there are thousand of voters who will not accept any half hearted sympathy with the measure. The Watts law stands for itself; the above paragraph explains clearly where the Democratic party stands.

Says the Charlotte Chronicle:

Dr. B. F. Dixon, the urbane and universally popular State Treasurer, was a visitor in Charlotte today, arriving this morning from a visit to the coast. Dr. Dixon was on his way to Bessemer City, where he goes to meet Mrs. Dixon, from whom he has been absent since June.

State Treasurer Dixon! Who would have thought it! If some Chicago paper had referred to Charlotte as a city of South Carolina, the Chronicle would have called the mistake double quick and commented accordingly. Now, there is no excuse whatever for the Chronicle referring to the Auditor as the Treasurer. It wasn't a typographical error, for every typo in the Chronicle office knows better.

Murder at Wedding Feast.

Tarboro, N. C. Aug. 11.—While engaged in a dispute at a marriage feast and ball in the vicinity of Old Sparta last night, Eugen Wilson shot and instantly killed Joe Edwards both colored. A negro boy out doors had an epileptic fit. Edwards went into the house for a lamp. Wilson objected to it being removed. A quarrel ensued with the above result. Wilson was apprehended and lodged in jail to await trial.

Gasoline on Ground Blew Up.

Conshohocken, Pa., Aug. 10.—The victim of a peculiar and distressing mishap, Mrs. George Staley, of this place, may die of terrible burns. She dropped a bottle of gasoline in the street last evening, and as she stooped to pick up the pieces, it is said Charles Bram, a neighbor, struck a match to see if the fluid was really explosive. It was, and he and she were terrible burned.

The Death Penalty

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. It's the best Salve on earth and will prevent fatality, whop burns, sores, ulcers and piles threaten. Only 35c at Fetzer's Drug Store.

High Point Factory Burned.

High Point, Aug. 11.—Fire tonight destroyed the finishing department of the Southern Chair Company, one of High Point's largest and most substantial manufacturing plants. At 8 o'clock an alarm of fire was given by the factory whistles but as the noise soon subsided the report was given by the uptown people that the fire was out, but not so, for one-half hour later a second alarm was given and the people soon saw by the reflection in the heavens that a big fire was in progress. At this time, however, the southside fire department, aided by fire apparatus, were fighting manfully against the flames, but when it looked as if the fire would be subdued barrels of benzine became ignited and the flames then shot heavenwards in defiance of water and everything else. The fire was started by a lighted lantern in the hands of a night watchman exploding near benzine tank.

End of a Bitter Fight
"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung," writes J. F. Hughes, of Du Pont, Ga., "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It conquers all coughs, colds and throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed by Fetzer's Drug Store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

The pure, unadulterated Witch Hazel is used in making Witch Hazel Salve, which the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, boils, eczema and piles. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Chiek, of White Plains, Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years; tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like."
