SATURDAY'S BIG RALLY.

DEMOCRATIC GATHERING THE LARGEST OF YEARS AND FULL OF ENTHUSIASM.

Senator Overman Makes a Strong Speech on Issues to a Great Crowd of Cabarrus Citizens.

The day opened fair. The clouds that had hung heavily for several days shifted and disappeared through the night and the early morning sun came out as though to smile favors and lend encouragement to the spirit of the day. All day Friday the Democracy which had laid by much for this day wore a look of disappointment, though the brightest saw hope for a clear day for the rally. Busy, busy, busy were those working out the success of the day and hope raged regardless of the weather and the early day forecast. Democracy has been getting ready all the week to assert itself on Saturday and there was genuine happiness on the face of all when the first peep out the morning revealed a clear sky and a warm sun. Flags were thrown to the breeze. Banners were unfurled and colors displayed all about the town. Men were busy every where and children were besides themselves with happiness. Final arrangements were completed with dispatch and the dinner was begun to make ready. Democracy was pleased and despite the mud under foot there was satisfaction all about.

Hon. L. C. Caldwell, who spent Friday in the city expecting to stay over for the day, was called home that night by a telegram. Mr. Overman arrived in the morning from his home in Salisbury. Judge W. R. Winston, of Durham, who who was to be present and speak, was kept at home on account of the serious illness of his wife.

The parade was one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in Concord. No. 2 township had the largest number following her banner and was given the prize. This was a necktie to each one in the march.

In the parade were many pretty floats and many gaily decorated vehicles. It would be an interesting item having nothing but the description of these for its inspiration. There were some of the most unique and artistic floats ever seen here in Saturday's parade. There was one from the Gibson mill, one from Cannonville, one from Odell's and one from Mt. Pleasant. These were all full of young ladies in white and a grand sight it was to watch.

The parade was headed by the Forest Hill band and was a mile long, ending at the court house where the speaking took place. Mr. Overman was the only speaker but he answered all purposes and made a most magnificent address, discussing National issues in a masterly manner. As he stood on the porch at the court house he faced one of the largest and most energetic crowds of Cabarrus voters ever assembled in the county. He spoke for an hour and a half and in that time he crowded in many fine arguments why Democracy is at this time needed to steer us away from the paths of the present spirit of affairs and back into the paths of the Constitution and our fathers. He discussed the issues as coming up for solution on tomorrow and pictured our strenuous President in his true light. He discussed Imperialism and the Canal which has to its credit the suspension of the Constitution by the President. The speech was largely on National issues though he spoke of some of our local affairs.

Mr. Blackburn was touched up a little and Mr. Overman strongly endorsed Newland and urged all to work for his election. It was a strong argument and was received with enthusiasm. After the speaking dinner was served and there was a splendid layout with plenty for all.

Saturday was a record breaker and every Democrat should carry that spirit to the polls tomorrow.

No. 4 township got second prize, with 84 men in line. The prize was cigars.

A telegram to THE TRIBUNE on Saturday which was bulletined told of the tactics in the mud and rain.

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY.

MR. HARTSELL SAYS FROM FIVE TO SIX HUNDRED DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY FOR CABARRUS.

He is Confident of a Splendid Majority for the Ticket.

In an interview with L. T. Hartsell Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, he gave out the following: "After carefully polling every township in the County and Ward in the City I can say that we have a majority of from 500 to 600 for Democracy in Cabarrus. Newland will more than double the majority given Mr. Klutz two years ago. The entire ticket will have the majority above indicated. Democracy is thoroughly alive and working. Never have we been in better condition on the eve of an election. We are confident of such a majority as I have stated; it may be above 600."

CLOSING ON PORT ARTHUR.

REPORTS INDICATE THAT THE JAPANESE ARE GETTING INTO THE CITY AND THE PLACE IS PRACTICALLY IN THEIR HANDS.

Kuropatkin and Oyama Face Each Other on the Shabke Within Close Range.

A telegram of a private nature came over the wires this morning stating that the end of Port Arthur is near at hand, and that the Japanese have succeeded in taking forts necessary to the capturing of the stronghold. This message says that General Stoessel has but a small position at Port Arthur and that the Japanese have placed guns in position to bring the entire fortress to a surrender.

Another Report From Fort Arthur.

ROME NOV. 7th.—The Tokio correspondent of the Giornale di Roma wires that Port Arthur is regarded as taken in the Japanese capital and while the Russians are still holding the forts, the town itself is open to the Japanese on the northeast. Troops of the Mikado are entering the town at fort A which is still under fire from Liao Ji mountain forts. All the besiegers efforts are now turned towards Golden Hill fortress.

Election Weather Forecast.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The following special bulletin regarding the election weather was issued by the weather bureau today: "Fair weather and reasonable temperature indicated for all parts of the United States tomorrow, except some cloudiness and showers or snow flurries in parts of New York, Pennsylvania and the New and the New England states and rain on the extreme north Pacific coast."

Roosevelt to Dunbar.

Dayton, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Paul Lawrence Dunbar, the negro poet, who has been ill for some time, yesterday received from President Roosevelt two volumes of his addresses with accompanying a letter expressing appreciation of a campaign poem which Dunbar wrote and forwarded to the President.

FROM PARTY HEADQUARTERS

Some Claims and Some Indications One Can See at the Last Day of the Contest.

Tomorrow the people will declare for a National leader, members of Congress and in many states for state officials. The campaign is over and the result will be recorded tomorrow. The Democrats claim that Judge Parker will have electoral votes enough to elect him and 31 more, while Mr. Cortelyou claims that Roosevelt will win with a margin of 75. North Carolina will go Democratic and most likely elect ten representatives in Congress. In New York the vote seems to be in doubt as to the National ticket but it seems safe as to the Democratic state ticket, it being pretty well established that Judge Herrick will be elected Governor. Mr. Davis claims that he will carry West Virginia Democratic. The fight in Indiana seems to be close, while the same is true of New Jersey and Connecticut. Democratic leaders are confident of carrying New York and claim enough other votes to elect Judge Parker. There is no reason why every thing should not work out for the election of the entire ticket in Cabarrus. The Democrats have every reason to hope and expect a good majority for the ticket. It looks pretty certain that the state will elect a full representation of Democratic Congressmen. The Republicans are making an effort for Blackburn but present indications are that Newland will beat him by a good majority.

News Items From Glass.

Glass, N. C., Nov. 6.—Mrs. Mary Campbell, of Enochville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. M. Rogers.

Preaching at the school house next Sunday evening at 3 p. m.

Mr. Miller, of Richfield, is night operator here now.

Mr. A. M. Freeze had a party will move to Mooresville soon. Messrs. Walter Rainey and Ralph Holdbrooks will live at the home vacated by Mr. Freeze. We are sorry to see Mr. Freeze leave here.

Rev. A. J. Crane resigned his position as pastor of Bethpage and Gillwood yesterday.

About twenty-three years ago in Caswell county, Va., there lived a family of Routons, two boys and three girls. The old man Routon having left his wife strayed off with another woman. He took his two sons with him. The girls having been left with their mother they walked to Rowan county and made their home about one mile above Enochville where they lived until a few weeks ago, not knowing anything of her people's whereabouts. About four weeks ago her son, Mr. John Routon, of Caswell county, Va., learned of his mother by her applying for a pension as her husband was a soldier in the Federal army. Mr. Routon came to Enochville about four weeks ago and stopped at Mrs. Honbarriers, one of his married sisters and told her he was her brother. She was astonished at such a statement and denied having any brothers living. He then asked if there was an old woman by the name of Ellen Routon living near there, if so, she was his mother and begged her to go with him over to see her. She was, however, a little afraid of him thinking that he was false, but at last agreed and went with him as it was only a little way.

He went in and told the story of these 23 years—it must have been a happy meeting. He left Saturday with his mother and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Petrea another one of his married sisters, (the other sister died several years ago) for Caswell county, Va., where his brother lives. They both have large farms. Mrs. Routon is an old woman now and will live the remainder of her days on the old Virginia farm with her sons.

The campaign in Cabarrus ends to-day.

The Republicans have a party speaking at the court house and the Democrats have a torch-light procession in this city tonight. Speakers will be on hand to address the crowd.

Mr. Pou speaks at a rally today at Albemarle and it is expected that he will come from there to Concord in time to participate in the last rally of the campaign.

Messrs Whitner, Newell and Grier are scheduled to speak at the Republican rally at the court house.

Giving Credit.

On Saturday a Democrat who was feeling good over the nice clear day for the rally said to a Republican that they certainly did feel grateful to Mr. Roosevelt and the Republican party for giving such a beautiful day for a Democratic rally. The Republicans claim credit for every thing that is good and the Concord Democrat was willing to acknowledge the weather conditions of Saturday due to the administration that is responsible for sunshine and seasons. Mr. Roosevelt was very thoughtful and kind to send such a nice day for the Cabarrus rally.

Body of Murdered Girl Found in a Pasture.

Marshall, Mo., Nov. 4.—The dead body of Miss Rosa Butts, aged 23 years, a white servant girl of this city, was found today in the suburbs of South Marshall in a pasture. The girl had evidently been murdered. Her throat had been cut with a sharp stick, a piece of which still remained in the flesh; her left ear had been cut off and there was a bullet hole in her head. There was evidence that the girl had made a struggle for a cigarette near the body, and tracks leading away from the only tangible clues.

"It was almost a miracle. Blood Bitters cured me of a breaking out all over the body very grateful." Miss Julia West Cornwell, Conn. Ad. stores.

Mr. Jay Sims went to Charlotte Sunday where he joins Vogel which he will be with for the
