JAPS TAKE FORTS.

OTHER ATTACKS WERE NOT SO SUCCESSFUL AROUND PORT ARTHUR.

Intense Cold Prevails Along the Shakhke River in Manchuria.

Rome, Nov. 28.—The Giornale di Roma has a dispatch from Tokyo reporting that the general attack on Port Arthur fortifications, which began on the night of November 26th has been practically successful. Forts Ehrlung Shan, Rastorplung and Maikubujama have been destroyed but the Japanese attack on Sungspan and Vilawan were repulsed. The total Japanese losses reported to be near seven thousand and the correspondent adds that it is possible that the attack will not be renewed but that the Japanese will continue to besiege the town until the Russians are forced to capitulate for want of food.

Armies Face Each Other in the Frozen Country.

Rome, Nov. 28.—A message from Tokio says that the weather is bitter cold throughout Manchuria. The cold is especially intense along the Shakhke river where the two armies of Oyama and Kuroki face each other. Five of General Kuroki's sentinels froze to death at their post.

ONE MAN KILLED.

Street Car at St. Louis Overturned and Charles Warren Killed, Others Seriously Injured.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 28.—Charles T. Warner was instantly killed and from twenty to thirty persons seriously injured by the overturning of a crowded trolley car at Fourteenth and Papin streets at 7:30 this morning. The motorman lost control of the car which was on a descending grade. The car crashed into a pile of rails and was thrown to one side. Many of the passengers were women and children on their way down town.

CASE DISCHARGED.

Sickness of One of the Jurors in the Nan Patterson Case Causes an Abrupt End of the Trial.

New York, Nov. 28.—The jury in the case of Nan Patterson, chorus girl, charged with the killing of Caesar Young, was discharged today by Judge Davis on account of the illness of Juror Edward J. Dressler. Physicians examined the sick man this morning and reported that he would be unable to serve through a continuation of the trial. A new panel of 200 men will be examined, beginning in December.

National Bank at Oberlin, Ohio, Closed Doors.

Oberlin, Ohio, Nov. 28.—The Citizens National Bank closed its doors this morning. A notice on the door stated that the bank is in charge of National Bank Examiner Beck, who is the President. The bank was formed in 1858 and is the only National Bank in the city. There is great excitement over the closing.

Cave in of Sewer Causes Death to Workmen.

St. Louis, Nov. 28.—A sewer caved in at Kings Highway and Arsenal street this morning burying a gang of workmen. It is believed that twelve are killed. Two bodies have been taken out by the fireman.

On Thursday night December 1st our people have a great musical treat at the opera house, as the Richardson Orchestra, of twelve pieces, with soloists on clarinet, flute and piano. The music rendered by this orchestra has been highly commended by the Charlotte Observer, so that our people need not hesitate at all to patronize this concert for it will be good beyond question, and all music lovers should avail themselves of this opportunity, we hope the efforts of the opera house management to present a high class musical entertainment will be appreciated by a liberal patronage.

INTERESTING ADDRESSES.

Rev. L. C. Vass, Missionary to the Congo Free States, Makes Interesting Talks at the First Presbyterian Church.

Not every one is greatly interested in Foreign Missions, but whether so or not, the addresses given at the First Presbyterian church yesterday by Rev. L. C. Vass would be of interest to all citizens who admire the true American spirit which leads young men to go into the wilds of Africa and there give their time and talent to the upbuilding of the race of people so far in the rear of latter day civilization. Mr. Vass spoke at the First Presbyterian church morning and evening yesterday, and at both services had a house full to hear what proved to be a most entertaining discussion of affairs in the central portion of Africa, the Congo Free States.

Beginning in the morning he took up the country, the people and the government, together with a portion of the work which the Southern Presbyterian church has been doing along the Congo river and from there into the interior. At the evening service Mr. Vass continued on the work, in the line of education, medical field and mission work of the spreading of the Gospel. Mr. Vass is a very pleasing speaker and he gave briefly much of the work being done in Africa, the result and the causes which aided to a hindering of the work. The speaker was very strong in his denunciation of the form of government controlling the Free States and stated that the missionaries were very much hindered by the manner in which this government deals with mission workers.

In the afternoon Mr. Vass spoke to the Sunday school and this afternoon he met with the Missionary societies of the church, to which meeting the public interested was invited.

Mr. Vass is a North Carolinian, a graduate of Davidson, and has spent five years in Africa. He is a young man of splendid endowments and will no doubt be frequently heard from in the field of work to which he has given his life.

Japanese Diet is Open for Business.

Tokio, Nov. 28.—The Japanese Diet was established today. Committees were appointed followed by an adjournment. Notification was sent to the Cabinet that the House was organized. The session will be formally opened tomorrow by the Mikado who will make a speech from the throne.

Congressional Visitors to North Carolina Waters.

Goldsboro, Nov. 26.—During the coming week the most influential member of the House in river and harbor legislation will probably make a visit to Beaufort. Mr. Fred L. Merritt, of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, today received a letter from Congressman John H. Small, of the First North Carolina district, in which he says:

"I have a telegram from Hon. T. E. Burton, chairman of the committee on rivers and harbors, stating that he hopes to visit North Carolina the last three days in next week. I have as yet no letter from him giving further particulars. I assume that his itinerary will be about as follows: Take steamer at Elizabeth City; go by water to New Bern; thence by rail to Morehead City; from Morehead City by rail to Wilmington. A stay at Wilmington would be made long enough to inspect the harbor and Cape Fear river. From there the party will probably go to Fayetteville. There will be three or four members of the committee besides Mr. Burton."

Mr. Small has been notified that the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad will put a train at the disposal of himself and Chairman Burton, and every facility will be given them to inspect the harbor at Beaufort and to ascertain its needs and its possibilities as a shipping point.

EVENTS AT MT. PLEASANT.

Masonic Lodge Entertains—Literary Society at the Seminary Gives a Reception—Death of a Child.

Correspondent of The Tribune. Mt. Pleasant, Nov. 28.—The supper and reception given by the Masonic lodge to a number of their friends Thursday evening has been pronounced one of the most successful and elaborate functions yet given in this place. The guests were received in the lodge room and after a pleasant social hour they repaired to the Seminary dining hall, under the directions of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Barnhardt, where a sumptuous feast awaited them.

Prof. J. H. Keller, master of ceremonies, made a superb address by way of introducing the several speakers for the occasion. Sparkling impromptu responses, each a gem within itself, were made by the following gentlemen to various toasts: Revs. T. E. Wagg, H. A. McCullough, C. P. Fisher and J. H. C. Fisher and Prof. G. F. McAllister. These having been concluded, Prof. Fisher then opened the doors of the Seminary parlors to the Masons and their guests, and when the wee small hours were coming on they sought "refreshment and sleep," having had a royal, good time.

Long years ago Mont Amoena won a reputation for the excellence of the receptions they give, but that given by the Bernheim Literary Society last Wednesday evening has the honor of having eclipsed all former ones. These occasions easily stand out as the events in lives of many students, as well as others, and when, at this time, the Seminary became thronged with hundreds of girls, it meant an hour of enjoyment not soon to be erased from memory's tablet. The "Curfew" did not ring that night and not until morning did they go home.

The social realm was full to overflowing during Thanksgiving and now some are returning thanks that they have survived. Among the events of a more private nature was the supper by Mrs. D. D. Barrier Wednesday evening and that given by the young men complimentary to their lady friends Friday evening at the Lentz Hotel. Each of these was a feature within itself.

Among the pleasant visitors at the Collegiate Institute last week was Rev. J. Homer Barnhardt, of Winston. Rev. Barnhardt very kindly accepted an invitation to address the young men and in doing so emphasized the importance of a thorough training for life's work. His remarks were well received and highly appreciated by the entire student body.

Rev. T. E. Wagg, the new pastor for this circuit, has arrived and has been looking over his work. He has expressed himself as being highly pleased with his new field of labor. Our people extend to Mr. Wagg and family an open-door welcome and wish them a pleasant sojourn among us.

It is with pleasure that we announce the appointment of Dr. T. F. Harrison, of Davidson College, to address the students of the Collegiate Institute and their friends, in the Gerhardt Literary Society Hall on next Wednesday evening. The subject of the lecture will be "Hamlet." Dr. Harrison's reputation as a speaker and a critical student of literature guarantee an address of more than usual interest.

Thanksgiving services at the Reformed church were attended by a large congregation. Rev. H. A. McCullough preached an excellent sermon, basing his remarks upon the 139th Psalm, 17th and 18th verses.

Lucile, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hartsell, died Friday night after a week's serious illness. She came with her mother from Salisbury about two weeks ago to visit her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hartsell, but contracted pneumonia which resulted in death. The remains were interred in the Methodist cemetery Saturday afternoon. The family has the deepest sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

Mrs. M. M. Litaker's many friends will be glad to know she has recovered from a protracted illness which has continued through the greater part of the summer.

Miss Minnie Maxwell, of Fort Mill, S. C., spent Thanksgiving with the Misses Harvel.

Miss Margaret McEachern, of Concord, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foil spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Sifford, of Manning, Rowan county, are visiting their son, Mr. S. T. Sifford.

Miss Elma Welsh, who is engaged in teaching at Gold Hill, spent several days at her home last week.

Messrs. S. Hoyle and Murry C. Long, of Charlotte, spent Thanksgiving with their parents.
