RECEIVER APPOINTED.

Comptroller of the Currency Names a Receiver for the Oberlin National Bank.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The Comptroller of the Currency this morning gave out the following statement regarding the failure of the National Bank at Oberlin, Ohio: "The Comptroller of the Currency yesterday appointed Bank Examiner Miller receiver of the Citizens National Bank of Oberlin, Ohio, which closed its doors yesterday morning in consequence of a run on the bank last Saturday. The run was caused by a suit against Mrs. Chadwick, of Cleveland, who was a heavy borrower from the bank.

The resources and liabilities as shown by the last report to the Comptroller on November 18th was $583,334.18 each.

MR. LINNEY HERE.

Prominent Citizen of Alexander County a Guest of the City Today.

Hon. R. Z. Linney, of Taylorsville, one of the most prominent citizens of this section, former member of Congress and known throughout the State as the "Bull of the Brushies," spent the day at the St. Cloud.

Mr. Linney is interested in the present session of Rowan county court and came to Concord to spend the day. While here he was seen by several prominent Republican politicians, and to the outsider it seemed as though there might be something of a political nature behind the visit, more especially since the train from the South was reported to bring another by appointment here to meet Mr. Linney. It has been reported for some time that some of the local Republicans had a card up their sleeve which at the proper time would be forthcoming as an interesting item of political news.

Another prominent visitor, whose presence gave increased interest to the visit of Mr. Linney was Hon. J. F. Newell, who came from Charlotte this morning, registered at the St. Cloud and soon found his way to the room occupied by Mr. Linney. Many local Republicans have found their way to this same room and came out as mum as an oyster. Not a word was spoken to give the slightest clue to what was going on.

A Charlotte Man Attempts to Take His Life.

Says the Chronicle of the 28th: Mr. Harry G. Carver, aged 39 years an employee in the grocery store of Mr. W. P. Knox at the corner of Ninth and Caldwell streets, attempted to commit suicide shortly before 4 o'clock this morning in his room, at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Ida G. Garrant, at No. 409 East Avenue. The attempt is attributable to melancholia, from which the young man had been a sufferer for several days.

Some of the inmates of the house heard unusual sounds in the room occupied by Mr. Carver, and on hastening there, found him lying in his own blood, as it flowed from gashes about his throat. A razor was employed and it was evident that the man's life was almost extinct. A messenger was sent for a physician, and Doctor W. Hosea Moss quickly responded to the call. Dr. Moss found the man bleeding profusely.

The external jugular vein was severed, and the external carotid artery was also severed except the internal coat, which had ballooned and which ruptured after operation began. This was ligated and a normal salt solution was injected. The larynx was cut in two, and the injury to the vocal chord was such as to render speech scarcely intelligible.

Miss Mary Ramseur, who has been in Charlotte at the hospital, returned to Concord last night.

Mr. George Barnhardt, of route 5, is in Charlotte where he is serving as a juror in the Federal court.

ALONG THE SHAKKE RIVER.

Clashes Between the Armies Reported to Have Occurred on Sunday with Loss to Each Side.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 29.—A dispatch from the front reports frequent skirmishes on the Russian left flank, near Sahke river. Apparently the Japanese are continuing to develop the turning movement which was reported to have begun last week. General Rennekampf reports a hot skirmish on Sunday, in which the seventh Japanese regiment clashed with Russian forces. The Japanese lost a hundred killed and the Russian casualties were seventy-five.

Japs Have Taken Ninety Per Cent. of Fortifications.

Tokio, Nov. 29.—It is reported that the Japanese made a night attack on Metre Hill which they succeeded in taking. It is estimated that ninety percent of the port has been taken. With this height their positions are concealed from the Russians.

IN HIGH LIFE.

Rich American Girl Married to an English Officer—Ceremony Today.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The wedding of Miss Nancy C. Leiter, daughter of the late Levi Z. Leiter, the Chicago millionaire, and sister of Lady Curzon, wife of the Viceroy of India, to Col. Campbell, of the English army, was solemnized at noon today at the home of the bride's mother on Dupont circle.

Owing to the recent death of the bride's father only the immediate family and a few intimate friends and a few representatives of the British embassy attended the wedding. Rev. Dr. Roland Cotton Smith, rector of St. John's church, conducted the ceremony. Following the wedding a breakfast was served and the bride and groom left for a long honeymoon which will end at the groom's station in India with his regiment.

Engine Plunged Down the Bank.

One of the large freight engines of the Southern Railway Company ran off the turn-table at the round house near the Southern depot last night, and plunged down the steep embankment. The tender, however, remained upon the turntable and made it impossible to use it. The other engines which were standing on the various tracks at the turn-table were thus in a position from which they could not be moved unless it were possible to use the turn-table. There were some four or five engines standing upon tracks leading up to the turntable and there was no way for them to get out, except to run on the turntable and out on the main track but it could not be turned and thus was worth nothing.

It seems that the man who was running the engine did not have it under perfect control, ran it upon the table and not stopping it soon enough, the engine went on across the table, and fell off at the other end, went down the embankment on the other side nearly to the old C. F. and Y. V. track several feet below. No one was hurt by the fall of the engine and the engine did not seem to be damaged very much. It did not fall far enough to get on the C. F. and Y. V. track and will in no way delay traffic on this line.

Shortly after the accident a message was sent to Spencer for a wrecking train and one arrived shortly before midnight and began work this morning to get the engine back on the track. It will be quite a task for the men and will cause a great deal of trouble and delay. A similar accident occurred at this place several years ago, but it has been quite a while since any trouble of the kind has been experienced.—Greensboro Telegram.

The Richardson Orchestra will be at the opera house on Thursday night. This organization is a most excellent one and will give an entertainment of merit.

AT HOME ONCE MORE.

The President Reaches Washington This Morning at 7 O'clock in Fine Shape.

Washington, Nov. 29.—At seven this morning after one of the most interesting trips ever taken by the President of the United States Mr. Roosevelt arrived at Washington. Like everything he ever did the trip partook strongly of Theodore Roosevelt's personal traits. He was all rush and hurry and from start to finish was full of good nature. The party was in splendid condition though tired from the journey.

Young Farmer Kills a Negro in Self-Defense.

Weldon, N. C., Nov. 28.—Meredith Britt, colored, was killed by Mr. Wulter T. Morecock, a young farmer Saturday night, while advancing upon Morecock with a drawn knife.

The particulars of the homicide, as brought out at the coroner's inquest Sunday, are about as follows:

Britt and Morecock had had a fight at Pair's store, a few miles in the country from Weldon, Saturday night. Britt walked off, but came back to Morecock's buggy and another fistcuff ensued. The negro's friends interfered and tried to get Britt to go to his home which was within a few hundred yards of the place where the difficulty occurred. They managed to get the negro off, but Britt was not satisfied and attacked Morecock with a knife. It was then that Morecock picked up a stick and struck the negro on the head, knocking him senseless. Britt lingered unconscious up to Sunday morning and died from the effects of the blow.

Mr. F. W. Garrett was appointed a special coroner to investigate the matter. He summoned a jury and heard all the evidence. The verdict of the jury was to the effect that Meredith Britt came to his death at the hands of W. T. Morecock, who was acting in self defense. Mr. Morecock was discharged.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa Claus: I want you to bring me a cap pistol and several boxes of caps and some apples and candy and oranges and banas and nuts of all kinds.

I will close my little letter.
Your friend,
James McClellan.

Dear Santa Claus: Please bring me a little doll and go-cart and a little piano and all kinds of nuts and candy and fruits. Good bye.

Your friend,
Geneva McClellan.

My Dear Santa: I will tell what I want you to bring me. You must bring me a ring with diamonds in it, a piano, a doll that can go to sleep a yard long, and curly red hair like me, a locket, doll carriage for my doll and necklace, oranges, candy, apples, raisins, groundpeas. Well, I can't think of anything else, so I will close for this night. Answer my letter, Santa.

As ever,
Zula Bost.
