DAVIS CHARGES JURY.

The Famous Case Now Near End of Trial—Judge Davis Instructs Jury.

New York, Dec. 23.—The case of Nan Patterson did not go to the jury yesterday as was expected. Judge Davis allowed the jury to go and postponed his charge until today. The concluding argument in the case was made by Mr. Rand for the prosecution and he strongly presented the case against the defendant.

Judge Davis Charges Jury.

New York, Dec. 22.—Justice Davis at the opening of court in the Nan Patterson trial this morning began his charge to the jury. Before beginning he asked counsel if they had any requests to make, and Lawyer Unger for the defense submitted a long typewritten document. The Justice gave at length an exposition of the question of reasonable doubt, quoting from the opinions of the late Recorder Smythe. He explained all the law relative to murder and made what is considered an impartial charge.

THE COMMISSION MEETS.

International Court to Inquire into the Fishing Boat Tragedy Convenes in Paris Today.

Paris, Dec. 22.—The International commission, which is to investigate the Dogger Bank tragedy, met in the Foreign office this morning. Rear Admiral Fournier, the French member, being president pro tem. Admiral Spaul, the Austrian member was elected president, and the meeting adjourned until January 9.

Officers Arrive to Testify.

Bordeau, France, Dec. 22.—The steamer Paraguay arrived this morning bearing four officers of the Russian Baltic fleet who will testify before the International commission. Lieutenant Batraud, one of the four, had charge of the flashlight the night of the tragedy and says positively that he saw torpedo boats.

AFTER BALTIC FLEET.

Japanese Fleet Seen Passing Singapore Evidently the Baltic Fleet of the Enemy.

Singapore, Dec. 22.—Two Japanese battleships, four cruisers and twelve destroyers passed here this morning steaming westward. It looks like a concentration for an attack on the Russian Baltic fleet when it arrives.

Metre Hill Retaken by Russians.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 22.—General Knorpatkin wires that he has received a report from the Chinese that the Russians have retaken Two Hundred and Three Metre hill outside of Port Arthur and seized the guns mounted there by the Japanese.

Report of Mediation in Far East War.

London, Dec. 22.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Central News wires that a persistent rumor is current that England and France will shortly attempt to mediate in the war in the far East. Official confirmation of the rumor cannot be had.

Trouble With the Fog.

London, Dec. 22.—The city of London and surrounding country is still covered by a dense fog. Shipping on the Thames is stopped and traffic in the city is seriously impeded. Several liners are held in English ports.

Countess Cassini Ill

Washington, Dec. 23.—Countess Cassini, daughter of the Russian Ambassador, is ill at her apartments of gastric fever, resulting from poisonous poisoning. Illness caused by eating oysters.

OF A SOCIAL NATURE.

Marriage of Prof. Caswell and Mrs. Davis—Miss Ritchie Married to Mr. Cook Yesterday Afternoon.

At the home of the bride in No. 8 township yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Miss Lena Ritchie was married to Mr. J. Frank Cook, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Charles T. Fisher. The wedding was witnessed by a few friends and relatives of the young couple, and today a dinner is being given by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cook. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ritchie and is one of the most popular young ladies of the county.

At the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Cross, at Burdett Mecklenburg county, Mrs. Manie Davis was married yesterday evening to Prof. W. G. Caswell, of the Rocky River High school. The ceremony was performed in the parlor, beautifully decorated in clinging ivy, holly and mistletoe, transformed into a veritable fairy land. Softened by the mellow lights of Japanese lanterns as Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered by Mrs. R. J. Hunter the bridal party entered in the following order:

Entering first were the little ribbon bearers, Misses Martha Moore and Mary Pharr, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Bird Cross, dressed in white organdy over pink taffeta, carrying pink carnations, on the arm of Mr. John Ervin, the best man. Next came Miss Lucile Cross, in white organdy over blue taffeta, carrying pink carnations, with Mr. Sam Black. Then entered the bride, never more beautiful than in her wedding dress of white silk and carrying white carnations, leaning on the arm of the man to whom she pledged her troth. Advancing to the center of the beautiful room, arrayed in tasty decorations and surrounded by the wedding company and the gathered friends, the nuptial vows were spoken by Rev. J. A. McMurry, assisted by Rev. R. J. Hunter. After the wedding a supper was served, followed by the cutting of the wedding cake, the ring falling to Miss Juliette Johnson, of Concord.

The presents were many and beautiful, including the gift of the groom, a brooch of pearls.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wolf Jr., of Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cross, Charlotte; Mrs. C. W. Swink, Concord; Mrs. A. R. Hoover, High Point; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Oglesby, Concord; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hunter, Rocky River; Mr. S. W. Pharr, Miss Maude Howie, Miss Sallie McMurry, Mint Hill, Miss Nan McDonald, Charlotte; Misses Emma Welsh, Essie Johnston, Johnnie Farrow, and Juliette Johnson, Martha Moore, Lucile Johnson and Mary Stafford; Messrs Tin Lucas, Luke Johnson, John Ervin, Marion Farrow, Halsey Cross and Joe Morrison.

INVITED TO CHARLOTTE.

Mr. Roosevelt Will be Invited by Manufacturers' Club to Visit There on Trip South.

Charlotte, N. C., Dec. 22.—The Southern Manufacturers' Club, in view of the fact that the President contemplates a trip through the South and Southwest in the spring, has passed resolutions inviting him to stop at Charlotte on the tour and has appointed a committee to wait upon Mr. Roosevelt at Washington and urge the invitation upon him. It is understood that President Roosevelt will stop at five or six more important cities in this section and the members of the club entertain strong hopes that he may be prevailed upon to include Charlotte in that number. The committee appointed to visit Washington and formally invite President Roosevelt is composed of the following named gentlemen:

Messrs. T. S. Franklin, C. D. Bennett, Jeremiah Goff, T. W. Alexander, E. S. Reid, T. W. Wade and I. L. Chambers, of Charlotte; F. B. Comins, of Boston; T. A. Blythe of Philadelphia; J. W. Conway and S. W. Crummer, of Charlotte; S. J. Durham, of Bessemer City; H. W. Eddy, of Charlotte; J. S. Cothran, of Atlanta, Ga.; J. H. Hull, of New York, and the president of the club ex-officio.
