CONCORD, N. C., Dec. 23 1905
NO PAPER MONDAY.

Monday being Christmas there will be no issue of The Tribune. The past two weeks have been strenuous ones for the office. The business men of the city have made heavy demands and with extra help we have tried to give each the attention due, at the same time keep up the paper to a degree of interest. For this patronage we extend thanks. The Tribune was never more fully appreciated by the people of the city than today. We have many things to be thankful for and take this opportunity of saying to our friends and patrons a word of appreciation.

In this issue, on the very eve of a Christmas day, we want to wish a merry Christmas to every friend and reader. The season thus far has indeed been a happy one. The year has been a prosperous one and it is happily ending to the people of this community. Christmas always full of so much good to us, will doubt be fully and dully appreciated and observed. That the true Christmas spirit may prevail, and every life be bright and happy, is our sincere wish.

Salisbury has twelve bars and gets a $600 license. The aldermen contemplate raising the tax to one thousand dollars. It looks like the Salisbury saloons were paying little enough for their privilege and they could not afford to kick at a raise, for if reports be true they are reaping a harvest of business.

The Republicans of New York are getting into a row, principally over its speakers for the legislature. One boss wants one man, another boss another man, and the fight might result in a real man getting the speakership.

Salisbury, N. C.—The jug mills worked all night last night filling orders for Southern shipment.

Hope you won't find a cow bell in your Christmas stocking.

A $50,000 Fire in Boston; Sensational Escapes.

Boston, Dec. 22.—A $50,000 fire in the building at the corner of Pitts and Greene streets, at the West End, which started in the shipping room of the New England Reed Company's factory, was attended by many sensational escapes, and cost one life. The victim was Pamfilo Ramonino, who was suffocated by smoke before the fireman could take him from a window. Ninety men and women had their escape cut off from the stairways and fire escapes and most of them got out by means of a sky light. By passing over the roof of the burning building, they reached the higher walls of an adjoining structure, where some of them formed a human ladder, and by permitting others to climb over their shoulders enabled them to reach safety.

It's cold treatment that make some's blood boil.

A new leaf is really the same old one with another turn.

"Well, I'll be banged," said the small boy's stocking on Christmas eve. It makes no difference how long you have been in it, if you are troubled with indigestion, constipation, or kidney trouble, you should try Doan's Kidney Pills.

Five Cars Wrecked.
Winston-Salem, Dec. 22.—Five cars of an incoming freight from Charlotte were wrecked about 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon in a cut near the Davis school. Engineer Goldsmith and Conductor Vest were in charge of the train. One of the cars wrecked was loaded with kaoline, one with canned oysters and one empty boxcar. The other two were empty. The track was blocked until noon today. On account of the wreck the Mooresville passenger train, due to leave here at 5:30 in the afternoon, was cancelled. Captain Parker and his crew spent the night here. They received orders this morning not to go out until 5:30 this afternoon. Trains on the Greensboro, Wilkesboro, and Mocksville-Mooresville roads are still running without orders from the train dispatchers. The telegraph wires being down. One or two wires were put in operation Wednesday, but the wind storm that night knocked them down again.

Life Pension for Proofreader.
Louisville, Dec. 21.—Raymond Lynch, known as "Judge" Lynch, veteran proofreader of the Courier-Journal, was retired by that paper today on a pension for life at full pay. Mr. Lynch was born in Louisville in 1824, and in 1836 was apprenticed to the Louisville Journal. With one or two slight interruptions he continued in the newspaper business, going with the Courier-Journal when it absorbed the Journal and the Democrat in 1868. On January 28th next he would have served exactly 70 years. He has probably been a proofreader longer than any man living, and is still mentally active.

To Take Cassie Away from Parola.
Cleveland, Dec. 21.—Fearing the State might pardon her, Federal authorities will hustle Mrs. Cassie Chadwick to the State penitentiary at Columbus and then have her committed to a Federal prison, either at Atlanta, Ga., or Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas.

Judge Taylor, in the United States District Court, yesterday decided that wherever the parole system exists in State penitentiaries the Boards of Pardon of such institutions have the right to parole prisoners. Hence their desire to get her to Columbus and later to a Federal prison.

A wedding is like going up in a balloon—it is best not to think what is going to happen when you start to come down.

A good way to keep from becoming poor is not to try to get rich too fast.

THIS MEANS YOU.

I am preparing a directory for the protection of merchants, who do a credit business. This Directory will be placed in the hands of all merchants of this city and state, at the earliest date possible. In this Directory will be placed the names of all parties that owe an account, so that when a party makes application for credit the merchant, at a moment's notice, can see the party wanting the credit appears in this Directory, and if so, he can get no credit.

This is a long-felt need for the protection of merchants, and will be a great help to them and hurt no one that pays his honest debts.

This Directory will make its appearance about January 1st, 1906, and unless you wish to find your name in bold type in the same, you will call and settle that little account due the firm of D P Dayvaut & Bro., bankrupts.

You can settle with me, or with Adams, Armfield, Jerome & Manna, Attorneys. This means YOU, for every one that fails to pay will be made known to all merchants, and when a man has his name in this Directory no merchant will allow him credit. Very truly yours,
D. P. DAYVAUT & BRO., BANKRUPTS.
