CONCORD, N. C., Jan. 9 1906

THE CLANSMAN IN NEW YORK.

"The Clansman" made its appearance in New York last night to a crowded house. The much-talked-of play was applauded throughout and calls were made for the author, Mr. Dixon, who appearing said:

"My profession for 20 years has been public speaking and if there is one thing that tires me it is the sound of my own voice. I've a notion that it has tired other people, too. People say 'The Clansman' has been a success in the South. You have demonstrated tonight that there is no North, there is no South. We are all one people. The simple fact is that joy, sorrow, peace and suffering are all universal and belong to the human heart everywhere."

So judging from the special to the Charlotte Observer, the Clansman was a success in New York and won the same applause it did through the South some weeks ago.

Talk about securities, stocks and bonds there is nothing the matter with those sold at auction here Monday, some of the stocks in cotton mills bringing as much as two for one. These prices and the eager bidding proves the value of the properties and also that the people have the money. The prices show what Southern cotton mill stocks are worth. The price Concord bonds were bid off for was a good one, and shows what this city's paper is worth. It is also interesting to note the sale of North Carolina railroad bonds at 185. This is far above the amount paid by Mr. Melchor. These Concord mills are certainly worth while, and their stocks seem good things to leave as assets.

We have a copy of "Idle Comments" by the late I E Avery and have read the volume with much pleasure and intense interest. The book contains selections from Mr. Avery's contributions to the Observer, of which he was city editor. It has the cream of his "Idle Comments" column, so we well remember, so delighted to read. Reading the book one goes back to the days of Avery's life, the first appearance of those choice comments on living things, and entertaining topics, so delightfully written, so full of beauty and humanity. The book is one to be valued, prized, and should be in the libraries of the homes, where it is indeed most worthy of a place.

Mr. Buggins—"You know I am right about this question of economy. Now will you give in?" Mrs. Buggins—"Yes, when you sell out."

FIRST ANNIVERSARY.

Service at St. James Sunday of Unusual Interest—First Anniversary of Rev. J. E. Shenk's Pastorale.

One year ago Rev. J. E. Shenk came to Concord as pastor of St. James Lutheran church. On Sunday morning services commemorative of this first anniversary were held, at which time a review of the year's work was given and specially prepared exercises held. The music for the occasion had been carefully arranged, embracing several compositions by Miss Ida Blume, the choir being assisted by Prof. Richardson, of Charlotte, and Miss Jennie Patterson.

The result of the first year's pastorate is a matter in which not only St. James will rejoice, but the entire city, for the year has been most encouraging and full of accomplishments. Fifty members have been added to the roll, the pastor's salary increased and other contributions and works enlarged.

A Modern Miracle.

"Truly miraculous seemed the recovery of Mrs. Mollie Holt of this place," writes J. O. R. Hooper, Woodford, Tenn. "she was so wasted by coughing up puss from her lungs. Doctors declared her end so near that her family had watched by her bed-side forty-eight hours; when, at my urgent request, Dr. King's New Discovery was given her, with the astonishing result that improvement began, and continued until she finally completely recovered, and is a healthy woman today." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00 at all druggists. Trial bottle free.

Just because a woman never cleans house is no sign that she is intellectual.

The first person recognizing him and addressing thusly: You are the funny Mr. Brown of 'Brown's in Town' which plays at the New Opera tonight," will receive four of the best seats for the performance free. The person capturing the funny Mr. Brown will be taken to the office of The Tribune where he will immediately receive four seats free.

STOPS ANY ITCHING;

Doan's Ointment Cures Eczema and Itching Piles—Concord People Recommend It.

One application of Doan's Ointment stops any itching. Short treatment cures eczema, itching piles, salt rheum—any skin eruption or skin itching. It is the cheapest remedy to use, because so little of it is required to bring relief and a cure. Here is Concord testimony to prove it:

J. F. Goodson bookkeeper for Yorke & Wadsworth Co., wholesale dealers in hardware and agricultural implements, No. 8 96th Union St., and who lives on the Union St. Extension, says: "I was terribly annoyed for a long time with eczema which appeared in spots on my legs below the knee. I was advised to try Doan's Ointment and got a box at the Gibson Drug Store. I applied it only one time, and since then I have not been troubled at all, although before I began using it would often times scratch and scratch my legs until they were covered with blood. It is wonderful salve and a good thing for all itching skin diseases."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes non-aliment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After eating a few bottles I am cured. MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me. D. KAUBLE, Nevada, O.
