BEAVERS IS SENTENCED

Former Employee in Postoffice Department Pleads Guilty and Gets Two Years in Penitentiary.

Washington, Feb. 13.—George W. Beavers, former superintendent of salary and allowance of the postoffice department, appeared before Justice Gould, of the District court, this morning and pleaded guilty to the indictment charging him with conspiring with former Senator Green, of New York, to defraud the government in connection with the sale of time recording devices to the department. Green did not appear and the case against him will go to trial Monday. It is expected that the government will squish other indictments against Beavers.

Beavers was sentenced to two years at the penitentiary at Moundville, W. Va. After the sentence had been passed Justice Gould asked Beavers if he had anything to say, to which he answered, "No." He was taken immediately to the cell under the court room and refused to talk, but said that he hoped his action would not result detrimentally to the other defendants in the case.

Denmark's Dead King to Lie in State for Three Days.

Copenhagen, Denmark, Feb. 13.—The remains of King Christian, of Denmark, were removed this morning to the Christiansburg palace church where they will lie in state for three days. Friday the body will be taken under military and naval escort to Roskilde where the burial takes place Sunday, in the Cathedral where the Danish kings are interred.

Massachusetts Granite Yards Closed.

Quincy, Mass., Feb. 13.—A general lockout of the granite cutting industry was inaugurated today. In all a hundred firms and a thousand men are affected. No business is being done at the various yards. The manufacturers are determined to keep the yards closed until the cutters union agrees to have the dispute settled by arbitration.

Chinamen Arouse Suspicion.

Oakland, Cal., Feb. 13.—The departure of a number of Chinamen from here leads to the belief that they are in some way connected with the anti-foreign movement in China. These men have been here recently drilling under the instructions of clerks in the postoffice.

British Parliament Opens Formally.

London, Feb. 13.—Parliament begins its session this afternoon. The opening, however, will be purely formal, solely for the purpose of choosing a speaker of the House of Commons and swearing in new members.

Jail Delivery in Alabama.

Greenville, Ala., Feb. 12.—Five prisoners escaped from jail last night, namely: Genie Lewis, sentenced for life, for murder; Jim Reynolds, embezzlement; John Edwards, assault on murder; Dunk Amen, burglary, and Quill Bradley, arson—all negroes. A sixth negro refused to make his escape with the others, and when the fact was learned this morning the negro, Will Smith, had built a fire in the corridor and was sitting by it.

The delivery was made by some one from the outside who made an opening through the brick wall and then broke the lock to the cell, using a scantling and piece of iron. The jailer did not hear any noise during the night and knew nothing of the trouble until this morning.

RUSSIAS JEWISH POLICY.

Will Expell Immediately All Members of Jewish Families From Capital—Bitter Article From America Printed in Russian Paper.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 13.—It is reported today that the Russian Government had decided to adopt a strong anti-Jewish policy. Hereafter all Jews, even the richest merchants, will be allowed to live in St. Petersburg only six months in the year. The wives, children and other members of the family will be expelled at once. The Vovo Vremia in a bitter article from America printed today says that President Roosevelt intends to seize the islands of North Eastern Siberia and will hoist the American flag in Russian waters, taking advantage of the weakness of Russia.

Graft in Bottle Contracts.

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 12.—The dispensary investigation this afternoon, with Mr Packham, of a New Jersey glass concern, on the stand, disclosed two bids on the minute book of the board of directors lower than that of the Carolina Glass Co., which got the business then and which has gotten it steadily since. The witness calculated the difference in the 300 cars awarded the Carolina concern at $53,000 and said his concern would cheerfully enter into bond to supply these 300 cars yet undelivered at that reduction.

The minute book showed that one of the bids had been torn out of the book. Mr Packham could not find the bid in the book but there were others left in the book yet lower than his. He wrote to ex-Commissioner Douthitt in 1902 informing Mr Douthitt that the business had not been given the lowest bidder and publication was made of the affair at the time Mr Peckham said that his concern and others became disgusted with the policy of the board and quit biting.

Will She Stop at Salisbury?

Salisbury, Feb. 11.—It is far more than a rumor that Salisbury may be included in Sarah Barnhardt's precious itinerary. It looks and sounds almost too good to be true, yet there is abundant hopes of this. Dr Leroy J. Meroney, who, with his sister, Miss Lena Meroney, owns Salisbury's beautiful new theatre, went to Philadelphia during the past week to see Madame Barnhardt, as to making a date for Salisbury. She played a week's engagement there. Dr Meroney's hope is to attract her here by the convenience of trains. She has not a right to spare but she could pass through Salisbury and stop without missing a date or losing any time. Salisbury is so full of hope today that she finds difficulty in behaving herself like a lady.

It is base ingratitude when a woman's age begins to tell on her.

It doesn't pay to go entirely on the theory that things go by contraries.

A Terrible Scene.

Strohschneider, the famous aeronaut, astonished the natives of Stockerau, near Vienna, by carrying a young barometer on his back, along a tight rope eighty meters in length fixed to the church steeple. A few days later flaming posters appeared on the walls announcing that Strohschneider would effect a balloon ascent in the company of Herr Prammer, the popular landlord of the White House.

Notwithstanding the fact that the police had forbidden the landlord, who has a large family, from taking part in the performance, the host entered the enclosure at the appointed time, to the no small delight of the assembled multitude. At a given signal the balloon rose in the air, Strohschneider and the landlord sitting on the trapeze beneath. Some of the spectators declare that the latter turned as pale as a sheet during his upward flight, though he did not fall to wave his hat to the crowd. After reaching a dizzy height the two balloonists were observed to quarrel and actually came to blows. All at once the landlord plunged headlong into space. A shout of horror arose from the spectators, who ran to the spot where they expected to find Prammer lying with broken limbs. What was their astonishment at discovering not a corpse, but a lay figure dressed in one of the landlord's suits. The manikin was conveyed to Stockerau in triumph.

The British Anthem.

The whirling of time has brought changes of its own into the British national anthem. In 1745 it began:

God save great George, our king!
The king's name was again inserted in that second verse, which has been used as an argument to prove that the words were written by Ben Jonson as early as 1607 to celebrate King James I's escape from the gunpowder plot:

Confound their politics,
Frustrate their knavish tricks;
On George our hopes we fix—
God save the king!

The change to the present form is: On thee our hopes we fix, where deity has been substituted for majesty. There is another rendering, which the exigencies of the times no longer demand:

Oh, grant that Marshal Wade
May by thy mighty aid
Victory bring!
May he sedition crush
And like a torrent rush
Rebellious Scots to crush;
God save the king!

—London Queen.

Why Not?

Mrs. Frederick Schoff, president of the National Mothers' Congress, is enthusiastic about a delightful five-year-old girl she met in Salt Lake City.

"Jane was out driving with her father," said Mrs. Schoff, "and noticed that her father simply slashed the whip through the air to make the horse quicken his pace.

"Papa," said the little one, "why don't you whip us children that way?"

"About January 1st, 1902, I took down with weakness and droopy, and gradually grew worse. I was told by my family physician that my case was hopeless. My neighbors and family had given me up to die. My limbs and body were swollen to one-third larger than normal size, and water had collected around my heart. For at least three months I had to sit propped up in bed to keep from smothering. I sent for five bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and by the time I had taken them all I was entirely cured. I feel better than I have for twenty years, and I am able to do any kind of work on my farm. My attending physician told me that if it hadn't been for Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I would now be in my grave."
