GERMANY SURRENDERS.

Government Bill to Give Away in Matters of Tariff Causes Much Opposition. Governments Must Retain American Friendship.

Berlin, Feb. 20.—Strong popular opposition has developed to the government's bill extending the most favorable national treatment on the subject of tariff to the United States till June 1907, without obtaining reciprocal concessions in return. The Agrarian manufacturers, Constructives and Liberals, are united in condemning the government's unconditional surrender. The newspapers of all parties attack Prince Von Beulow on the subject in the strongest terms.

The Chancellor held a conference this morning with the leaders of the principal parties of the Reichstag, seeing each man privately and urging them to support the bill, explaining that it is necessary for Germany to surrender here on account of diplomatic considerations. Germany cannot afford to lose America's friendship and must pay the price. The Chancellor argued that it is necessary in order to prevent the United States joining the ranks of nations hostile to Germany and urged them to support the bill on patriotic grounds.

Committee Will Report Substitute for Tillman Resolution.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Another blow was aimed at the railroads today when the House committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce after fifteen minutes session agreed to report a substitute for Senator Tillman's resolution instructing the Interstate Commission to make an examination into the subjects of railroad discriminations and monopolies in coal and report to the senate from time to time.

Jerome Begins to Prosecute the Company

New York, Feb. 20.—District Attorney Jerome finally begun prosecution in the insurance cases. The grand jury today began investigating the charges brought by James D Wells, formerly an official, against the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company. It is charged by Wells that the president and other officials of the company liquidated a judgment secured against them as individuals with funds of the company.

RANSOM KRIDER DEAD.

Young Man Shot Sunday Died This Morning at 5 O'clock From Wounds.

Ransom M. Krider, the young man who was shot early Sunday morning by George Hill, died this morning at 5 o'clock from the wounds of the pistol shot. Krider became worse yesterday afternoon, his mind began to wander and from then on till death he grew worse all the while.

The young man was in his 28th year, and is survived by a wife and two small children, besides one brother who lives in Concord.

The funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at the home by Rev. J W Long and the body interred at Center Grove.

The Blind Mule and the Chief.

John Lawson Boger stood leaning against a pole at the Fetzer Drug Store corner yesterday when a blind mule came along up Depot street. The mule went daft at the sight of the officer and cut a few highlands over the sidewalk and street. We knew that the blind tigers were a bit shy of John Lawson but never suspected a blind mule would so behave in the presence of the big chief.

A FRIGHTFUL STORY.

Thought That a Woman Threw Her Children Overboard Steamer and Then Herself.

Fall River, Mass., Feb. 20.—When the Falls River Line Steamer Plymouth arrived here this morning it became known that a frightful tragedy had in all probability occurred aboard during the night. The night watchman about 2 o'clock this morning discovered a state room door open and upon going in found women's clothing scattered about the room and a letter on the stand addressed to John Waters, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The note said that the woman was the wife of Waters and that she had thrown her three children overboard and was about to throw herself after them, that she was tired of life.

The note was first thought to be a fraud, but the occupants of the adjoining room said they heard children crying in the night and it is now believed that the woman threw them overboard and then herself followed. A careful search, however, failed to reveal any trace of them.

Three Children Burned to Death.

Caribou, Me., Feb. 20.—As a result of a fire in the residence of Joseph Cyr last night three of Cyr's children were burned to death and another rescued after heroic efforts. A lamp exploded in the room where the children were sleeping while the parents were playing cards down stairs.

CANTATA THURSDAY NIGHT.

Children of the Confederacy Will Give a Pleasing Entertainment for Benefit of Old Soldiers.

The Children of the Confederacy will give a cantata on Thursday evening at the opera house, the proceeds to be used by the Children in their efforts to prevent Crosses of Honor to the Confederate soldiers of the county. The children are being drilled by Mrs James P Cook and have made splendid progress, such as will guarantee a pleasing evening to all who attend.

The cast of characters is as follows: Job Harkins, Leader—Nevin Fetzer.

Granny Lumpkins, a queer old lady—Mary Kimmons. Fidgety Suzan—Ohla Brown. Sleepy Cherub—Robert Lee Morrison.

Corporal—Clarence Norman. Spinners, Majoory and Dorothy—Helen Patterson and Margaret Brown. Quakers—Adeline and Mary Morrison, Catherine Goodson and Maud Brown.

And a goodly number of little singers; also a flag drill and swinging song by the children. The children will be assisted by Misses Cole, Craven and Patterson. These little folks will be glad to greet a full house.

The admission is 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children.

Miss Elizabeth Lois Conrad, who has been visiting in Charlotte, Coucord and other North Carolina points, will return to the city about the first of March. Miss Conrad has been the recipient of much attention while on her Southern tour and her departure will be sadly regretted by the smart set in the Old North State. Miss Conrad studied at Peace Institute, Raleigh, and has friends in every quarter of the State. She has been the guest in Charlotte of Mrs Harvey Lambeth, and left last night for a visit of some weeks in Concord. She will be "the recipient of much attention" wherever she goes.—Danville Register.

Mr W B Vaught, of Greensboro, is a visitor here today.

Mr R M Forbis is here today from Charlotte.

DEATH OF MRS. YORKE.

Wife of N. F. Yorke Died This Morning at Morganton—Body Brought Home for Burial.

A telegram this morning announced the death at 8 o'clock of Mrs Mary Yorke, wife of Mr Felix Yorke, of this city. Mrs Yorke died at the State hospital where she had been for several years. A letter several days ago told her family and friends that she could not long survive the illness that had laid heavily upon her, and the message this morning was not a surprise to those familiar with her condition.

Mrs Yorke was a daughter of the late Samuel Pharr, one of the most prominent men of his day in Cabarrus. She is survived by a husband, one sister, Mrs P M Morris, and three brothers, Messrs Frank, Sam and Laird Pharr, of the county.

Mrs Yorke was one of the best known ladies of this city. She was exceedingly popular among the people of the city as well as throughout the county. About four years ago she suffered a complete breakdown and was taken to the hospital. The body will be brought to Concord for interment.

Mrs Yorke was 48 years of age. For many years she had been a member of the Presbyterian church and the funeral services will be conducted by Rev. George H Cornelson, Wednesday afternoon.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurt. At any drug store.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight, to tell, that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by all druggists, at 10c a bottle.

He—"Marry me, and my life shall be an open book to you." She—"A check book?"

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which for over 35 years. A sure, protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's, or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada. At all druggists.

Even when he comes to a window pane the considerate burglar breaks it gently.

They never gripe or stoken, but cleanse and strengthen the stomach, liver and bowels. This is the universal verdict of the many thousands who use De Witt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills relieve headache, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, torpid liver, a low complexion, etc. Try Little Early Risers. Sold by Gibson Drug Co.
