

Rufus Ruffy Pays Fine and Apologues.
 Salisbury, July 24—The officers made a severe example of Mr Rufus Ruffy, who assaulted Rev Dr J C Rowe Saturday afternoon while the minister was remonstrating with him about his swearing. Mayor Brody issued a warrant for him yesterday and two officers went into the country five miles after him, Chief Miller having determined that the incident should not go unnoticed. They brought back the ordinarily quiet farmer and he was given an immediate hearing, after which he was fined $5 and all costs. He was then taken before Dr Rowe and he made the most abject apology, promising to refrain from drinking and swearing for all time. Thus a bellicose incident transformed into an evangelical one. Mr Ruffy, although a dangerous man with his fists, is naturally kind and was thoroughly humiliated. Dr Rowe never agitated the matter, but the congregation did, and the officers did their work well. It meant a term of 60 days on the roads without some atonement.

A Tragic Finish.
 A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth Mofver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold; saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A girl would have to have very blond hair not to wonder if she couldn't make it seem more real by touching it up a little.—New York Press.

Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

Wigg—"Poor old Bjonel! His rich uncle has died and he was cut off without a cent." Wagg—"I thought he looked sort of amputated."

Twenty Year Battle.
 "I was a loser in a twenty year battle with chronic piles and malignant sores, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; which turned the tide, by curing both, till not a trace remains," writes A M Bruce, of Farmville, Va. Best for old Ulcers, Cuts, Burns and Wounds. 25c at all druggists.

He—"Tell me the worst. You do not love me." She—"Oh! that isn't the worst. I'm not going to return your presents."
