

OFF FOR NEW YORK.

Bryan's Home Coming an Event That Draws Many Concord People to the Metropolis.

The "Home Coming of Bryan" draws people to New York where a great welcome has been arranged for him. By reason of the fact that the Southern has made an exceedingly low rate people from every section of the South are going into the American metropolis.

Concord sent a delegation last night while others go tonight, all hoping to see the returning Bryan and visit New York. Those who go and are going are:

Messrs. Charles Barnhardt, Fred Williams, P B Fetzer, R L Kessler, R P Gibson, W S Bingham, J W Cannon, Jr., W C Correll, Maury Richmond, Joe Hill, and perhaps others who have not as yet reported to News Headquarters.

The case of State vs Alex Helms has been laid over to next term of court.

Americans Slaves in France, He Says.

Boston, Aug. 27.—Charges of cruel treatment of Americans of Saint Nazaire, France, were made today by Frank Downey, who arrived from Liverpool as a stowaway on the Sacher. Downey, who said his home is in New York, was one of about 2,000 Americans, who went to France to induce American methods in the oyster industry.

He said that he and his companions were kept in a state of practical slavery being ill-fed and ill-treated, and forced to work night and day until completely exhausted. Downey escaped to England in a penniless condition and hid on board the Sacher just before she left Liverpool.

Waiting for Mr. Bryan.

New York, Aug. 27.—"Bryan's Nebraska home folks," consisting of 120 delegates and members of their families, who reached here last evening, are today seeing New York. Many of them were up early at the Hotel Victoria. They intend to have a good time while waiting for their peerless leader to arrive within the next few days.

One hundred in the Florida delegation, headed by former Governor W I Jennings and D W Fletcher, chairman of the Democratic State committee of Florida, arrived here today to participate in the welcoming ceremonies to Bryan. They will call on Acting Mayor MacGowan this afternoon.

He—"Marriage without love is a positive crime." She—"Yes, just like divorce without alimony."

Love makes the world go round, but the trouble is there doesn't seem to be enough men to go round.

THREATS AGAINST JEWS.

Warsaw Soldiers Make Threats Which Cause Great Alarm Among the Jewish People.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 28.—Threats to exterminate the Jews of Warsaw have been made by the soldiers of the Polish capital in revenge for the killing yesterday of General Vonlarlaski, who was shot down in his carriage by an unknown man supposed to have been a Jew. As a result of this threat the Jews are fleeing from the city. This information came in a dispatch this morning. There seems to be plenty of authority for the reports that a massacre of Jews is probable and further news from the city is waited with eagerness. Great alarm prevails in Jewish quarters and those who remain are arming themselves.

Col. Dady Says Arrest Was a Joke.

New York, Aug. 28.—Among the arrivals on the Steamer Morre Castle from Havana today was Col. Michael J Dady he said his arrest in Havana was a joke. He was on a government boat with regular inspectors looking over the work in the harbor when the boat ran aground. "We were stuck about 14 hours. Somebody told the crew of a gun boat that we were filibusters. They came over to us and learned there mistake. I saw no trouble in Cuba. I traveled by rail from Cienfuegos across the island and everybody appeared to be at work. The trouble is all west of Havana and I did not go that way."

A "Jack the Ripper" Murder.

New York, Aug. 28.—A "Jack the Ripper" murder was committed in the bowery district early this morning. The only clue to the murderer is the bloody thumb print on the sheet. The victim of the "Rippers" knife is Annie Moore, who for many years lived in illicit relationship with her brother-in-law, James Moore.

The body of the murdered woman was slashed and gashed to bloody mutilation. She was found lying across the bed fully dressed. Moore's wife is said to be living. He was arrested on suspicion.

Prof. Ingram for the House.

"You remember our good friend, Col. Jean Napoleon Ingram?" asked a citizen of a reporter last evening.

"Oh, yes," replied the scribe. "He is the fellow who came near thrashing our auburn-haired, ruddy-complected city editor, Red Buck. What about him?"

"Why, he is a candidate for the legislature from the state of Cabarrus. He announced his candidacy and published his platform in today's Concord Tribune. He will stand for a reduction of railroad rates, ample power to the corporation commission, equal freight rates to all shippers, special privileges to none and a square deal to all. This is an awfully strong platform, and the colonel will make things lively on the hustings, for he is something of an orator as well as a writer of ability."

"I didn't know the colonel was a resident of Cabarrus county," said the reporter.

"Well," said the colonel's supporter, "he is a globe-trotter, and is at home anywhere. He might go across the pond and run for the British parliament, if he pleased."—Charlotte Observer.

Regular meeting tonight at 8:30. Business of importance; full attendance is urged. GEO. RUTLEDGE, Clerk to Camp.

Pluck is all right, but good luck frequently leaves it at the post.

OUT AT GIBSON MILL.

New Office and "Super" Home Being Built—New Weave-Shed Being Completed.

The barefoot boy of some twenty-five years ago recalls the picnic in the Meisenheimer Grove, when the Sunday Schools of Concord gathered all the children and spent the day in the woods. Every old tree bore its swing, and the woods, filled with happy youngsters and their chaperones—woods that are now groves to home yards—and all the way is lined with homes, and far beyond buildings have sprung up where hedgroves and fence corners encumbered the earth.

Gibson mill is now "in town," the very center of one of the most hustling, industrious centers of Concord. Nice homes, good people and many stores are added where the picnics were formerly pulled off.

The Gibson is a modern and one of the prettiest mills in the South. It is making a line of goods that but few undertake. Its work is distinct and sets the pace for Southern manufacturers. Its prints, shirtings and blankets have made it famous. The Gibson cotton blanket is a beauty and a comfort. All of these things are facts known to all of Concord and the people abroad in close touch with the marketings of cotton products.

Just now there is a considerable improvement going on at the Gibson. The new weave-shed, 174 feet square, is nearing completion, a new office building is being built, and a home for the superintendent is beginning. The new weave-shed is a modern machinery home, attractive, with splendid light and ventilation.

The office rooms are large and convenient, while the new "super" home will be a modern house, large and roomy, with all modern and convenient appointments.

Concord people interested in Concord's live, progressive enterprises, crowning every hill and reaching out of the valleys everywhere, should know and appreciate the Gibson, a mill in which to pride.

Nell—"I would much rather be beautiful than intellectual." Belle—"Yes, there are a great many more stupid men than blind ones."

COUSINS OF JEFFERSON DAVIS

Engaged by Manager Brennan for "The Clansman"—Will Play in the Southern Company.

New York, Aug. 25.—Manager George H. Brennan today engaged two cousins of the late President Jefferson Davis of the Southern Confederacy for feminine roles in "The Clansman". They will appear with the Southern company during its forty weeks tour from the Coast to the Gulf.

The cousins of President Davis are both clever actresses. One of them, Miss Maude Durand, is already known to "Clansman" playgoers through her work as Eve last season. Her sister, Miss Edna Davis, is a new recruit. The mother of the Davis girls was Mrs Elizabeth Hyatt Davis, the second cousin of the Confederate President. She belonged to the branch of the family which went North and settled in Indiana.

The girls are fervent admirers of the fame and achievements of the great Southern leader. It has been their custom to visit Mrs Jefferson every year and they are welcome guests at her house. On the last tour of "The Clansman" Miss Durand was the recipient of many attentions from Southerners of note who were aware of her connection with the Davis family.

Government Sells Old Spanish Hulks.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Three Spanish ships captured by Admiral Dewey in Manila Bay, May 1, 1898, were sold by the navy department today for $103. These ships were advertised at several Asiatic ports, the total cost of advertising being $28 and the navy department is well satisfied that the bids were sufficient to cover the expense of advertising.

The three ships are the Albay, Manila and Mindanao. They have been stripped of everything movable and are simply old hulks practically useless for any purpose of the navy.

Change of Time for Holding Democratic Primary in No. 8 Township.

At the request of the Chairman of the No. 8 township the time for holding the primaries in that township is changed from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock. L. T. HARTSELL, Chairman.
