2nd Yule Program Sponsored by Garden Club

A Community Carol Sing will be held around the beautifully lighted Christmas tree on the grounds of the Recreation Center on Thursday, December 21st, from 8:00 p.m. to 9:00 P.M.

The public is invited and all congregations and choirs of the local churches of Cooleeemee will participate.

Christmas carols will be sung by everyone and special selections are to be given by the church choirs and the Junior Chorus of Cooleeemee School. Various pastors will take part in the program and a brass choir of local players will provide music. (Everyone is asked to please bring a flashlight to use in the program.) In case of inclement weather, the program will be held in the First Baptist Church across the street from the Center.

Immediately following the program, the Garden Club and the Churches will provide refreshments before an open fire in the Recreation House. Anyone wishing to go caroling to the shut-ins after the program, please see Roy Howard.

Come out and enjoy the fellowship. Take time to get away from all the hustle and bustle at Christmas and capture the true meaning of this festival by singing praises to Him.

W.S.C.S. Meets At Liberty

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Liberty Methodist Church met at the parsonage Saturday evening at 7:00 with Mrs. R. G. McClamrock as hostess.

The home was beautifully decorated with scenes of the nativity, lighted Christmas tree and candles with a background of Christmas music by recording. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Bill Rice. Each person brought a gift and placed under the tree to be exchanged at the end of the program.

Mrs. Sam Boger was leader of the program "Christmas in the New Testament" She was assisted by Mrs. Ruth Cail, Mrs. Bruce Hinkle and Mrs. McClamrock. After the singing of several carols, guests were invited to the dining room to enjoy a covered gift dinner. The exchange of gifts furnished much gaiety and the end of a pleasant Christmas party. Good wishes and words of appreciation were expressed. Thirty-five guests attended.

Veterans Corner

Here are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to questions from former servicemen and their families:

Q—My father, no longer living, had a total of 30 days of military service, all during World War I, and he had no service-connected disability. My mother has no income of her own. Is she eligible for a pension from the VA?

A—No, thirty days of service is not long enough to meet the requirement for such a pension.

Q—Can wives and children of veterans be treated in VA hospitals?

A—Not unless they are also veterans in their own right. However, VA hospitals may furnish emergency treatment to anyone, to save a life, but payment must be made to cover the cost of the care.

Q—When will training under the GI Bill end for Korea veterans?

A—No education or training under the Korea GI Bill will be furnished beyond eight years after a veteran's discharge or release from active service, or the end of his basic service period, whichever is earlier. In no event will education and training be furnished after January 31, 1965.

Q—Do eligible incompetent veterans personally receive checks from the VA?

A—No, the VA Guardianship Service administers the financial affairs of eligible incompetent veterans, including aid to their dependents.
