BRENDA ANN BENSON

Benson - Lentz

Frank Benson of Washington, D.C., has announced the engagement of his only daughter, Brenda Ann, to William David Lentz, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William David Lentz of the Charlotte Highway.

The wedding is being planned for October 17 at Rowan Mills Methodist Church, Salisbury.

Woodleaf Church is Scene of Smith-Withers Wedding

Woodleaf Methodist Church was the setting of the wedding Sunday evening of Miss Elizabeth Anne Withers and Addison Neal Smith. The Rev. Earl A. Cook, the Rev. Frank S. Stough, and the Rev. Harry S. Thomas officiated at the 7:30 ceremony.

Mrs. G. L. Lynch, vocalist, and Mrs. Wayne Koontz, organist, gave a program of wedding music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Roscoe Withers of 709 Yadin Avenue, Spencer. She is a graduate of North Rowan High School where she was the first president of the student body association. She is also a graduate of the Rowan Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. She received her nurse's registration in the fall of 1962 at which time she made the highest score in North Carolina on the state boards. She has worked as a staff nurse at the Methodist Hospital, Houston, Texas. She is presently employed as a head nurse at the Rowan Memorial Hospital.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Robert Lee Smith of Route 1, Woodleaf, and the late Mr. Smith. He received an AB degree in speech from Pfeiffer College. He also studied at the University of N. C. where he was active in the Carolina Playmakers. He has done graduate work in drama and speech at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro this fall. He is a member of Alpha Psi Omega, an honorary dramatic fraternity and is music director of the Woodleaf Methodist Church.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, B. R. Withers, Jr. of Hollywood, Florida. She wore a formal gown of ivory silk over taffeta fashioned with a portrait neckline and short sleeves, and a bellshaped skirt which extended into a chapel train. The dress had appliques of Alencon lace. A double crown of pearls held her bouffant well of silk illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, fleur d'amour, butterfly orchids, centered with a white orchid, and tied with satin streamers with love knots.

Miss Margaret Dianne Kee-see of Spencer was maid of honor for her aunt, Mrs. Larry Dixon Peeler of Greensboro, Miss Nancy Elizabeth Small, and Miss Brenda Sue Wise of China Grove, cousin of the bride were bridesmaids. They wore formal gowns of emerald green brocade designed with fitted bodice and floating back panels. They carried cascade bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums, gold Fuji mums, and gold and bronze pompons with ivy.

John A. Ritchie Jr. of Greensboro, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Richard Lee Smith of Roanoke, Va. was best man for his brother, James Ellis of Tarboro, Clyde Smith, Jr. of Raleigh, and Gary Steve Wise were ushers.

RECEPTION

The women of the choir of the Woodleaf Methodist Church gave a reception immediately following the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church. Each window held arrangements of greenery. The bridal party received between columns entwined with ivy.

The refreshment table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of gold snapdragons and gold and bronze chrysanthemums.

Those assisting were Mrs. Ben Knox White, Mrs. Ralph Gardner, Mrs. R. C. Perrell, Mrs. Tommy Barber, Mrs. Kenneth Chaffin, Miss Annie Faye McClintock and Miss Libby Benson.

The bride wore a navy suit, patent and white accessories, and an orchid for her traveling costume.

After a wedding trip to Canada the couple will be at home after September 5th at Route 1, Woodleaf.

Ridenhour-Morrison Wedding

Miss Mary Susan Ridenhour and Donald Ray Morrison were married Friday evening, August 27th, at 6:00 by the Reverend Charles M. Murray at Cooleemee Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Murray presented a program of wedding music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis E. Ridenhour of Pine Ridge Road. She is a senior at Davie High School.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Morrison of Route 1, Woodleaf. He is employed at Statesville.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street length dress of white embossed peau de soie with a fitted bodice and a scoop neckline, long sleeves ending in calla points over the hands, and a bell shaped skirt. Her headpiece was a peau de soie pillbox holding a bouffant veil of illusion. She carried a white Bible topped with white Georgianna Orchids with lace and satin streamers.

Miss Jo Anne Ridenhour was maid of honor. Mrs. Vivian Settle was matron of honor. Both wore blue dresses with matching headpieces and carried nosegays of white mums. Ronnie Atwell was best man. J. B. Collins and Dee Atwell were ushers. All are residents of Route 1, Woodleaf. The couple will make their home at 64 Watt Street, Cooleemee.

CAKE CUTTING

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Ridenhour, aunt and uncle of the bride, were hosts on Thursday night at a cake cutting in the fellowship building of the church following the rehearsal.

The refreshment table was overlaid with a wedding cloth, centered with an arrangement of white carnations and yellow miniature roses, flanked by yellow tapers in silver candlesticks. The three-tiered wedding cake, decorated in yellow and white, and bridal figurines was at one end of the table. A crystal punch bowl was at the other end.

For the occasion, the bride was attired in a yellow two-piece polished cotton dress and wore a corsage of white carnations. Assisting the hosts in entertaining were Mrs. Margie Dedmon, Mrs. Frances Ridenhour and Mrs. Wilma Osborn.

Our JJ Seniors are perfect for the little girl whose feet are grown-up.

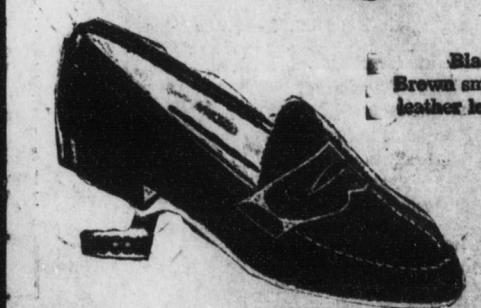

Grown, yet still growing, she wears the same size (4-10) shoes of her mother. Here's the problem: The girl at this stage needs a shoe that offers extra space at heels, toes and insteps for vital growth. She gets these special fitting qualities in JJ Seniors. Come in and see our JJ Seniors. We have them in an unusually complete range of styles and sizes.
