Congressman James T. Broyhill Announces Office Hours

Fillowing his long-standing practice of visiting each of the counties in the 9th District as often as possible, Con-gressman James T. Broyhill announced in Washington today that he will hold office hours in Davie County on Saturday, May 7th, at the Court House in Mocksville from 8:30 A. M. to 11:30 A. M.

"Since the Easter Recess of the Congress," Congressman Broyhill explained, "I have been devoting available time to office hours and I am glad that my duties in Washington permit this visit to Davie County next Saturday"

These conferences are intended to afford residents an opportunity to discuss pending legislation and personal problems they may be having in their dealing with the Federal government with their Congressman in Wash-

"Discussions of this kind with many hundreds of people in the past," the Cong-ressman declared, "have been very informative and I feel have deepened my understanding of issues and the wishes resent in the nation's Capi-tal."

motions and transfer of teachers and the closing of a school all came before the Davie Board of Education during its monthly meeting this week.

A total of 4,120 students are pre-registered to attend the county schools next year according to Superintendent James Everidge.

The students were assigned to the schools requested provided the student was eligible to attend the particular

Of the 4,120 students, there are 3,492 white students and 628 Negro pupils.

A breakdown of students registered to attend the various schools next year in-cludes: Central Davie, 507 students, all Negro; Cooleemee Elementary, 723 Students which includes 54 Negro pupils; Davie County High School, 1085 students of which 28 are Negro; Farmington Elementary, 212 students of whom 6 are Negro; Shady Grove, 398 pupils of which eight are Negro; Smith Grove, 231 students of which two are Negro; and William R. Davie, white pupils.

It was announced that the board took official action to close the North Cooleemee Elementary School effective at the end of the present school year.

Everidge said the action was necessary due to the number of children requested to attend the school next year. He said there were 112 students enrolled this year and only four teachers. Only 75 requested to be assigned to the same school next year. Everidge said all students at the school have been given their choice of attending any other county school. The teachers will be reassigned to other schools in the Davie County School System. Everidge said that there is a possibility that the building may be used for special educational purposes for the en-tire county school system, and if so it would operate under jurisdiction of the Cooleemee Elementary School.

Several promotions and transfers also were announced by the board. Charles J. Wells, general supervisor, was named director of federal projects. A. M. Kiser Jr., principal of Farm-ington Elementary School, was named to replace Wells general supervisor.

Vernon Thompson, princi-pal of Smith Grove, Elementary School, was named prin-cipal of Central Davie High School. He replaces C. K. Har graves who has resigned to

Farmers Should

Office under two new programs now in effect. Davie County Forester Paul J Bonardi, quoted a recent CONSERVATION N E E D SURVEY showing that proximately 45 per cent of the land area of Davie County is in woodland. Generally, this area is not in condition to produce wood products to fill the demand expected by the year 1975. An expected 30 year 1975. An expected per cent increase in demand for forest products will have to be met by the same, or slightly less, woodland acreage. The present woodland ac-reage of Davie County will have to be improved to produce this additional wood. After this survey was made the Southern Pine Beetle epidemic hit Davie County. Now our timber shortage is more acute than ever.

To replenish our pine resources, the North Carolina Forest Service is operating a custom planting and hardwood control crew. This crew is comprised of a crew fore-man, with five honor grade inmates from the North Carolina Prison Department. This system enables a landowner to establish forest plantations at much less expense than would normally be incurred using other hired labor. Loblolly pine is being rec-ommended to plant on dryer sites, which may be old fields, cutover areas, or cull hardwood areas. Suitable hardwood species may be planted on sites with good soil, however. Loblolly Pine is a very desirable tree species for reforestration, both from the standpoint of timber production and farm beautification. It is relatively fast growing and relatively beetleresistant. ### "God Is Alive"

God is alive! This is a very radical statement in our contemporary world. The God is dead movement has flourished with many speeches and articles on this theology. One theologian states, "God died with Christ on the Cross

The deciding point not given is that though Christ died he was resurrected, and this is the basis of Christianity. Instead of God being dead in Christ, he is alive through Christ.

Starting with the evening services of Sunday, May 8, 1966, at 7:30 p.m. and concluding May 15, 1966 at Jerusalem Baptist Church the idea of a living God will be explored through the week by Rev. George Bowman. Rev. Bowman is now serving as Assoc. Director of the Pastoral Care Department of North Carolina Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem. He is the former pastor of Faith Baptist Church, South Boston, Virginia. He received his B. A. degree from the University of Richmond and his B. D. degree from Union Theological Seminary at Richmond.

"God is alive." No one realizes this more than Reverend Bowman in his work at the hospital. The alive God lets miracles be proformed through medicine as well as in our lives. This transformation of our lives will take place next week in
