

WHERE THE ACTION IS — That's before the Grandstand at the North Carolina State Fair the week of October 10-15. Above are pictures of chill-bringing thrills of the fast-moving Jack Kochman Thrill Show built around the 15 death-defying features of the "Kochman Hell Drivers". Dave Merrifield stunts on the helicopter-trapeze from 35 to 1000 feet in the air; the Great Eric stunts and clowns on the high-wire; Chal dives thru a circle of 36 razor-sharp knives; The Flying Artons will attempt the three-and-one-half somersault from the flying-trapeze; "Pluto" a Lippizan of Royal White, does the Capriole; and Les Bleu combine smart comedy with a cycling act that is solid entertainment.

Social Security

"Filing social security claims promptly has never been more important than it is now," Robert C. Thomas, district manager of social security in Salisbury, said today.

"While benefit claims may be retroactive for a year or more, the enrollment period for medical insurance is greatly restricted," he said. "Protection under the 'doctor bill' part of Medicare can start on the first day of the month you attain age 65 only if you apply for it in one of the three months before the month you reach 65."

"This restriction, incidentally, does not apply to hospital insurance; it applies only to medical insurance," he said.

The first enrollment period set by law covers seven months: the three months immediately before the month of attaining age 65, that month, and three months immediately thereafter. However, if the application is filed in the month of attainment or later, the effective date is postponed one to 3 months.

If application for medical insurance is not filed during the first enrollment period, protection cannot be obtained until the next general enrollment period, which will be higher, and coverage is not effective until July 1st of the following year.

Even though the applicant is still working, a claim for hospital and medical insurance can be approved whether or not any retirement benefits can be paid. Moreover, with the increase in allowable earnings, many applicants will receive some cash benefits as soon as a claim is filed.

Information and help in preparing the necessary application forms may be had from the social security office at 105 Corriher Avenue, Salisbury. Office hours have been extended to 9:00 P.M. on Friday nights for the convenience of those who find it difficult to visit that of-
