

"MISS MARY'S" VILLAGE OF YESTERDAY—Unless you know some of these sincere folk, personally, you wouldn't believe that the people of an attraction at the North Carolina State Fair open its daily operation with a prayer service. Yet, since the Old Village was started in 1951, its founder, Miss Mary Cornwell, has led the exhibitors in a special daily devotional each morning prior to the ten o'clock opening of the Village. October 10-15 will be the 21st annual presentation of the marvelous displays of handicraft under the direction of Miss Cornwell, who has been largely responsible for the re-birth of the craft industries in the State's western counties.

COMET POSES BIG THREAT

Martinsville, Va. -- Between 80 and 100 of NASCAR's finest drivers and cars will be on hand at Martinsville Speedway next week for the 11th annual Old Dominion 500 and its preliminary events. And one man who is sure to attract a lot of the crowds attention is Darel Dieringer of Charlotte, North Carolina, in his '66 Mercury Comet. He brought the Mercury fans to their feet when he won a 250-miler at Weaverville, N. C., and he grabbed the headlines last week when he captured the Southern 500. Dieringer's chances for a victory in the 250-mile 500-lap race appear the best in his career previously his best finish here was third in the '63 Va. 500. With the 100-lap modified and sportsman race scheduled on Saturday, September 24th, there may be a traffic jam on pit road. Practice gets underway on Thursday, September 22, with the first 20 starting positions in the Old Dominion 500 up for grabs in qualifying on Friday, September 23. On Saturday, September 24, a 20-lap qualifying race will determine the other 20 starting positions for the $25,190 event while the modified and sportsman cars will qualify for their 40 starting spots and then run the 100-lap feature. Ray Hendrick, of Richmond, Va., a 19-race winner this season, is bidding for the NASCAR national modified championship and will oppose such drivers as Bobby Allison, Lee Roy Yarbrough, Perk Brown, Sonny Hutchins in the Wood Brothers' modified, Paul Radford and many others. Hendrick won the 50-lap race here in April and will be the man to beat in the expanded feature. With such drivers as Richard Petty, David Pearson, Marvin Panch, Ned Jarrett, James Hylton, Tom Pistone and Curtis Turner in the field and late entries anticipated from several more big names, the race should be one of the most competitive of the season. The 11th annual Old Dominion 500 starts at 1 P.M. (EDT) on Sunday, September 25. About 250,000 new cases of acute rheumatic fever and 140,000 cases of rheumatic heart disease are reported nationally each year, according to the North Carolina Heart Association.
