

CRAWFORDS CELEBRATE 50th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Cooleemee -- The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Grier Crawford, Sr., near Cooleemee, was the setting of a lovely reception on Sunday afternoon, November 27, 1966, from two-thirty until five o'clock, given by the Son and Daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, honoring their parents on their 50th wedding anniversary. The Sisters of Mrs. Crawford assisted with the reception.

The home was beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, carnations, roses and contrasting snap-dragons. The guests were welcomed by Mrs. Andy Price of Charlotte, who directed them to the guest register which was in charge of Mrs. Carl Deal of Woodleaf and Mrs. Phillip Clement of Raleigh. This register has a sentimental value to Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, because it was used at their wedding fifty years ago.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, Mariola, Mr. and Mrs. Giles Myers of Greenville, South Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wainio of Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harding of Charlotte and John Crawford, Jr., of Falls Church, Va.

The guests were greeted in the den where a lovely mantel arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums, gladiolus and roses was a gift from the Mocksville Chapter of O.E.S. From the den the guests were directed to the dining room. The table was indeed a picture of beauty, spread with a gold cloth covered with net at each corner of the table small golden bells were placed. The lovely floral arrangement on the table was from Mrs. Crawford's Sunday School Class, the arrangement was flanked by tall brass candle sticks which have been in Mrs. Crawford's family for four generations, these candles were also used at their wedding.

A three tiered wedding cake topped with golden bells and the gold figure 50 graced the end of the table. Mrs. Foy Cope and Mrs. Hubert Nolley, Jr. poured punch. Goodbys were said to Mrs. Price. Around two hundred and fifty relatives and friends called during the afternoon. Those from out of town and county were: Miss Mary Hudgins, Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Price, Miss Mary Price, Charlotte Mrs. R.

O. Crawford, Mrs. J. B. Pearson, Miss Christine Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Major Whitesides, Dr. and Mrs. R. N.
