The appointment of Mr. Brock as judge was made Monday by the Davie County Board of Commissioners also appointed Lester P. Martin as prosecuting attorney.

Mr. Brock is a graduate of the University of North Carolina Law School and is completing his fourth year as prosecuting attorney. He has served as county attorney for the past six years. He is a veteran of the Korean War and a member of the Methodist Church. He is married to the former Mary Martin. They have three children and reside on Jericho Road Mocksville.

Mr. Martin is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and the Wake Forest Law School. He has been practicing law in Mocksville for the past ten years. A veteran of World War II, he served two terms in the North Carolina General Assembly as Davie County Representative. He is married to the former Elizabeth Weaver. They have two sons and reside on North Main Street Mocksville. He is a member of the Mocksville Baptist Church, Masonic Lodge and Rotary Club.

Rev. C. E. B. Robinson To Be Honored

Next Sunday, December 11 the Rev. C. E. B. Robinson will preach at the 9:30 A.M. service at the Church of the Good Shepherd. There will be no service at the Ascension Church in Fork since this will be a unified service. Mr. Robinson served the Church in our county for fifteen years. A good many members and friends have honored him by giving Communion candles and flower vases to the Good Shepherd Church. Since Mr. Robinson served both churches, there will be a united service with combined choir. Following the Holy Communion Service, and the dedication of the Altar Ware, a reception will be held in the Parish Hall.

H. D. Club

The Cooleeemee Home Demonstration Club will meet on Saturday, December 17th, at 6:00 P. M. at the home of Mrs. James Alexander. This will be a Christmas party and covered dish supper. There will be an exchange of gifts. Please note the change of the day of the meeting.

father's birth place, which was one of her first to be done in pen and ink. Mrs. Ford is married and has one son, David Charles.

Christmas Party Joins S. Citizens-Civic Club

On Tuesday evening at 7:30 approximately 100 members of the Cooleeemee Civic Club, their husbands and the Senior Citizens Club met at the Recreation Center. The Civic Club is the sponsor of the Senior Citizens Club, and was in charge of the entertaining.

Upon arrival the guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jerome, Mrs. Fred Pierce, Mrs. Charles Spencer and Mrs. Buddy Alexander.

To open the program, the group sang, "Joy To The World" and Scripture by Mrs. Robert Hoyle. The welcome was given by Mrs. Fred Pierce president of the Civic Club, and the response by Mrs. Rosanna Swink, Vice-President of the Senior Citizens Club.

A Christmas poem was read by Mrs. W. N. Hasty. The author is a former Cooleeemee resident, Mrs. A. A. Kyles.

To the delight of all, Beth Hoyle sang a medley of Christmas songs and accompanied herself at the piano, on the accordion, and then on the ukulele, and Chip Hasty, 6 years old, gave a rendition of a 60 line poem, "Twas the Night Before Christmas".

Mrs. C. L. Isley, Mrs. C. P. Spencer and Mrs. Buddy Alexander were in charge of the program.

Winning door prizes were Frank Miller, Mrs. R. G. McClamrock, M. H. Ridenhour, William Owens, Mrs. Sadie Steele, Mrs. Granville McCullough, Mrs. Tullie Grimes, E. K. Sedberry, Sam Myers won a red nightshirt with matching cap, which he modeled for the group.

Prior to the singing of carols, Granville Spry, President of the Senior Citizens, expressed appreciation to the Civic Club for organizing and planning the Club and presented gifts to Mrs. Alice Hoyle and Mrs. Margaret Seders for their contributing efforts in their behalf.

Christmas carols were led by the new recreation direction, Charles Beidler, and Mrs. Seders was at the piano.

The refreshment table was graced with lovely ornaments and punch, coffee and assorted cookies were served.

COOLEEEMEE POST NO. 54 CELEBRATES 20TH ANNIVERSARY—Cooleeemee Post No. 54, The American Legion, is celebrating its 20th Anniversary. The Post, which was chartered in 1946, is one of the largest in the State, based on population. The Post has 172 members signed for 1967 and expects to surpass 200 by the end of the year.

The Post has an excellent reputation for servicing veterans and has sponsored many projects for the benefit of the Community and for needy families. The Post annually sponsors the Miss Davie County Beauty Pageant and a Christmas distribution of gifts and food for the poor and sick. The Legion Memorial Park in North Cooleeemee is a Post project and the street signs in Cooleeemee is another Legion project, co-sponsored by the Lions Club. At the present time the street sign project is being brought up to date by replacement signs and additional ones in Cooleeemee and North Cooleeemee.

The Post will climax their celebration with a Christmas Party December 23 from 7 until 9 P.M. at the Legion Hut on the Liberty Road. A buffet style dinner will be served and everything is free for all members.

Left to right and the years they served as Commander: Front Row: L. H. Beck, the present Commander, 1949-1951, 1963-1964 and 1966-1967; Charles L. Isley, 1945-1946 and Charles E. Alexander, 1946-1948. Back Row: Harold F. Foster, 1954-1957; John R. Barber, 1953-1954; Thomas E. Vogler, 1960-1963 and 1964-1965; Charles L. Jordan, 1957-1960; and Ray F. Jordan, 1952-1953. LIBRARY NEWS

The Davie County Public Library issues a cordial invitation to the public to attend an Open House and Art Show, featuring the work of Mrs. Ann Rankin Ford, December 11, 2 to 4 p.m. in the library. Mrs. Ford was awarded first place in the Open Air Art Show sponsored by the Mocksville Woman's Club recently, and her works will remain on exhibit in the library for several weeks. This collection is composed of pieces loaned for the occasion, many privately owned.

The library is happy to own a permanent collection of pen and ink sketches, the gift of Mrs. Ford. These hang in the Davie County History Room, and the subjects include buildings in the county — dwellings, churches, a law office, medical offices, Fork Academy, and the well-known Marshmount.

On December 9, "Europe Without George" will be reviewed on WDSL Radio Station by Mrs. Knox Johnstone, who presents the regular library program each Friday morning at 10:30 a.m.
