Story Hour Children Enjoy Parties

The entire enrollment of Story Hour children was present on Monday, the 19th, for the Christmas parties held at the Recreation Center. Thirty-two children in the Morning group and thirty-one in the afternoon group came filled with the Christmas spirit and had a wonderful time, as well as their leaders, Mrs. C. W. Shepherd and Mrs. Scott Jordan.

Their room held a tall beautifully lighted tree, a Manger scene and many other pretty decorations.

Santa Claus took time out from his busy schedule to visit at each party. He gave the children candy or gum and left bags of fruit, candy and gum for them to take home. They sang several songs for him, promised to leave him refreshments on Christmas Eve and wished him a very Merry Christmas as he was leaving.

The leaders gave each child a cute little golden boot to hang on their tree at home. They also received a toy to take home.

At the afternoon party, Lynn Hodge brought cute little stockings, which her Mother had made and stuffed with candy, for each child. Debra Brooks brought Santa Lollipops and Ellen Spry brought squares of homemade Fudge for all the children.

Several mothers assisted the Leaders when it came time for refreshments, and also in putting on coats at the end of the party.

Story Hour will resume on Monday, January 9th.
