Friday will be the Big Day at Davie High School. It's homecoming with a parade, queens and an important football game with North Rowan at 8 p.m.

The day begins with a pep rally in the morning. The homecoming queen and her court will be announced. They will reign all day and will lead the parade which is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. The Journalism Class will present a plaque to the class with the best float.

The parade will start at Mocksville Elementary School and wind up somewhere on Wilkesboro Street.

Sponsors for the homecoming game will be Susie Hendricks, Susan Hendricks, Dehlia Hinkle, Betty Allen, Sherry Miller, Patsy Anderson, June Harris, Janice Cartner, Quintina Steele, Gayle Anderson, Vickie Michael, Sandra Boger, Betty Jean Hendrix and Jennie Clement.

Students will vote on the 14 sponsors. The top five will be presented to the football team, which will select the queen to be crowned at half-time.

Davie risks its second place conference spot in a tough game with third place North Rowan.

A dance will be held in the gym after the game.

Bloodmobile To Be Here October 17

The Blood Mobile will be in Cooleemee at the First Baptist Church Tuesday, October 17th from 11:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Ham Hudson, Davie County Hospital Administrator, said that blood is badly needed and that usage is equalling donations. Last month emergency calls for blood had to be placed on the radio.

History Of Davie County To Be Published In '68

James W. Wall, who taught at Cooleemee School for six years and has been at Davie High since it opened, plans to publish a complete history of Davie County from about 1750 to the present.

The book, which will be about 200 pages in length and will include pictures and an appendix, will be in print in late 1968, Mr. Wall hopes.

The book will culminate an exhaustive four-year study for the teacher. Among his sources are the Rowan County Minutes 1753-1835, Davie County Court Minutes 1836-1868, and the Davie County Commission's Minutes 1868 to the present.

Other valuable sources include the Moravian Records, Colonial and State Records of North Carolina, newspaper, periodicals and others.

Mr. Wall has done research at the Department of Archives and History in Raleigh and libraries of Rowan, Davie and the University of North Carolina.

He said also, "The extensive

Flossie Martin Collection in the Davie County Library will add much local information that would not otherwise have been known except for the efforts of Miss Martin, who spent many years gathering the information.

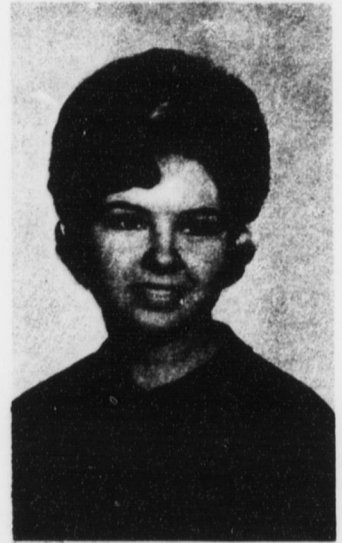

"James S. Brawley, Rowan historian and wire editor of The Salisbury Post, and a large number of other people have graciously furnished information and help."

The volume will include political, social and economic stories of the people of Davie County as well as chapters on schools, churches, towns and communities. The book will be footnoted and the sources of information shown.

Mr. Wall previously published a history of the First Presbyterian Church, Mocksville, where he is an elder.

He was born in Davie County and is married to the former Esther Mae Grier of Charlotte, now a teacher in Mocksville Middle School. They have three children, Nancy, 13; Jimmy, 12; and Carol, 10.

Mr. Wall is a graduate of Mocksville High School, Appalachian State (B.S.) and the University of North Carolina (M.A. in American History). He worked for two years in the personnel department of Erwin Mills at Cooleemee but has been a teacher for 21 years in Davie County, including six years at Cooleemee School.

Jeannie McDaniel Is Dream Girl At W. Carolina

Miss Jeannie Ellen McDaniel, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. McDaniel of 28 Erwin Street, has been selected as Dream Girl of 1967-68 by the Zeta Iota Chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha, woman's international social fraternity.

Miss McDaniel, a junior at Western Carolina University, holds the office of Secretary of the university chapter. She was presented at all WCU Homecoming Festivities by Mr. Roger Jones, a junior from Asheville and a brother of Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity. Miss McDaniel was officially presented by Mr. Jones in the Homecoming Parade, Saturday October 7 at WCU.
