McIntyre Back After Year in Vietnam

ROBERT McINTYRE arrived home Sunday after spending the past year in Vietnam. He will be spending a 30 day furlough with his wife, the former Brenda Campbell of Coolesmee. Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim McIntyre of Rt. 1 Woodleaf.

MR. AND MRS. BILL BAGGETT and son, Bee, of Petersburg, Virginia, spent Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Baggett's mother, Mrs. Lila Wagner Cope of Coolesmee.

BRENDA McINTYRE was treated and released at Rowan Memorial hospital for contusions of the forehead, following an automobile accident in Salisbury on Friday. She was a passenger in a car operated by Donna Long Trexler of 4 Grove Street which crashed at Innes and Depot streets at 6 p.m. Her car struck another vehicle operated by Connie Mack Benson of 307 Heilig Ave., Salisbury. Damage to Mrs. Trexler's car was estimated at between $300 and $400 damage. No one was seriously injured.

MRS. FRANCES CLICK accompanied Mrs. Phyllis Summers and children to Colonial Beach, Virginia, last weekend, visiting relatives of Mrs. Summers. They also toured parts of Maryland.

MR. AND MRS. BARRY GREGORY and daughter, Paige, of Huntsville, Alabama spent Thanksgiving holidays with Barry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gregory of Route 4, Mocksville.

MRS. LIBBY GALES and Mrs. Vanita Shore returned home Sunday night after spending the past several days touring New York. They joined the Madison Tour upon their arrival, which made the trip even more interesting and enjoyable.

THANKSGIVING DINNER guests of Mr. and Mrs. Romje Gregory of Center Street were Mr. and Mrs. Doug Gregory and daughter, Lois, Mr. and Mrs.

Sonny Gregory, and children, Gary, Kay, Jane and Mike of Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gregory and son Calvin of Goldsboro and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Dedmon of Pine Ridge. Mr. and Mrs. Pink Foster of Lexington and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ijames of Pine Ridge visited the Gregorays in the late afternoon.

MRS. HOWARD PHELPS remains a patient at Presbyterian hospital in Charlotte and is slowly improving.

MRS. ETHEL CAMPBELL of Georgetown, Washington, D. C. spent the Thanksgiving Holidays with her sister, Mrs. Bill White of Coolesmee. On Saturday night Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Craig Snead and Mr. and Mrs. Bill White went out to dinner in honor of Carolyn and Bill's 28th wedding anniversary.

PVT. FRED ELLIS of Fork Polk, Louisiana spent Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ellis, Jr.
