A Gift For Mom

Mrs. Lillis Penniger of the Needmore Road just couldn't say no when her son, Dana, 13, brought "Snoopy" home. It was her Mother's Day present.

Dana had asked his mother earlier if he could have some rabbits and she refused. Then just before Mothers Day, he heard about some cute little guinea pigs for sale. He just couldn't pass up such a bargain—only 50 cents for such a nice present.

On several occasions, Mrs. Penniger talked to Dana about giving "Snoopy" away. "But, mother," he always answered, "You just can't give him away. That was your Mother's Day present."

Well, what's a mother to do?

Terry Young, 17, Killed In Wreck Here

Terry Paul Young, 17, a student at Davie High and resident of the Riverdale Road on Route 4, Mocksville, was killed Friday night in a car wreck.

The car in which he was riding crashed into a bridge abutment and rammed two rail sections through the car. Young was sitting in the middle of the car's front seat.

The accident occurred at the bridge on the Gladstone Road near the town limit.

When the car struck the wooden bridge railing, one rail was driven through the right front of the vehicle, striking Young in the leg and back. Another railing was slammed through the car's windshield and struck Young in the head.

The driver of the vehicle was identified as Randall Wayne Jones, 17, of Rt. 4, Mocksville. He was not injured.

Another passenger, Mack Whitaker, about 17 of the same address, was injured and was admitted to Davie County Hospital with leg and back injuries.

Investigating patrolman A. C. Stokes quoted the car's driver as saying he met an oncoming car as he approached the narrow bridge. He pulled to the right but was unable to get the vehicle back to the center of the road in order to avoid hitting the bridge.

Patrolman Stokes said there was no evidence of excessive speed.

No charges have been filed pending completion of the investigation.

A student at Davie County High School, he was the son of Wayne and Katherine Curlee Young. He was born on Nov. 20, 1950 in Davie County.

Survivors, in addition to the parents, include four brothers, Curlee of Winston-Salem, Jan of Mocksville, Steven of Vietnam, and Kim Young of the home; two sisters, Mrs. Kathy Simmons and Miss Olivia Young, both of the home; and maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Isom Curlee of Cooleemee.

'Coachmen' Entertain Two Clubs

By MRS. E. C. TATUM, SR.

The past week can be called "Senior Citizens Week."

Beginning on Tuesday evening, they were entertained by the sponsoring Civics Club along with the husbands of the Civics Club members at a party. It was an enjoyable occasion. Mr. Charles Beidler led the group singing and Mr. Joel Pate read the Christmas story from Luke's gospel. A local string quartet, composed of Chuck Spencer, Bill Jones, Jack Jerome and Bill Chandler was quite humorous.

The Coachmen Barber Shop quartet, composed of Terry Fisher of Greenville, S. C., Dick Martin Charlotte, Bob Dockham of Salisbury and G. H. Spry of Salisbury, gave a most entertaining program.

Door prizes were won by John Gabbart, Mrs. Rosanna Swink, Mrs. Harmon McMahan, Mrs. C. R. Ridenhour and Mr. Frank Penniger. Prizes were also awarded to the following: Mr. Arthur Howard, oldest man present; Mrs. J. D. House, oldest woman present and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Penniger, married the longest.

On Sunday afternoon the Erwin Mills annual Christmas party was held at the mill. There was a tour of the plant, refreshments were served and toys were given to all employees' children under 12 years of age. The Senior Citizens were also invited to attend. In spite of a down pour of rain, many were able to observe the many changes and improvements that had been made recently.

Monday was the annual Christmas dinner provided by the club members of the Civics Club, held in the fellowship hall of the Baptist Church. All ministers in the area were invited, husband of those serving, the mill officials and their wives. There are lots of new people in town, so Mr. Beidler introduced them to the 92 members and visitors.

Miss Mariola Crawford and her Junior Chorus, with Mrs. Edith Waller at the piano, gave a program of Christmas music. The club looks forward to this every Christmas. This year's performance was most enjoyable.

The next regular meeting day will be on Monday, January 8, 1968.
