Gary Richardson Is Nominated For Military Academy

Gary Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Harding Richardson of Cooleemee, is one of six young men selected by Congressman James T. Broyhill to compete for the Ninth District's appointment to the United States Military Academy at West Point.

He was selected by Congressman Broyhill in district-wide competition. Gary is a senior at Davie High where he is a member of the Spanish and Photography clubs. He is employed by the Cooleemee Drug Company.

Congressman Broyhill explained that his nominations were based solely upon merit established through a scholastic examination conducted at his request by the United States Civil Service Commission. "I have now instructed the Military Academy," Broyhill stated, "that the final selection should be determined on the basis of scores obtained in the final entrance examinations to be scheduled by the Army soon."

The successful candidate will report to the Academy at West Point to begin his studies in June.

'Dead-Eye' Spry Gives Big Hunters A Lesson

Walt Shoaf and Ross Jones, two of the town's biggest hunters, have been trying to get Grady Spry Sr. to go hunting with them all winter.

They kept telling him how much game they were killing and how they'd show him how it was done. Well, Grady finally got tired of listening to 'em talk so he went.

Grady came back with three rabbits. The big-time game hunters returned to an empty pot.

(Ed. Note: If Grady won't give 'em a rabbit, we'll bet Sherrill Munday would let 'em have one of those possums he's been trying to give away for the past six months.)

"O! dead-eye," said Walt, shaking his head in disbelief. "That's the first time Grady's been hunting in 50 years and to think that he came home with all the game!"
