

Cooleemee Journal

62nd Year
No. 18

Cooleemee, N. C.
Wednesday, May 1, 1968

20 Pages
10 Cents

Local Races Feature School Board, GOP County Commission

DISTRICT and STATE RACES

On Page 5.

Davie County Republicans will vote Saturday to select three nominees for the county commission from a field of six candidates.

Candidates are Charles (Buddy) Alexander, Samuel L. Daywalt, Fred O. Ellis, I. H. Jones, Dr. Francis W. Slate and Clay Tutterow.

Other local GOP and Democratic office seekers are unopposed.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

In the only other contested local race, two members will be elected to the school board in a non-partisan election among five candidates.

Candidates are Claude Hicks, Hudson Hoyle, Benny Naylor, Allen Webb and Booker T. Williams.

Jerry Call Takes Gemology Job In New York

Jerry Call, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Call, returned home from Los Angeles, California April 18 after receiving his degree in gemology.

He has accepted a position with the Gem Trade Laboratories, which is associated with the laboratories in Los Angeles, on Fifth Avenue in New York City. Jerry will begin his new job on May 1, and will be teaching and grading gem stones from all over the world. He plans to move his family, now living in Hickory, to New York at the end of school, around June 1.

Play Ball!

... And Jeffrey McCrary, 19 month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William McCrary of Franklin, is all ready for it. Young, old and plenty of folks in between have a big time playing sand lot ball at the ball park. To see some of your friends in "action," please flip to page 3. (Photos by James Barringer).

5 Hurt In Wreck At Greasy Corner; $1400 In Damages

Four people were admitted to the Davie Hospital and a fifth treated and released after a bad wreck at Greasy Corner Saturday afternoon about 2:45.

Admitted to the hospital were:

Elizabeth Rachel Shaw, of Route 1, Mocksville, one of the drivers;

Alan Ray Link, 28, of Salisbury;

Paul Parker, 35, of Statesville;

Larry Rachels, 18, of Rt. 2 Harmony.

Judith Ann Taylor of Mocksville, driver of one car, was treated and released.

Patrolman Randall Beane said the Taylor car was going north on Highway 601 and attempted to make a left turn. The car was hit by the Shaw car which was heading south on 601. Judith Ann Taylor was cited for failing to see if a move could be made with safety.

Patrolman Beane estimated damage at $900 to the Taylor car, a 1961 Chevrolet, and at $500 to the Shaw car, a 1962 Volkswagen.

The patrolman also said he believed that none of the injuries would have occurred had the passengers been wearing seat belts and shoulder harnesses.

Inside Your Journal

POLITICS ... Many advertisements supporting favorite candidates will be found in today's Journal. In addition, the Journal lists candidates in contested state and district races on Page 5, along with pictures of several candidates who have visited the center.

PLAY BALL ... A sandlot baseball game at the ball park is featured in a picture layout on Page 3 today.

TRACK STARS ... Three Rebel track men win conference honors. Pictures and stories on Page 12.

TODAY'S KWIZ ... What's your favorite vacation spot? See the places your friends and neighbors have selected on page 18.

Young Politicians

Politics may be hot and heavy for some folks but they were just plain fun for these youngsters Sunday. They waved posters at passing cars and tacked political signs on doors. Why, they didn't know and didn't care. It just seemed like a good way to pass a Sunday afternoon. In fact, they didn't even know for whom they were campaigning. Pictured waving at passing cars are Vincent Bailey, Bill Bailey, Mark Bailey, Kathy Jordan, Vicki Jordan and Donna Jordan.