

Cooleemee Journal

62nd Year
No. 37

COOLEEMEE, N. C.
Wednesday, September 25, 1968

16 Pages
10 Cents

Davie Cheerleaders

Janet Hoyle, vivacious daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Hoyle, leads cheers for the Davie Rebels atop a pyramid of cheerleaders. Also shown are, left to right, first row, Linda Bowden, Teresa Cook and Annette Eckerd; second row, Betty Ferebee, Debbie Lankford and Marsha Lakey; third row, Patsy Anderson and Debbie McDaniel. (Photo by James Barringer)

Methodist Church Has Grand-Sounding Organ

A grand-sounding new organ can be heard now at the Cooleemee United Methodist Church paid for out of contributions and gifts made over the past two years.

The young people of the church started a memorial fund two years ago in memory of the late Dick Everhardt who had been a faithful church and choir member for many years.

Now, those two years of patient saving have paid off.

Installation of the Allen Organ was begun on Saturday, Sept. 7. The first chord was played at 12:30 a.m. Sunday.

It was another week before the organ was used in regular worship services due to adjustments having to be made.

But now, it is a regular part of church services thanks to the donations, pledges, and memorial gifts from many members of the church.

Miss Mariola Crawford, organist, and Mrs. Chuck Beidler, choir director, make beautiful music with the new organ.

Womanless Wedding Is October 5

Final plans were made Monday by the Senior Citizens Club for the trip to the fair at Winston-Salem on Oct. 10. Everyone is to meet at the Center at 10:30 a.m. to board buses for the trip.

Mrs. Charles Beidler is still taking reservations for the trip. Those wishing to go should call her at 294-4351. Everyone will carry or buy his lunch.

A rehearsal time was set for the Womanless Wedding which will be held at the Cooleemee School auditorium on the evening of Oct. 5.

We were sorry to learn that Mrs. Nora Riddle had the misfortune to break a wrist. Get well cards were sent to Miss Victoria Byerly, who is still in the hospital, and Mrs. W. D. Painter who is confined to bed at home.

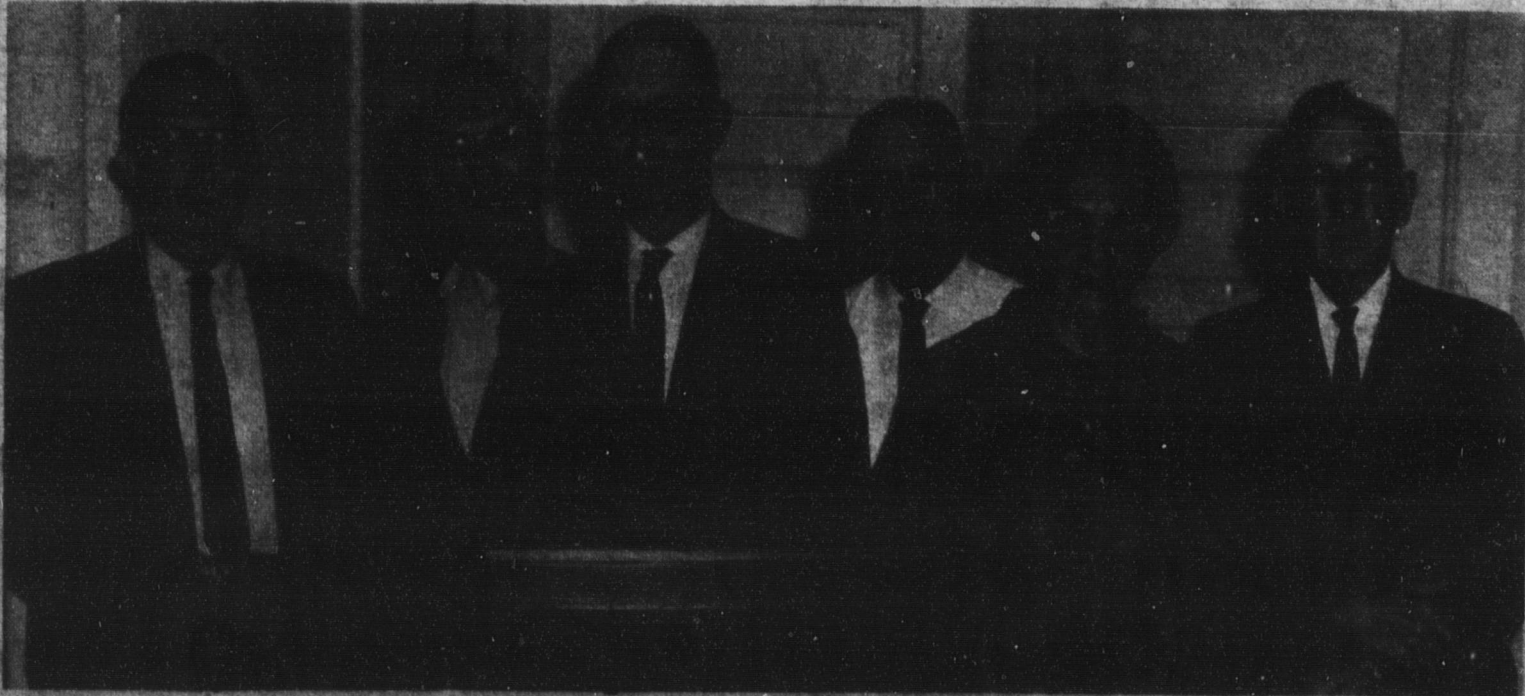

Mrs. Godby brought a lovely arrangement of flowers. Happy birthday was sung to members having birthdays in September.

There were 69 persons present for the meeting including one new member, Mrs. Edna Eaton. Mrs. Alice Beidler of the Civic Club led the program.

After singing "The More We Get Together" coffee and homemade pound cake was enjoyed. Cakes were furnished by Mrs. Betty Murphy, Mrs. M. H. Ridenhour, Mrs. Lolley Grimes and Mrs. Floyd Mitchel.

Bake Sale Friday

The women of the Cooleemee United Methodist Church will hold a bake sale on Friday, September 27 at 2 p.m. in the Cooleemee Shopping Center.

Senior Citizens Officers

The newly elected officers for the Senior Citizens were installed at the regular meeting on Monday, September 23, at the Cooleemee Recreation Center. They are, left to right, Sid Benson, assistant treasurer; William Owen, treasurer; Monroe Ridenhour, president; Grady Spry, song leader; Mrs. E.C. Tatum Sr., club reporter and assistant secretary; C. W. Shepherd, Chaplain. Absent when picture was taken, Granville Spry, vice president; Mrs. Rosanna Swink, secretary.