Mental Health Clinic

Doctor John W. Varner, director of Mental Health Clinic of Davidson County, will meet with the Davie County Association for Retarded Children on Tuesday night, October 15th.

Dr. Varner will explain the operation of the Clinic in Davidson County and explain the necessary steps to begin such a clinic in Davie County. It is the hopes of the Davie County Association that a Mental Health Clinic can be organized in our county.

Any persons interested in this field are cordially invited to attend the meeting which will be held in the county office building in Mocksville at 7:30 p.m.

Susan Hendrix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hendrix.

Friday night during the halftime ceremonies of the homecoming football game, Miss Susan Hendrix was crowned Homecoming Queen '68-'69.

The first runner up was Janet Hoyle; second runner up, Hilda Bennett; third runner-up, Debbie Lankford; and fourth runner up was Debbie McDaniel.

After the game there was a homecoming dance held in the gym. The Cheesman, a combo from Winston-Salem, played. Theme for the evening was "The Wild, Wild West". People attending the dance seemed to enjoy seeing old friends and most lingered until closing time at 11:30 p.m.

A pep rally was held on the football field Friday during second period to arouse school spirit. During the pep rally the winners of the classroom projects for homecoming were announced.

Miss Bogg's homeroom received first place. The theme was "Spray the Raiders". Miss Wall's homeroom won second place and Mr. Tyner's room won third place.

Each member of Miss Bogg's homeroom received free passes to the football game.

The journalism class presented the Spanish Club with a plaque during halftime activities at the game for having entered the best float in the homecoming parade. The theme of their float was "Kick the Raiders to Mexico."

The judges of the floats were: Duke Wooten, Mrs. Rufus Sanford, Dwight Jackson and Mrs. Margaret Foster.

Halloween Carnival Is Being Planned

Cooleemee Jaycees are planning a Halloween Carnival to be held Saturday, Oct. 26, at the Cooleemee School from 7 to 11 p.m.

The Carnival will include such activities as bingo, apple bobbing, horror house, grab bags, costume contest, cake walk, and many more. There will even be a Halloween Dance with the Mystics Combo from Statesville providing the entertainment.

Highlight of the Carnival will be a drawing for a 1955 Oldsmobile to be given away to some lucky ticket holder.

Benefits derived from the Carnival will go toward playground and equipment for Cooleemee School. Details on the Carnival will follow in the next several weeks.

Glenn McBride Finishes Course

Airman Glenn A. McBride, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady McBride of Rt. 3, Mocksville, has been graduated from a U.S. Air Force technical school at Lowry AFB, Colo.

He was trained as a supply inventory specialist and has been assigned to a unit of the Air Training Command at Moody AFB, Ga. The airman is a graduate of Davie County High School.

Cooleemee Soldiers Spend Day Together In Vietnam

Jimmy Scott and David "Cooter" Correll are both stationed in Vietnam about 300 miles apart. Recently Jimmy spent a couple of days in Vung Tau with Cooter.

Jimmy is now on a seven day rest and recreation leave in Okinawa and plans to see Cooter again on his return trip to An Hoa, where he is presently stationed. Jimmy has called his wife, the former Sarah Walker, a couple of times while in Okinawa and she is expecting to hear from him again today, which is their second wedding anniversary.

These boys have no problem with brown bagging, only sand bagging, as shown in the background.
