

Young Love In Autumn

Ricky Whitley, just back home after a tour of duty in Vietnam, and his wife Judy stroll arm in arm through the beautiful woodlands of the Cooleemee area. On pages 2 and 3, you may follow them through the eyes of James Barringer's camera as we venture what we believe are the best mood pictures ever published in the Journal. James follows Ricky and Judy along the picturesque rocks of the "Bull Hole," through the peaceful forests and along the shallow banks of the Yadkin.

Jaycee Halloween Carnival-Dance At School House Saturday Night

Dan Moore and Aubrey Wensell, local Jaycees, with loads of prizes for the Carnival.

A Halloween Carnival sponsored by the Cooleemee Jaycees for the benefit of playground equipment for Cooleemee School will be held on Saturday at Cooleemee School.

The event will be held from 7 to 11 p.m. with plenty of fun for adults and children of all ages. Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Adults in full Halloween costume and pre-school children will be admitted free.

There will be numerous prizes including stuffed animals, money, gag prizes and special prizes donated by civic minded merchants of Cooleemee and Mocksville.

Carnival activities will include bingo at 15 cents per card, fishing (10 cents), balloon bursting (10 cents), cake walk sponsored by the Jayettes at 15 cents per entry, costume contest at 10 cent per entry, apply bobbing (5 cents), plus many, many more.

Also, there will be a Halloween Dance with the Invaders Combo of Mocksville providing the entertainment. The dance will be held from 10-11:00 p.m. with admission being 50 cents per couple or 75 cents stag.

Highlight of the evening promises to be the drawing for a 1955 Oldsmobile that will go to some lucky ticket holder.
