

Rebs Open Here Tuesday

Ward, 4 Returnees Will Start

Sophomore Craig Ward will join four lettermen in the starting line-up as the Davie Rebels open their basketball season Tuesday night here against Albemarle.

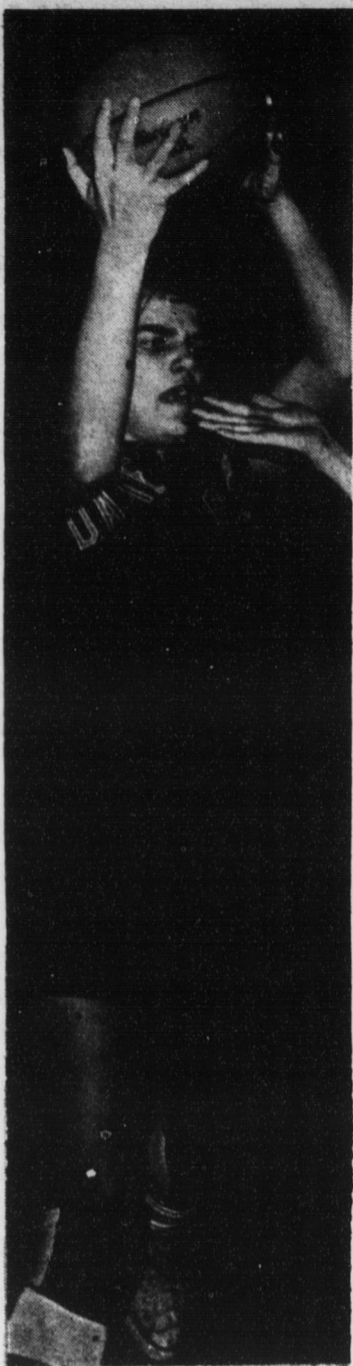

Coach Bob Henry said his starting line-up, based on practices through the first of this week, will be:

- F— Hubert West
- F — Steve Zimmerman
- C — James Ijames
- G — Ronnie Shoaf
- G — Steve Zimmerman

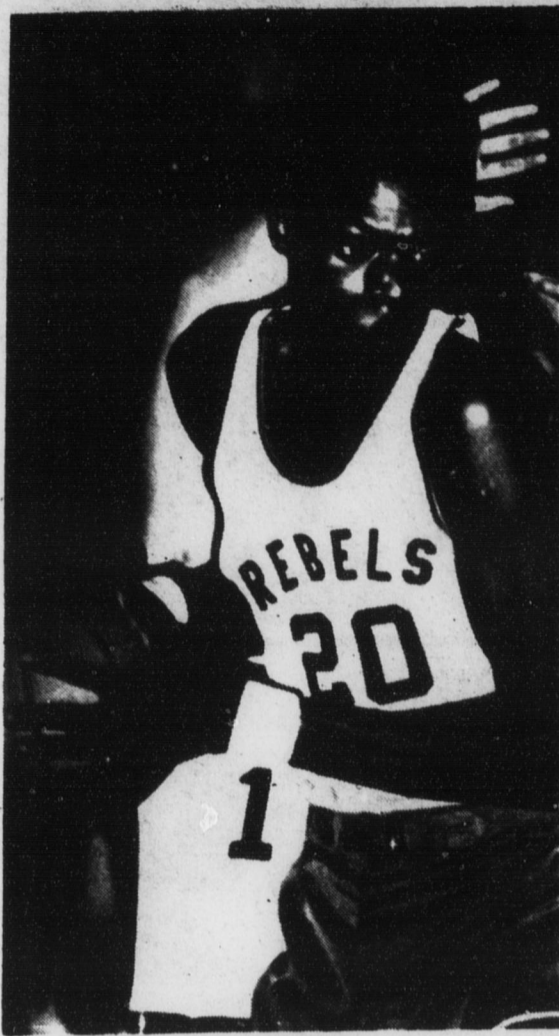

The second units probably will include Eddie Jones and Steve Beck at forwards, Doug Chappel at center, and Roger Peoples and Tony Seaford at guards.

The Rebels had a fine 14-8 season last year with Shoaf and Ijames averaging 9.6 points each. High scoring Freddie Bailey had graduated.

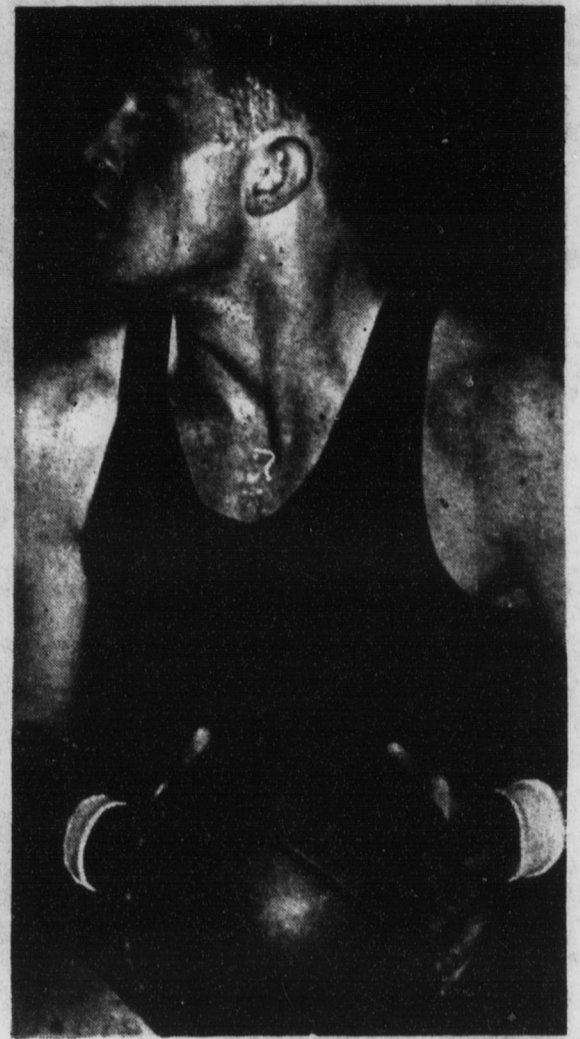

Janice Markland will pace the Davie girls again this season. She averaged 12.1 points a game and led the Rebelettes into the finals of the North Piedmont Conference playoffs.

Wall To Ijames Pass Is Winner

Coolcemee defeated West Rowan, 9-0, Saturday night to win third place in the Little League Play-offs.

Quarterback Billy Wall hit Billy Ijames with a 10-yard scoring toss for the only TD of the game. Sid Mail ran for the extra point.

The team added a safety to run the margin to nine points. Kenny Durham made a tackle in the end zone for the safety.

In the championship games, East Rowan trounced Salisbury, 45-0.

Jordan, Dunn Put Erwin In League Lead

Erwin Mills No. 1 defeated Cartex Mills, 4-0, to take over first place in the Bowlettes League last week. Pat Jordan paced Erwin with a 491 set while Barbara Dunn had the high game of 180.
