Incorporating Cooleemee

Board of Commissioners would be elected to serve in the event the incorporation was approved, and they would file with the Board of Elections.

The names of candidates for town commissioner would be printed on the ballot in alphabetical order, and each registered voter would be able to vote for five men.

The three candidates with the most votes would be elected for four years, and the two candidates with the next highest number of votes would be elected for two years.

Thereafter, elections would be held every two years, with two commissioners elected in 1971 and three elected in 1973 and so on.

After the election, the town board would have an accurate survey made of the corporate boundaries of the Town of Cooleemee and record the boundaries with the register of deeds.

The town commissioners would choose one of their number to be mayor and another member of the board to be mayor pro tem. All salaries would be set by the board.

Board members would be prohibited by law from voting themselves into executive session, or otherwise formally "considering or voting upon" any question in private session.

Appointed Jobs

The commissioners would have to appoint a town attorney and a town clerk, and they would have the option to appoint a town tax collector and a town accountant.

Both the community and the legislators were determined that there be no dispute at the first or later elections about the number of candidates to be voted on.

The bill provides that each voter must mark his ballot for as many candidates as there are offices to be filled; otherwise the ballot will not be counted for anyone.

"There shall be printed on all ballots for commissioner," the legislation specifies, "the number of candidates to be voted for."

Boger noted that the Cooleemee bill was requested at a "very late date" in this General Assembly session, but said his colleagues would probably pass the local bill.

Homemakers Club

The Cooleemee Home Makers club will hold their regular meeting on Friday, June 20, at 7:30 p.m. with Mrs. Monroe Ridenhour at her home in Rocky Knoll.

All members are urged to attend.

TO THE RESIDENTS OF DAVIS COUNTY AND LOYAL CUSTOMERS OF MOCKSVILLE CHRYSLER-PLYMOUTH, INC.

Each spring and fall we endeavor to bring to Davis County good, clean family fun and entertainment in appreciation for your support and patronage. We firmly believe the best we can do in return for what small success we have enjoyed is to return to the community a portion in the form of our semi-annual jamboree, scheduling the best of entertainment that our budget will permit; support of local schools, Boy Scouts, 4-H Clubs, Volunteer Fire Department, Rescue Squad, Community Club, Nurses, Churches, Golden Age Club, Little League Teams, and other organizations we have had the privilege to assist in one way or another.

We do not take credit for this because you, our satisfied customers, have made this possible by your patronage.

Our only regret is that we could not have contributed more to the community in which we live and have our business. We sincerely hope that what small measure of community service we have rendered will make our community a better place in which to live.

Sincerely,
Duke Wooten
