

Kathryn Annette Miller Marries Don R. Overcash

The Rev. Gary Brown officiated Sunday, when Miss Kathryn Annette Miller became the bride of Donald Ray Overcash, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ray Overcash of 50 Duke Street, at Cooleemee Methodist Church.

Miss Mariola Crawford was organist for the 3:30 p.m. wedding.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Franklin Miller of Route 1, Woodleaf, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of white satin, styled with a scalloped neckline and long, tapered sleeves in a lace bodice and A-line skirt. The dress also had a detachable train, which was attached at the shoulders. Her fingertip, illusion veil fell from a petal headpiece embroidered in seed pearls and crystals. She carried a lace-covered prayerbook, centered with an orchid and white pompons.

Miss Barbara Miller of Woodleaf, matron of honor for her sister, wore a full-length dress of yellow linen with empire waist and A-line skirt. Miss Celia Stutts of Salisbury and Mrs. Harold Miller were bridesmaids. Their green dresses were copies of the honor attendant's attire. All three attendants wore petal headpieces and carried cascade bouquets of yellow pompons.

James A. Overcash of Masvern, Pa., was best man. Rammie Hall Gibson Jr., of Greensboro and Joe Gibson ushered.

Upon return from Florida, the couple will live on Route 1, Woodleaf. The bride traveled in a blue brocade dress and added the orchid from her prayerbook.

Mrs. Overcash is a graduate of West Rowan High School, and was employed by Fiber Industries.

Mr. Overcash was graduated from Davie County High School, and has served in the armed forces. He is employed at Fiber Industries.

Cicero R. Ridenhours Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Cicero R. Ridenhour were honored on their 50th wedding anniversary at a reception given by their children and grandchildren in the fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church on Sunday, June 22.

This was the first time in several years that all their children were home together.

Mr. Ridenhour presented his wife with a gold wedding band which she had waited 50 years to receive.

The refreshment table was covered in white net over satin accented with gold bells and gold ribbon. A centerpiece of yellow rosebuds and yellow carnations, flanked by yellow lighted tapers was used.

Fruit punch, decorated cake squares, nuts, mints and cheese biscuits were served to more than 100 guests who called between the hours from 2 until 5 p.m.
