MRS. BERTIE WOOD WORKMAN has recently moved back to Cooleemee in the house formerly owned by Jay Blackwelder on Joyner Street. Mr. Blackwelder is now living with his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ward, of Lexington. Mrs. Workman, a cooleemee native, was previously living in Raleigh.

KENNETH HOLT, FRED GRIFFITH and JOE HELM have returned from a fishing trip on Lake Norman over the weekend. It was a perfect trip. They caught about 60 pounds of bass.

MR. AND MRS. ROSCOE EUDY of Pine Ridge spent the weekend in Lexington with Mrs. Eudy's sister who recently returned home from Lexington Memorial Hospital.

Miss Berrier, J. K. Doris Pledge Vows

Miss Karen Elizabeth Berrier and Joseph Keith Doris were married Sunday, October 12, at Concord United Methodist Church in Mocksville.

The Rev. Robert Frost, pastor of the Liberty-Concord charge, officiated at the 3 p.m. ceremony. Mrs. Marie Ellis, organist, and J. N. Tutterow, soloist, furnished the wedding music.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben C. Berrier of Mocksville, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of white satin peau de soie, styled on princess lines, with lace trim at the V-neckline. Her full-length, illusion veil was bordered in lace, and she held a prayerbook, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Marlene Boger was maid of honor. Miss Jeannie McDaniel of Cooleemee, Miss Peggy Hoover of Charlotte, and Lana Leamon of Dover, Pa., were bridesmaids. Charlotte Junker and Karen Carter attended as flower girls.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. John Stokes of Miami, Fla., and Joseph Doris of Boston, Mass., had Phil Murphy of Jacksonville, Fla., as best man. Paul Holland of Tampa, Fla., Tim Gantt of Hickory and Richard Hendricks ushered. Will Junker was ringbearer.

Mrs. Doris is a graduate of Davie County High School and the Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing in Charlotte. She is presently a U.S. Navy nurse in Jacksonville, Fla., where the couple will make their home. Mr. Doris is also serving in the U.S. Navy.

MRS. BESSIE NAIL spent the weekend in Charlotte with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Benson.

MR. AND MRS. BILL WHITE were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Owen and family. On Saturday night, they all went out to dinner to celebrate the Owen's anniversary. The Whites returned home Sunday night.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY SHOAF and MR. AND MRS. DEWEY JORDAN spent Sunday touring the mountains and also visited Dalton Park.

MRS. BUD FOSTER of Lexington accompanied Miss Stella Cuthrell home Sunday afternoon. Miss Cuthrell had spent the previous week in Lexington, a guest of the Fosters. Mr. Foster was unable to make the trip due to being in bed with the flu.

MRS. LOLA CLEMENT spent a recent week with her mother,

Mrs. Adeline Parks, while she was a patient at Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem. Mrs. Parks, who underwent eye surgery is now staying with her daughter on Route 4, Mocksville. This was the second time for this type surgery for Mrs. Parks, who celebrated her 100th birthday in May.

MRS. JENNIE PIERCE of Riverside Drive is seriously ill at Davie Hospital.

Charles Nail returned to Washington, D. C. yesterday. He came to attend the funeral services of his aunt, Mrs. Nora Riddle, and to visit with his mother, Mrs. Barney Nail and other relatives. He also attended the morning service at the Cooleemee United Methodist Church Sunday.

MRS. GRACE RIDENHOUR is expected to return home from Davie Hospital this week. She is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Cheek, Sherry and Cynthia and Mrs. Otis Burrell spent the weekend in Cullowee with their sons, Clingman Cheek and Edwin Anderson, students at Western Carolina University. They also attend the Homecoming festivities and football game
