SHOULD A WOMAN TELL HER AGE?

Photos and Interviews
By Marlene Benson

MRS. DORIS GARWOOD, Marginal St. Ext., housewife — "Goodness yes. How can she hide it?"

MRS. DOROTHY TURNER, Winston-Salem, sewing machine operator — "Yes. Well in the first place she's blessed that the Lord has left her live and she has something to be thankful for."

"FLIP" BENSON, Route 4, retired electrician — "I don't think so. In the first place you shouldn't ever ask them."

MRS. CANDY WOODY, Route 1, Woodleaf, Student nurse — "Yes. That way she wouldn't be telling a lie about it."

Nominations For Honor Being Sought

MOCKSVILLE — The Mocksville Jaycees are receiving nominations for the outstanding young man of the year for Mocksville and surrounding area for the year 1969.

Any man, aged 21 through 35, is eligible for nomination.

Nominees will be judged primarily in areas of community service, church participation and achievement in their chosen profession.

Winner will be presented the distinguished service award at the annual Jaycees banquet on Friday, Jan. 23.

Dr. Francis W. Slate Is New Chief-Of-Staff

Dr. Francis Wesley Slate has been elected Chief-of-Staff of the Davie County Hospital.

Dr. George Kimberly was named Vice-Chief-of-Staff and Dr. Glenda Weber, secretary.

Dr. Slate opened his office in Mocksville in December of 1958 and has been practicing as a specialist in general surgery at the Davie County Hospital. He spent six years specializing in surgery, most of the time at New York University, Washington University and the VA Hospital in Lake City, Florida.

In 1962 he was certified by the American Board of Surgery and became a fellow of the American College of Surgeons in 1965, and the American College of Angiology in 1965.

He also previously served as hospital chief-of-staff here in 1965.

Dr. Slate is a member of the Davie County Board of Commissioners and from 1960-1968 served as Davie County Coroner.

Active in civic affairs, he has been a member of the Mocksville Rotary Club since 1959. He served on the board of directors of the Davie County Chapter of Red Cross and is previous head of the Davie County Cancer Society.
