

Cooleemee Journal

64th Year
No. 9

COOLEEMEE, NORTH CAROLINA
Wednesday, March 4, 1970

12 Pages
10 Cents

Mill Reopens Main Street

Burlington Industries has announced that it will relocate a section of Main Street at its Cooleemee plant to give continuing public access to the thoroughfare.

notified R. L. Johnson, district engineer of the State Highway Department in Winston-Salem, that the company has already negotiated with a paving contractor to do the job. They indicated that it should be completed in March or early April.

Burlington Industries has

Where Is Verdie's Missing Butterfly?

There has been a lot of discussion in the Cooleemee Supermarket lately concerning Verdie Cornatzer's missing butterfly.

picture of last week's paper, which of course was of him.

Vermell Reavis and Margaret Jacobs, checkout girls, say on several occasions, he has even asked a couple of customers if they have seen his lost butterfly. He described it as being black with yellow tipped wings and has been missing since his flowers quit blooming last fall.

The other employees at the supermarket don't know whether he has lost his "marbles" as well, or if this is a severe case of early spring fever.

We at the Journal feel this is just Verdie's way of fishing for a compliment on the front page

Board Of Elections

Attorney William E. Hall has been appointed to the Davie County Board of Elections.

Mr. Hall replaces Grant Daniel as the Republican member on the board. Mr. Daniel resigned due to illness.

Reappointed were Dr. Ramey F. Kemp of Mocksville and Harold Foster of Cooleemee, both Democrats.

Dr. Kemp is chairman of the board of elections. Mr. Foster is secretary.

Pretty And Talented

Jackie Mauldin, a Davie County High sophomore, flashes a big smile and shows the trophy that she won at the Cooleemee Jaycees' Talent Show Saturday night. Jackie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Mauldin of Rt. 4, Mocksville. (Staff photo by Barringer).

March Winds To Blow Soon

Terri Chappel, age 12, has some fun with her long blond hair in the wind. March winds will soon begin to blow and spring can't be far behind. (Photo by Barringer)

All Entering School Should Enroll Now

All children who are eligible to enter the first grade at Cooleemee School this fall should be enrolled as soon as possible it was announced this week by V. G. Prim, school principal.

Those who are presently enrolled in Kindergarten or Head Start will already be enrolled, as these entries were sent directly to the school.

Mr. Prim also said that parents of the eligible children could call the school, giving the necessary information by phone instead of coming by in person, if desired.

Davie Students Named To East Carolina Honors

Richard Earl Groce of Rt. 5 Mocksville and Cynthia Gail Johnson of 714 Salisbury Street, Mocksville have won places on East Carolina University's official honor list.

To make the honor roll at ECU a student must make a B average with no grade below a C.

Nearly one in six East Carolina University students last fall made high enough grades to earn places on the university's official honor lists.