Big Enough For A Ride

Jody, a 200-pound St. Bernard, is big enough to give Sherry Glass, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Glass of 32 Davie St., a good ride. More pictures and

Today Is Earth Day

The students at Cooleemee Elementary School are doing their thing in observance of Earth Day. Today, (Wednesday, April 22) has been designated to be a day of nationwide environmental education.

"Earth Day" is a reminder to teach the awareness of our environment — how man and civilization are destroying much of the natural beauty and causing increasing pollution of our land, water, and air. It is a special day to discuss the problems and what is being done about it and what must be done.

Homemakers Hold Regular Meeting

The Cooleemee Homemakers Club held their regular meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. Beatrice Shore at 7:30 p.m.

There were 11 members and one visitor, Mrs. Helen Bean, present. Mrs. Leonard Gabbert was welcomed into the club as a new member.

Following the business session, Miss Peggy Skinner, program chairman, gave an interesting talk on "The Main Dishes and Food Consumers".

There were several prizes awarded to members winning at Bingo during the social hour. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Bean, served delicious refreshments.

Today must mark the beginning of continued environmental awareness, education, and ACTION.

The fourth grade students shown, along with their classmates, have been studying pollution and conservation. They are observing Earth Day by having a trash clean-up of the school grounds. They are, (L-R) Billy Gales, Lynn Miller, Troy Bailey, Doug Walls (kneeling), and Dale Ijames.

Dr. Robert Handfield, professor of Geology from Catawba College spoke to the students this afternoon on air pollution

Sunday Reception To Be In Honor Of Rev. Fisher

Rev. Roscoe B. Fisher and family will be honored at a reception on Sunday afternoon, April 26, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Cooleemee Presbyterian mance on Watt Street.

Rev. Fisher preached his first sermon here Sunday, since accepting the pastorate at the Presbyterian Church.

The Fishers will be living mainly at Bixby, due to having equal pastorate duties there, but have completely furnished the mance here as well. They plan to spend a great deal of time in this community, also.

The entire community is invited to attend the reception and officially welcome the new minister and his family to Cooleemee.
