

Cars decorated with streamers, balloons and VBS signs joined in the parade. Little Donna Bean, 3, daughter of Mr. and

Mrs. Donald Bean is one of the smallest attending at North Cooleemee.

The fire engine from the Jerusalem Volunteer Fire Department led the Vacation Bible

School Parade for the group at North Cooleemee Baptist Church on Saturday. This was quite a treat for the youngsters.

Bible School In Full Swing In Cooleemee

This week is Vacation Bible School Week around town with schools being held at First Baptist, North Cooleemee Baptist, Cooleemee Presbyterian, and Liberty Methodist churches.

Most of the children in the community will be attending one or more of the schools. Some are being conducted in the mornings while others hold evening classes.

Vacation Bible School has been a tradition for many years for the youngsters, but there will also be adult Bible Study classes at some of the churches this year, especially for the adults.

Attendance is expected to be very good at each of the churches this season.
