

Cooleemee Personals

Call Family From New York Visits Parents In Ephesus

MR. AND MRS. JERRY CALL of New York were the weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Call of Ephesus. Jerry, a gemologist with the Gemological Institute of America in New York City, accompanied a buyer to Brazil and has just returned from the two weeks trip. While there they also toured the mines in the Brazilian jungles. Jerry is also a co-owner of the Commercial Lapidaries Ltd. of Mocksville.

daughter, Pam Jordan, on Tuesday at McDuffies High School. Pamela is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jordan, also former residents of Cooleemee.

MRS. BETH FOSTER was transferred from Lowrance Hospital, Mooresville to Charlotte Memorial Hospital over the weekend. Mrs. Foster underwent surgery three weeks ago and has spent most of this time as a patient at Lowrance. She is slightly improved.

MR. AND MRS. WILSON WAGNER of Cooleemee and MR. AND MRS. M. C. DEADMON of Mocksville attended the graduation exercises of Mrs. Audrey Wagner Deadmon on Sunday at Western Carolina University. The Wagners were also the weekend guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Deadmon, at their home in Waynesville.

MR. JOE PARKER remains seriously ill at Rowan Memorial Hospital after undergoing surgery Friday.

MR. ROY HELLARD of Watt Street is improving at Davie Hospital after undergoing surgery last week.

MISS PAT HEAD of Salisbury spent the weekend here with her grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Head of Watt Street.

MR. AND MRS. BOB HOYLE attended the graduation exercises of their daughter, Martha, on Sunday in Charlotte where she graduated from Mercy School of Nursing. Martha has accepted a job at Mercy Hospital and is scheduled to begin work on June 29.

MISS STELLA CUTHRELL of Main Street remains seriously ill at the Davie County Hospital. Miss Cuthrell suddenly became ill while visiting her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Foster, at their home in Lexington last week.

MR. AND MRS. TERRY WILSON and daughter, Tonya, of Erwin were the weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson of Edgewood Circle. Mr. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Elmer Wilson, of Greenville, S.C. will be their guest this week.

MIKE JORDAN, DAVID JORDAN, and GARY JORDAN attended the Kemper Open Golf Tournament in Charlotte on Sunday. Following the match, they were privileged to meet professional golfer, Arnold Palmer.

MRS. MARGARET JORDAN left Saturday morning for Richmond, Va. to visit Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Safrit. She also plans to visit Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Coggins at their home in Charlottesville before returning home in the next week or ten days. Mrs. Jordan was accompanied by Mrs. Adam Lyerly of Rockwell.

MR. AND MRS. GUY BEANE of Lenoir visited their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Beane and Lori, of Edgewood over the weekend. Lori accompanied her grandparents home for a weeks visit. She will return home Sunday.

Presbyterian Bible School Picnic Friday

Vacation Bible School is in progress at the Cooleemee Presbyterian Church this week. The school begins each evening at 7 p.m. until 9 p.m. and will continue through Friday.

A picnic supper will be held at 6 p.m. Friday evening on the church lawn for all those attending.

There will be a special Bible study for the adult group, under the leadership of the new minister, Rev. Roscoe Brown Fisher. The Bible study will be very informal and will be held in the church Mance. Rev. Fisher's theme for the study is "The Revelation of God to Man." This period will also be used for discussion and for a question and answer period that should prove most interesting to the adult group.

The Sunday worship services is held each week at 10 a.m. and Sunday School follows at 11:15 a.m.

Weldon Huske Is Graduate

Weldon Huske, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Huske of Cooleemee, was graduated from the Virginia Episcopal School, Lynchburg, Virginia on June 2.

While there, he participated in many campus activities including service on the All School Council and the Honor Committee. He received an award for "excellence in achievement and sensitivity to the study of modern politics and government."

Weldon was one of a group of V.E.S. students who served on the Niadison Street Project, co-operating with the Lynchburg community by providing a tutoring service for young underprivileged children of the city.

He plans to enter the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, in the fall.

Audrey Deadmon Is WCU Graduate

Mrs. Audrey Wagner Deadmon of Cooleemee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Wagner of Cooleemee, and the wife of Philip Atlas Deadmon, was graduated Sunday, June 7, from Western Carolina University at the 81st annual WCU spring commencement.

Mrs. Deadmon received a bachelor of science degree in elementary education.

A 1966 graduate of Davie County High School, she has been active at WCU in student education associations, and was on the dean's list of honor students in 1969. She recently completed student teaching in Hazelwood, North Carolina.

Alpha Delta Kappa Holds May Meeting

The Alpha Delta Kappa Sorority held its May meeting with Mrs. Ruth Short on Tuesday, May 26. The hostess furnished the group with several excellent recipe books and entertaining tips.

Since this was the last meeting of the school year, most of the business consisted of plans for the new year.

Mrs. Short served refreshments to: Helen Crenshaw, Ann Barnhardt, Mary Wall Sexton, Betty West, Nell Hayes, and Helen Everhart.

MR. AND MRS. DON FOSTER and sons of Holly Hill, Florida were the weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Foster. They returned home Monday, with the exceptions of their two older sons, Eddie and Wayne, who will remain here with their grandparents until early next month.

MR. AND MRS. ADAM JORDAN and MRS. SALLY RIDENHOUR attended the graduation exercises of their grandson, Denny Jordan, in Travelers Rest S.C. last week. Denny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jordan, formerly of Cooleemee, was an honor student at Traveler's Rest High School.

MRS. A. A. GIBBONS of New Port News, Virginia is spending this week here visiting her two sisters, Mrs. Ed Carter and Mrs. Dewey Couch.

MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND COUZIN of Salisbury were the Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carter of Joyner Street.

MR. AND MRS. JORDAN went to Anderson, S.C. on Saturday where they attended the graduation of their grand-

Senior Citizens News

By MARY DUNCAN

The local senior citizens club held their regular meeting on Monday, June 8, at the Recreation Center with 68 members and three visitors attending. President Fred Murphy, presided.

Mr. Guss, personnel manager of the Burlington Industries plant here, led the devotionals. His scripture was taken from the first chapter of St. John and the theme of his talk was "The Existence of a Real Living Christ."

In the absence of Mrs. Sadie Steele, the sunshine report was given by Mrs. Beulah Spry. Get well cards were sent to six members on the club's sick list.

Church Of God Rummage Sale

The Church of God will sponsor a rummage sale on Saturday, June 13, at the church parsonage, beginning at 9 a.m. and will continue through the day.

The public is cordially invited. All proceeds will go to the church building fund.

Flowers were furnished by Mary Duncan.

The club welcomed Mrs. Margaret Seders back, after being absent during the school term. She brought a group of second graders who presented a program of songs and a Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

The club received an invitation to attend Hardison Methodist Church on June 16, for an old fashioned get-together singing.

WEAVER ELECTRIC

Serves
Davie County
Electrically

↑ Residential ↑ Industrial
↑ Commercial ↑ Farm

Call 636-2581, days or 636-4811 or 633-2520
nights.

G. B. WEAVER & SONS ELECTRIC
N. Main St. Salisbury

TRASHY PROBLEMS?

Call BECK
284-3981

Let us show you
HOW LITTLE IT COSTS
to air condition
your home!

CENTRAL AIR CONDITIONING

LIVE IN COMFORT... all through the house—
all summer long

Cool comfort can be yours by simply adding a G-E space-saving, split-system to your central heating system. It's so easy and costs much less than you ever expected.

- Famous General Electric dependability.
- "Quick-Attach" refrigerant lines make hook-up quick and simple.
- Tough enamel finish resists weather and corrosion.
- Exclusive spine fin coil for a more efficient and quieter operation.
- Sealed-in-Steel G-E Compressor.
- Only system with "Matched Components" for high reliability.

MAKE YOURS THE "HOME FOR ALL SEASONS"

OWEN-LEONARD, INC.
Phone 636-0951

as low as
$20⁰⁰ Per Month

We Have Installed Over 600 Air Conditioners in This Area