

Vote Tuesday

All local citizens are urged to VOTE on Tuesday, November 3 for the candidates you feel will best serve you during the next term of office.

Happy And The Great Pumpkin

Tina Brown's little dog "Happy" must know what Halloween is all about, and from the look on his face, the name given him is quite appropriate. Who could refuse this little "trick or treat"? (Photo by Jim Barringer)

Some Davie Voters Consider Five Ballots

Many of Davie County voters will have five ballots to consider when they go to the polls on Tuesday for the 1970 General Election. Every voter in the county will be given four ballots.

Those voters registering in the special Dutchman Creek Watershed trustee vote in the precincts of North Mocksville, South Mocksville, Clarksville, Farmington, Jerusalem, Smith Grove, West Shady Grove, and East Shady Grove will have the fifth ballot on which appears the name of David White for trustee. He is unopposed.

Every voter in the county will consider four ballots, as follows:

FOR MEMBER OF CONGRESS (Fifth Congressional District): James G. (Jim) White (Democrat) and Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell (Republican).

OFFICIAL BALLOT FOR STATE OFFICERS OF THE GENERAL COURT OF JUSTICE: On this ballot appears the Democratic nominees: William H. Bobbitt for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court; I. Beverly Lake and Dan K. Moore for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court; Earl W. Vaughn, William E. Graham, Jr., R. A. (Fred) Hedrick, for Judges of the Court of Appeals; and then the Democratic nominees for Superior Court Judges of each of the 27 Districts. All on this ballot are Democrats and are unopposed for office by Republicans.

THE COUNTY BALLOT will contain the following:

For Superior Court Solicitor, 22nd Judicial District: H. W. (Butch) Zimmerman, Jr. (Democrat) unopposed.

For District Court Judges (You may vote for four): Hebert E. Olive, Jr. (D), L. Roy Hughes (D), Preston Cornelius (D), C. H. Dearman (D), John T. Brock (R), Arthur S. Beckham, Jr., (R), Robert (Bob) Bryant (R), W. Lindsey Stafford, Jr., (R).

For N. C. State Senate, 25th Senatorial District: Donald W. Bingha (R), unopposed.

For State House, 39th House District (You may vote for two): J. P. Huskins (D), Arthur L. (Sap) Smith (D), Gilbert Lee Boger (R), Homer B. Tolbert (R).

For Clerk of Superior Court: Glenn L. Hammer (R), unopposed.

For Sheriff: Grimes W. Hancock (D) and Joe Smith (R).

For County Commissioner (You may vote for two): Lester Blakwelder (D), James A. (Jim) Eaton (D), John M. Bailly (R), Jerry Swicegood (R).

For County Surveyor: J. C. Comer (R), unopposed.

There will also be a ballot on constitutional amendments for the State of North Carolina. Voters will decide for or against on the following 7 individual proposals:

1. FOR or AGAINST the revision and amendment of the Constitution of North Carolina
2. FOR or AGAINST the constitutional amendment to require the General Assembly to reduce number of State Administrative Departments to 25 and to authorize Governor to reorganize Administrative Departments, subject to legislative approval.

3. FOR or AGAINST the constitutional amendment permitting three-fifths of the members of the General Assembly to convene extra sessions of the General Assembly.

4. FOR or AGAINST the constitutional amendment revising those portions of the present or proposed State Constitution concerning State and local finance.

5. FOR or AGAINST the constitutional amendment authorizing the General Assembly to fix personal exemptions for income tax purposes.

Jacobs Assigned At Ft. Knox, Ky.

Army Private Herbert M. Jacobs, Jr. is assigned to Company D, 15 Battalion, 4 Brigade, in the Training Center, Armor (USATCA) at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

He will spend the next two months learning the fundamental skills of the soldier in today's modern action army — firing live ammunition under simulated combat situations, learning protective measures and first-aid for chemical biological and radiological attacks, as well as being schooled in the use of modern arms.

Interspersed with the constant emphasis on proper physical conditioning, diet, rest and health habits, will be ample opportunity to utilize USATCA's many and varied recreational and religious facilities. Following the completion of Basic Training, Pvt. Jacobs, Jr. who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Jacobs Sr., of P. O. Box 391, Cooleemee will receive at least an additional eight weeks of either advanced instruction or on-the-job training to qualify him in a specialized, military skill.

Absentee Ballots

The deadline for making applications for absentee ballots expired as of 6 p. m. October 28th.

Dr. R. F. Kemp said that only in case of emergency illness can absentee ballots be obtained now.

"Anyone becoming ill after 6 p. m., October 28th may make application up until Monday. All such applications must be accompanied by a doctor's certificate", said Dr. Kemp.

Applications for absentee ballots may be made to Atty. William E. Hall, a member of the board of elections, during the absence of Dr. Kemp this weekend.
