CONFEDERATE MONUMENT FOR PITT CO.

Campaign Launched Last Week.
Each Township in the County Will be Represented by Special Committee to Solicit Funds For The Erection. Work to Begin in April.

Notwithstanding the very unfavorable weather conditions, an enthusiastic meeting was held last evening in the Commissioners' room of the court house, and arrangements perfected for a whirlwind campaign to raise funds for the erection of a Pitt County Confederate Monument.

Governor Jarvis, acting as chairman, called the meeting to order and after a few remarks on the subject introduced Mr.
Ernest R. Carroll of Raleigh, who had been invited to come down and present plans for raising the necessary funds. Carroll outlined his plans, and named some of the places where the work has been conducted along this line and assured the committee that the necessary amount could easily be raised.

It being necessary to have a committee to arrange the details preparatory to launching this campaign, the following committee was named:

Mr. F. C. Harding, chairman, Col. R. R. Cotten, Messrs. J. G.
Moye, R. L. Carr, Richard Williams, D. C. Moore, secretary, Mesdames John L. Wooten,
Chas. O'H. Laughinghouse, T.
E. Hooker and R. J. Cobb.

Mr. Harding assured those present that the committee would at once become active in the interest of Pitt and the monument. A committee from each Township in the county to press the work will soon be named, and the work will be so divided up as to require only ten or fifteen minutes per day from each worker to raise the funds. Everyone will be given an opportunity to help in this work. The school children are to have part in the advertising, and even the public dray on the street will help to boost the work.

The campaign will be launched with a Workers' Dinner Conference on Monday evening April 6th, and five days is the maximum time for the raising of the required amount, $18,000. It will be remembered that an Act was passed by the last general assembly privileging the Commissioners to appropriate $1500 to this monument fund.

Mr. Harding, the chairman and Mr. Moore, secretary, are enthusiastic over the prospects.
The plans for raising this money is pronounced clever by them, and they are counting on the people to work and the generosity of the men to give. Let our people begin at once to think monument, talk monument and, when they are called on, to work for the monument. At an early date we hope to be able to print a likeness of the monument giving description of same.

Tugwell; the stork left a bright little boy at his home recently.

FARMVILLE NEEDS.

Farmville has a number of needs at this time, and one of the most important of these is more dwelling houses. At the present time there are no vacant residences in Farmville. Constantly we hear of some one looking a place to locate who would gladly come to Farmville if he could only get a good house to live in.
Only a few weeks ago a gentleman wanted to move to this town and could scarcely find a suitable house. He was willing to pay a good large rental for a suitable house and finally secured one.
Many other people would move here if a good dwelling could be had. Our good school, our other advantages and the location of place make it a suitable residential town. Now, if some of our wide awake citizens who have money to invest will erect a few good neat five and six, or even seven-room cottages they will not only be helping the town but they will be making an investment that will pay them well as the years come and go. We need the dwellings and it is hoped that the present year will see this need supplied in an adequate manner.

How It Worked

A country gentleman recently had his house fitted with electric bells, and giving instructions to his servant, he said, "I want you to understand me clearly, Joseph, that when I ring once I want you, and when I ring twice I want Maggie, the housemaid." The bell rang. Joseph never moved. Presently it rang again and Maggie hurried to her master, who was very angry.
"Why didn't that rascal Joseph come when I rang for him?" demanded the gentleman.
"Why, sir," answered Maggie
"Joseph was busy reading the paper when he heard the first ring, and he said to me, 'Now, Maggie wait until master rings again, and then it will be you he wants.'"

NOTICE.

This is to notify my friends and former patrons in Farmville and vicinity that I will be in the community several days, beginning Monday March the 16th, for the purpose of collecting the balance of the accounts which were made while Dr. Moseley and myself were associated. We want to get these accounts settled and off our books, as it is no small trouble to keep two sets of books. You will receive notice in writing of the amount of your account together with date on which you may expect us to call for settlement. Please have the money ready as I want to get through with the matter as soon as possible. I am giving you liberal time in which to provide for our coming, so, therefore, be ready.

THE INCOME TAX LAW.

Rules to be Observed by Income Tax Payers of Country. Treasury Officials Issue Booklet to Clear Up Misunderstanding About Law.

Washington.—After weeks of study of the complexities of the income tax law, treasury officials issued a 90-page booklet, christened it "Regulations No. 33," and sent it forth to collectors of internal revenue in the expectation that it will clear up many of the misunderstandings concerning the law which has arisen throughout the country.

It takes twenty-three pages of the book to set forth the law itself, but sixty pages are used in telling how the net income to be taxed is ascertained by the taxpayer, when and where tax must be paid, what penalties will be imposed for non payment, what exemptions and deductions will be allowed. Many pages are devoted to an explanation of that part of the law imposing a 1 per cent tax on the income of all corporations, which replaces the old corporation tax.

Although officials are confident that this booklet will prove a guide to taxpayers which will clear up many apparently difficult regulations in the future when new points are raised. The book does not contain a new set of regulations, but is a compilation in compact form of the ones already issued, with explanations of points never before discussed.

Under the law partnerships are not subject to the tax, but the regulations provide that annual profit from a partnership paid to members shall be included in their returns, and where such profits are undistributed and unpaid they must be ascertained and included in the individual's returns for taxation just the same.

When persons taxable refuse to make the proper list or return or makes false return, the regulations provide that the proper collector of internal revenue shall, after due notice, make the return for such person and the tax shall be assessed on this return, with a 50 or 100 per cent. penalty added. Returns must be verified by oaths or affirmation.
Returns shall be sent by collectors to the commissioner of internal revenue in Washington by registered mail. Taxes unpaid after June 30 shall bring a penalty of 5 per cent.

It is officially estimated that the promoters of get-rich-quick schemes and other fraudulent enterprises using the mails, have robbed the American public of $129,000,000 in two years. It is declared intention of postal authorities to enforce with increased rigor the present regulations that are designed to exclude the swindler from the mails.

HAPPINESS AND CONTENTMENT.

"Corn in the crib, money in the pocket;
A baby in the cradle, a pretty wife to rock it;
Meat in the smoke-house,
And there I go to find it!"

So runs a bit of doggerel on a card sent out by the State Agricultural Department giving a total of all the crops made in the State during 1913. It will, no doubt, be surprising to learn that corn concluding forage was the most valuable crop raised in the State for it was valued at $65,- 000,000 with cotton second at $50,000,000, and tobacco third at $31,000,000. Cotton seed was estimated a $10,000,000. The total for all crops raised in 1913 was $241,533,677 thus placing North Carolina thirteenth in the value of farm products in the United States for the year just closed; in 1909 it was twenty-second. A comparison of these figures and dates will show what a forward movement has been made by the farmers of the Old North State in four years. Judging the future by the past with an additional impetus, the farmers of the State will measure up to any in the Union within the next four or five seasons of diversified crops. A vision of greater barns full of better produce should be in the mind and heart of every tiller of the soil, and the returns will measure up to any in the country.

Brains Dull'd By Constipation

Some People Only Hali Alive; Dodson's Liver Tone Cleans You Out And Wakes You Up.

When constipation is having its evil effects on your body and brain, Nature is doing her best to offset them and overcome the cause itself. But usually Nature cannot do this unaided.

In the past, many sufferers at such a time used to turn to dangerous calomel in hope of relief.
For some people calomel does appear to give a temporary benefit, but as a matter of fact it is a poison that proves to be injurious and even dangerous to many. If you have ever taken calomel you probably have suffered from evil conditions following its use.

But nowadays great numbers of people have learned how to feel better, brighter and healthier by taking Dodson's Liver Tone instead of calomel. Indeed, this harmless vegetable liquid is recommended and guaranteed by J. M. Wheeler who will refund the purchase price to you without question if you are not completely satisfied with it.

Get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for only 50c. and learn for yourself how easily and naturally it assists Nature in getting rid of and correcting constipation and biliousness, how it clears away the sick headache and coated tongue and sets you right without ache or gripe, without any interference with your regular habits. Fine for the children. They like to take it. (adv)
