It is said that recently a preacher, after his sermon, requested everyone in his congregation who were paying their debts to stand up. Instantly every man woman and child with one exception, arose to their feet. He seated the crowd and then said, "Let every man who not paying his debts, stand up." The exception noted, a careworn, hungry-looking clothed in his last summer's suit individual, slowly assumed a perpendicular position and leaned upon the back of a bench in front of him. "How is it, my friend," asked the minister, "that you are the only man in this large congregation that is not able to meet his obligations?" "I publish a newspaper," he meekly replied, "and my brethren here who have just stood up are all subscribers and—" "Let us pray," exclaimed the minister.

The ladies, bless 'em, are up to their chin in house cleaning, the house is upside down, and man hath no where to lay his head. They scrub and brush, and dust the entire year, and lest some moat may have obscured the implements of warfare, each spring there is a complete turning of things inside out and upside down, but thank fortune it is just for a season and joy cometh in the morning when the flavor of cleanliness is sweet to the nostril and peace to the weary soul. It is well for man to submit to the eternal fitness of things and abide the time.

Early to bed and early to rise, mind your business and tell no lies, don't get drunk and deceive your wives, pay your debts and advertise, buy from men of enterprise, is the best counsel under the skies.

Bad roads costs the American people millions of dollars annually. The average cost of carting one ton over one mile of American road is 24 cents, as against 12 cents less per ton mile in Europe.

Some folks feel like their ears are sort of useless unless they are listening to something bad.

Some men are always preaching economy and expecting their wives to do the practicing.

A STATEMENT FROM SOLICITOR CHARLES L. ABERNETHY

To the Democratic Voters of the Fifth Judicial District:

I take this method of bringing certain matters to the attention of the Democratic voters of the Fifth Judicial District relative to my candidacy for the re-nomination for Solicitor.

My official duties keep me so engaged in Court that I have no opportunity to make a personal canvass, and I will be almost constantly in Court prosecuting the Criminal docket from now until the primaries and precinct meetings on the 16th of May, and consequently will have to rely upon my supporters and friends to look out for my interests during the campaign.

I desire to be re-nominated and re-elected because I wish the office, and for the further reason that I desire that my official record in the conduct of the office of Solicitor shall be approved by the people.

I have necessarily created antagonisms since I have been in office, by reason of vigorous prosecutions in the Courts. I sincerely trust that these influences will not be sufficient to encompass my defeat.

I am submitting my claims to the Democratic voters of this District solely on my record as a public official. I feel that I have faithfully served the interest of State and for that reason should be re-nominated.

I call upon the Democrats who are in favor of my re-nomination to attend the primary and precinct meetings and to certify that whatever I have done in the past has been for the benefit of the Counties of the District. I have taken and recorded the primaries and precinct meetings and the fact that the same may be certified by the Chairman or presiding officer and secretary of the precinct meeting to the County Convention, so that I may receive such strength as I may have in the District Convention.

It seems now assured that I will be re-nominated. The only way by which I can be defeated is for the interests and influences fighting my re-nomination to get out candidates in various Counties and secure the delegates from these Counties by such means, and combine against me and encompass my defeat in that manner. To prevent this my friends and supporters must be vigilant at the primaries and precinct meetings throughout the District, regardless of local conditions and influences, and see to it that my strength be recorded in each precinct meeting regardless of whether that strength is great or small, and to see to it that delegates friendly to me are selected to attend the various County Conventions to represent that strength in accordance with the plan of organization.

I sincerely trust that the fact that I will be compelled to be in attendance upon my duties as Solicitor and therefore unable to make an active personal canvass of the District, that the people will understand this, and see to it that my interests do not suffer at the various precinct and primary meetings and County and District Conventions.

Respectfully submitted,
 Charles L. Abernethy
