An Evening With Mrs. Myrtle Bynum.

The Philathea Class of the Methodist Sunday School had its regular monthly meeting Friday evening April 24th, with Mrs. Myrtle Bynum. After we had an all around good social talk, the meeting was called to order and a devotional exercise was rendered by Mrs. H. E. Lance. She gave us as our reading the 23rd, Psalm, and offered a short prayer; next came the report from our secretary, with which all seemed pleased. We had a good little amount with which to finish paying for our Sunday school library which this class has recently installed.

Last, but not least, our hostess and one member of our class was missing, but not for long, pretty soon in came the napkins, and next refreshments fit for a king. I'm sorry to say that all the class could not be present to enjoy this hospitality; some were absent from recent grief in their family and for whom Mrs. Lance very feelingly prayed.

All at once we became conscious that we were staying too long, and very reluctantly bade our hostess good-night, thanking her for such a pleasant evening, and voted to have our next meeting with Mesdames Cobb and Dail, Friday evening May 22nd.
