NORTH CAROLINA AND COMMUNITY SERVICE DAY.

State Superintendent Joyner and the State Committee on Community Service have named Friday, October 29, as "North Carolina Day and Community Service Day," and the law requires its observance in every public school in North Carolina. The subject this year is school and neighborhood improvement, and a bulletin just issued by Superintendent Joyner is packed from start to finish with practical suggestions looking not only to moonlight school work, but also to better schools, better community life, better health conditions, better library facilities, more rural co-operation and rural recreation for every country neighborhood.

Remember, all the grown people of your district, the parents and other citizens are asked to meet at your schoolhouse Friday to consider all these questions and make plans for school and neighborhood progress. Then on Saturday, October 30, the people are asked to join together to do some actual physical work for improving and beautifying schoolhouses and grounds, church buildings and grounds, roads, etc.

And be sure to lend your aid to the movement to teach every white person in North Carolina to read and write next month. See your teacher and school committeemen and offer your help toward making Friday and Saturday of this week red letter days in the development of your community.

Too Particular as to Job.

The main thing that is the trouble with some people who are out of work, is that they are very particular about what sort of job they accept. We heard a man say a few days ago that he had looked all over a certain town and could find nothing to do. What he should have said was that he could find nothing which suited his particular fancy. There is work and a plenty all over Eastern North Carolina, and there is no need for any man to say that he cannot secure a position from which he can earn his daily bread.

Something to be Thankful for. Some folks are always yelling about what someone says about them. A lot of people ought to get down on their knees three times a day and thank their lucky stars that everything that could be mentioned about them hasn't even been hinted at. New Bern Sun.

Washington Officers GET 72 PINTS

A. S. Wallace and Guy Gabriel Are Said To Be The Owners. Are Under Two Hundred Dollar Bond. Washington, Oct. 27.—Seventy two pints of liquor, in two suitcases and a hand bag, were taken off the Norfolk Southern train yesterday afternoon by the local police. A. S. Wallace and Guy Gabriel are under $200 bond as the alleged owners of the liquor. It is stated that one of the police officers boarded the train at Pinetown and watched the two local men. It is also reported that the men had a car waiting for them at Bunyon, they evidently intended to leave the train at that point and come into Washington via auto. The presence of the officer on the train, however, made this too risky a proceeding and they remained on the train and when it pulled into the depot here, the police grabbed the suitcases.

Helen AskeW has a Gingham Party.

On Tuesday afternoon Helen AskeW entertained a party of her little friends. At fifteen minutes to four the little ones began to gather with their cute little presents and smiling faces. They then exchanged a few words of welcome and began playing all around the ring, drop the handkerchief, marching around the level, of course sealing a kiss or two occasionally. At four o'clock they all lined up for the "grand march" which was beautifully lead by Master Edward Jones. As Mrs. AskeW played the well known "Rotation Rag". They marched with grace and dignity personified. A prize being offered for the most graceful two. Little Marjorie Mashburn and Master Edward Jones won the prizes, two nice boxes of candy. They were then seated in the reception hall artistically decorated with dahlias and potted plants, and with great delight Misses Emma Lou Moore and Helen AskeW served them to delicious courses of fancy candy and fruits. They then chatted away gaily until one of the little ones had tooth ach, so all decided to go, and in their child like manner, bade each and every one a fond good-bye. Those present were: Lula Forbes, Marjorie Mashburn, Emma Lou Moore, Ada Gray AskeW, Mary Forbes, Louise Mashburn, Rosa Elizabeth AskeW, Robert Lang, John Jr. King, Edward Jones, Don Love-Jace, Sammy Bundy, George Moore, Jr., Arch Flanagan.

HOLD YOUR COTTON PRICE IS GOING UP.

The question now seems to be no longer whether we shall have twelve-cent cotton, cotton futures for next spring having passed twelve-cent early last week, but the question now is whether fifteen-cent cotton is not in sight. Meanwhile let us reiterate just a few points:

- 1. Look out for scab farmers. Farmers who don't know the facts as to the cotton situation are liable to think 12 cents a good fair price and prevent fourteen or fifteen-cent prices by over-feeding a 12 cent market. The New York Times says the only cotton bears now are the Southern cotton farmers themselves, and it is right. Don't prevent 15 cents by jumping at twelve. 2. Help the man who grew the crop get the profits. Look out for the merchant who tries to compel customers to sell to him early. Make the merchant safe when his account is fairly due, by borrowing on the cotton and paying him or by turning the cotton over to him as security, but demand that the grower have the privilege of saying when it shall be sold. 3. Beware of the banks that refuse to advance money on cotton. If your local bank will not make reasonable loans, at least $35 a bale, report the exact facts to your Congressman as basis for demanding through-going rural credits legislation. 4. Don't sell cotton sure yet. Conditions almost surely warrant the highest prices ever paid for seed in the history of the South. Let's manage this crop wisely and recover all last year's losses. -Progressive Farmer.

Smithtown Club.

Arthur, Oct. 27.—Miss Callie Smith entertained the Smithtown Club at her home Saturday afternoon, October the twenty-third. Unfinished business was taken up. After spending quite a while in sewing and conversation, the guests were invited into the dining room and the hostess served a delicious salad course. Members present were Nannie and Nettie Smith, Carrie Belle and Sallie Smith and Anna Wiloughby.
