Mr. G. M. Holden paid Nashville and Rocky Mount a business visit this week.

Window Lights, any size.—Hub Hardware Co.

All the stores of the town now have on their Christmas appearance and shopping has started.

Guns and Pistols cheaper.—Hub Hardware Co.

Messrs R. A. Fields and G. M. Holden spent a few hours in Snow Hill Thursday afternoon.

Disc Harrows and Stalk Cutters cheaper.—Hub Hardware Co.

If you should happen to step in the mud over your shoes, then get yourself a pair of boots.

See our line of Dolls, Toys and all kind Christmas goods.—Hub Hardware Co.

Mrs. G. M. Holden returned home Wednesday night from a few days visit to friends in Goldsboro.

All the girls and boys, who have been away attending school, are arriving home for the holidays.

Doors and Windows, almost any size. Cheap for cash.—Hub Hardware Co.

Attorney E. M. Cox attended Superior Court in Snow Hill this week where he represented several clients.

We invite all Christmas shoppers to call at our store and see our display of Holiday goods before buying.—E. L. Barrett

Mrs. D. B. Oglesby and sister, Miss Gladys Cooper, left last Friday night for Columbia to spend some time with relatives.

Large Stone Jars for Lard—40c per gallon.—Hub Hardware Co.

Mr. C. E. Moore has a special message to Christmas shoppers in this issue. Read it and call at his place for your Santa Claus.

There will be a "Ballard Surprise" at Ballard's Roads School, Wednesday, December 22. A rare treat to all who attend.

Farmville had a touch of real winter in the past several days. Snow fell Saturday night, and since then there has been some rain.

Only a few days left for Christmas Shopping.—Come early and get the best. Everything for the little folks.—Mrs. J. Wells Smith.

Only one more week to Christmas, so your shopping early. Don't wait until the last minute as you are liable not to get what you want, and then somebody will be disappointed.

John Combs and Earl Wall were in town.—Hub Hardware Co.

The Farmville Tobacco market closed today, Friday Dec. 17th, for the holidays. The market will open after Christmas on Tuesday Jan. 4th.

Santa Claus has made our store his headquarters this year for toys of every description. Call and see them.—E. L. Barrett, "The Ladies' Store."

There will be a "Stocking Party" given for the benefit of the school, at the Jonas Williams School house, Tuesday night, December 21, 1916. The public is invited.

Cook Stoves Ranges and Heaters. Cheaper, Save your money.—Hub Hardware Co.

Messrs. B. S. Sheppard, Hubert Joyner and M. V. Horton went to Rocky Mount Wednesday afternoon by auto, where they took the A. C. L. enroute to Richmond for a few days stay.

Call at our store for your toys for the Kiddies. We have the largest assortment ever shipped to Farmville.—E. L. Barrett, "The Ladies' Store."

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wright and son, of Goldsboro, spent Wednesday night here the guests of Mrs. Eva Wright. They left Thursday morning accompanied by Miss Mary Louise Wright for a visit to relatives at Swan Quarter.

If you are interested in a high grade Piano or Player Piano, call and see our stock while Mr. E. Wyatt is with us.—Joyner Furniture Company.

Read the advertisements in this issue and do your Christmas shopping with those firms who are considerate enough to let you know through the columns of this paper what they have to offer.

Remember, everything in toys for the children can be found at our store. Call and see the display and make your selection before the stock is picked over.—E. L. Barrett

There will be a 7-cent Social held at Bynums School, Greene County, Tuesday night, Dec. 21. There will also be a Play and other attractions; after which oysters and ice cream will be served. Admission 7 cents. The public invited.

Mammoth Bronze Turkeys—Toms, $5. Hens, $3. Trio, $10. Extra large birds must be sold by Jan. 1st.—E. A. RASBERRY, Walsenburg, N. C.

Since December came in the merchants of Farmville have had the busiest season in years. All the clerks are busy and many stores have doubled their force. This goes to show that Farmville is a good place to do your trading.

Read the advertisement in this issue of W. D. Fields, Farmville's leading Jeweler, and buy your Christmas gifts from him if you want high grade goods at reasonable prices. He has on display a handsome line of just the kind of articles you would like to give your friends.

Lost—My watch Saturday afternoon. Large 23-jewel open face nickel case watch. Reward.—Austin Hamlin.

Read the half-page advertisement of the Joyner Furniture Co., on the last page of this issue and call at their store and let Mr. E. Wyatt, of the M. Schulz Co., demonstrate to you their line of Pianos and Player Pianos. Music in the home is well worth the price a hundred times, for it puts new life into the old and keeps the young happy.

The great Executor's Sale of W. M. Lang Co. opened Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock as advertised, and something like seventy-five or one hundred people were standing in waiting for the doors to be thrown open. The store of this company has been crowded each day and the people are taking advantage of this money-saving opportunity, many putting in a supply for the coming year. Elsewhere in this issue will be seen a special message from this firm in which they are offering more valuable prizes. On Monday of next week they are going to repeat their offer of Ladies' dress patterns and men's dress shirts to the first 25 of each buying a dollar's worth. Read their advertisement in this issue for further particulars.

LOST!—Saturday night, Dec. 11th, somewhere down street, Bank Book of Pippin & Shackelford, which contained between $70 and $75 in currency. Finder will please return and receive reward.—J. L. Shackelford.

A SANTA CLAUS RHYM

By IDA KENNISTON
Pictures by Fanny Y. Cary.

This is the Pack
That Santa Claus brought at Christmas

This is the Sleigh
That carried the Pack
That Santa Claus brought at Christmas

These are the Reindeer
That drew the Sleigh
That carried the Pack
That Santa Claus brought at Christmas

This is the house
Where the Reindeer stopped
That drew the Sleigh
That carried the Pack
That Santa Claus brought at Christmas

This is the Chimney big and wide
That Santa Claus climbed down its side

At the House where the Reindeer stopped
That drew the Sleigh
That carried the Pack
That Santa Claus brought at Christmas

This is the Hearth, where, all in a row,
The stockings hung waiting for Santa, you know;
They hung by the Chimney big and wide
That Santa Claus climbed down its side

At the House where the Reindeer stopped
That drew the Sleigh
That carried the Pack
That Santa Claus brought at Christmas

This is the Stocking long and fine
That the little girl hung at the end of the line

These by the Hearth, where, all in a row,
The stockings hung waiting for Santa, you know;
They hung by the Chimney big and wide
That Santa Claus climbed down its side

At the House where the Reindeer stopped
That drew the Sleigh
That carried the Pack
That Santa Claus brought at Christmas

This is the Stocking long and fine
That the little girl hung at the end of the line

MAY IT EVER BE TRUS IN THE OLD U. S. A.

MAGAZINE CLUB MEETS.

The Ladies Magazine Club was charmingly entertained by Mrs. Ben Joyner on Tuesday Dec. 14th. A Christmas program previously arranged in which Mrs. J. Y. Monk, Mrs. W. J. Rasberry and Mrs. Ben. A. Joyner took part, was enjoyed by all. The social feature of the program was a contest in which each should draw a Christmas picture. Miss Venetia Morrill proved the best artist and was awarded a dainty sewing bag. A delicious salad course was served. Miss Genevieve McMillan and Berta Davis were guests.

Entertainment At The Warehouse.

One of the most enjoyable social functions that has occurred in Farmville lately was a supper and dance given by the Tobacco Board of Trade at the warehouse Friday evening Dec. 10. Promptly at the hour of seven-thirty the guests began to arrive and as each entered the house they seemed to forget everything but the good time that was in store for them. Games were enjoyed by all and then a most delicious salad course which was served on a long table put up for the occasion. A charming feature of the evening was an old time square dance in which all, both old and young took part.

Besides the teachers of the Farmville school there were a few other lucky guests. The dance continued until a late hour after which the guests departed declaring they had not spent such happy hours in a long time.

Mules For Sale at Auction

On Friday, Dec. 24th, at 2 p. m. I will offer for sale at auction to the highest bidder for cash two mules—one 3 years old and one 7 years old. Sale will take place in Farmville near W. M. Lang Co's store.
Mrs. Mary E. Case.

NOTICE

By virtue contained in a Mortgage Deed executed to R. L. Davis on Sept. 7th 1909 by Irvin Hines and Fannie Hines, I will offer for cash at public sale before the Court House door in Greenville on Monday January 17th, 1916.

A lot near the Southern boundary of the town of Farmville adjoining the land of Chloe Joyner, Bettie Joyner, Whitehurst heirs and R. L. Davis, containing one acre and being the lot on which said Hines resided at his death.

This Dec. 14 1915.
R. L. DAVIS, Trustee.
